Rossetti And The Fair Lady:

Rossetti and the Fair Lady David Sonstroem, 1970 Woman and the Demon Nina Auerbach, 1982 Analyzes the Victorian conception of both demonic and divine nature of women in Victorian art and literature Paradise Preserved Max F. Schulz, 1985 Examines the ways in which the idea of an earthly paradise inspired English life and thought in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Gardens and Grim Ravines Pauline Fletcher, 2017-03-14 This book is the first systematic examination of the significance of landscape in Victorian poetry Pauline Fletcher divides poetic landscapes into two categories antisocial landscapes of isolation or retreat and social landscapes that reflect the life of man in community Originally published in 1983 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Pre-Raphaelitism and Medievalism in the Arts Liana Cheney, 1992 This volume presents an interdisciplinary view of the interpretation of Pre Raphaelite art and literature The current intensifying interest in the relationship between the visual arts and narrative and their critical interpretation justifies a look at the earliest use of such orientation in the works of the Pre Raphaelite Brotherhood and its followers Particularly in the work of Rossetti Hunt Millais and Burne Jones one can see at work the Pre Raphaelist invention of a personal symbolic language The same holds true for their literary counterparts particularly Tennyson Francis Thompson and Swinburne The contributors essays cover the various methodologies of art history and literature as well as artistic and literary criticisms The main focus is the assimilation of the medieval tradition as well as the interpretation of it With many illustrations A Gallery of Her Own Elree I. Harris, Shirley R. Scott, 2013-11-26 First Published in 1997 This book is intended as a resource for anyone interested in the artistic contributions and activities of women in nineteenth century Britain It is an index as well as an annotated bibliography and provides sources for information about women well known in their own time and about women who were little known then and are forgotten now Women, Art, And Power And Other Essays Linda Nochlin, 2018-02-12 Women Art and Power seven landmark essays on women artists and women in art history brings together the work of almost twenty years of scholarship and speculation Edith Wharton and the Visual Arts Emily J. Orlando, 2007 This work explores Edith Wharton's career long concern with a 19th century visual culture that limited female artistic agency and expression Wharton repeatedly invoked the visual arts as a medium for revealing the ways that women's bodies have been represented as passive sexualized infantilized sickly dead Well versed in the Italian masters Wharton made special use of the art of the Pre Raphaelite Brotherhood particularly its penchant for producing not portraits of individual women but instead icons onto whose bodies male desire is superimposed Homer's Iliad and the Trojan War Jan Haywood, Naoise Mac

Sweeney,2018-03-22 In this new volume Jan Haywood and Nao se Mac Sweeney investigate the position of Homer's Iliad within the wider Trojan War tradition through a series of detailed case studies From ancient Mesopotamia to twenty first century America these examples are drawn from a range of historical and cultural contexts and from Athenian pot paintings to twelfth century German scholarship they engage with a range of different media and genres Inspired by the dialogues inherent in the process of reception the book adopts a dialogic structure In each chapter paired essays by Haywood and Mac Sweeney offer contrasting authorial voices addressing a single theme thereby drawing out connections and dissonances between a diverse suite of classical and post classical Iliadic receptions The resulting book offers new insights both into individual instances of Iliadic reception in particular historical contexts but also into the workings of a complex story tradition The centrality of the Iliad within the wider Trojan War tradition is shown to be a function of conscious engagement not only with Iliadic content but also with Iliadic status and the iconic idea of the Homeric Yeats and the Visual Arts

Elizabeth Bergmann Loizeaux,2003-03-01 This beautifully illustrated book traces W B Yeats's fascination with the visual arts from his early years which were strongly influenced by his father's paintings and the Pre Raphaelite brotherhood to his celebration in his old age of Greek sculpture Byzantine mosaics and Michaelangelo's art Jane Morris Wendy

Parkins,2013-04-15 A scholarly monograph devoted to Jane Morris an icon of Victorian art whose face continues to grace a range of Pre Raphaelite merchandise Described by Henry James as a dark silent medieval woman Jane Burden Morris has tended to remain a rather one dimensional figure in subsequent accounts This book however challenges the stereotype of Jane Morris as silent model reclusive invalid and unfaithful wife Drawing on extensive archival research as well as the biographical and literary tradition surrounding William Morris and Dante Gabriel Rossetti the book argues that Jane Morris is a figure who complicates current understandings of Victorian female subjectivity because she does not fit neatly into Victorian categories of feminine identity She was a working class woman who married into middle class affluence an artist's model who became an accomplished embroiderer and designer and an apparently reclusive silent invalid who was the lover of Dante Gabriel Rossetti and Wilfred Scawen Blunt Jane Morris and the Burden of History particularly focuses on textual representations in letters diaries memoirs and novels from the Victorian period onwards in order to investigate the cultural transmission and resilience of the stereotype of Jane Morris Drawing on recent reconceptualisations of gender autobiography and afterlives this book urges readers to think differently about an extraordinary woman and about life writing in the Victorian period The Pre-Raphaelite Body J. B. Bullen,1998 Pre Raphaelitism was the first avant garde movement in Britain It shocked its first audience and as it modulated into Aestheticism it continued to disturb the British public In this fresh and original study Professor Bullen traces the sources of that shock to the representation of the human body By examining the discourses which were developed to denounce or to explain the new art forms he shows that the distorted maimed or eroticized body formed the principal focus of anxiety in nineteenth century criticism Using a truly interdisciplinary method he relates the painting of Millais and other early Pre Raphaelites to fears about cholera and Catholicism he demonstrates how the body of the sexualized female became an object of obsessive fascination in the painting and poetry of Dante Gabriel Rossetti and William Morris he locates the writing of Swinburne and Prater in the context of the debate over the Woman Question and he shows how the responses to the Aesthetic painting of Burne Jones were conditioned by the sexual psychopathology of mid nineteenth century mental science Haunted Texts William Evan

Fredeman,2003-01-01 Begun by young rebels committed to revolutionizing the creative arts Pre Raphaelitism has moved from the margins of nineteenth century art and literature to the vanguard of interdisciplinary studies The term is now used to denote the Pre Raphaelite Aesthetic and Decadent movements in art culture and literature but it has remained as difficult to define as ever Haunted Texts attempts to meet the challenge of defining and illustrating the full spectrum of Pre Raphaelitism Working with a diverse range of Pre Raphaelite poetry painting decorative arts book illustration and political prose the ten contributors to Haunted Texts pursue the critical strategies of such leading figures as Christina Rossetti and Dante Rossetti William Morris and Oscar Wilde Walter Pater and Aubrey Beardsley The essays consider the bibliocritical issues of archival research concerning the personal letters and diaries of the Rossetti family the technological issues that challenge conventional methods of scholarship the gender issues concerning constructions of identity derived from the changing conceptions of love desire anxiety and brotherhood and the interdisciplinary cultural issues that transgress the borders of high art and popular culture Haunted Texts pays tribute to the scholarship of Professor William Fredeman who devoted much of his career since the 1950s to establishing a critical foundation that would enable future scholars to define their understanding of the complexity of Pre Raphaelitism Dante Gabriel Rossetti's Female Figures and Victorian Womanhood Chia-Jung Lin,1998 The Cambridge Companion to English Poets Claude Julien Rawson,2011-01-27

This volume provides essays by twenty nine leading scholars and critics on the best English poets from Chaucer to Larkin

Flight from Certainty ,2021-11-01 Light and Obscurity in Symbolism Deborah Cibelli,Rosina Neginsky,2016-01-14 The idea of light and darkness is one of the central ideas of the Symbolist movement since this is a movement of contrasts It encompasses the major themes of Symbolism such as good and evil beauty and ugliness the visible and the invisible and the divine and the earthly This volume brings together a range of studies in order to understand the notion of light and darkness and a variety of its Symbolist interpretations It also stresses the interdisciplinary nature of the concepts of light and darkness in Symbolism as well as the cohabitation and symbiosis of both which are together or separately at the core of this movement

Angels of Art: Women and Art in American Society, 1876Ð1914 , The Antiquary Edward Walford,George Latimer Apperson,1894 The poems of Elizabeth Siddal in context Anne Woolley,2021-03-09 A ground breaking new book that considers all Siddal poems with reference to female and primarily male counterparts adding substantially to knowledge of her work as a writer and their shared contemporary concerns Dante Rossetti Swinburne Tennyson Ruskin and Keats were either known to her or a source of influence on the Pre Raphaelite Brotherhood with which she was associated and certain of their texts are compared with hers to discuss interplay between erotic and spiritual love the ballad tradition nineteenth century feminism and the Romantic concept of the conjoined physical and spectral body Siddal's artwork is used to introduce each chapter while other Pre Raphaelite paintings illuminate the texts and further the inter disciplinary philosophy of the Brotherhood This important and stimulating book focuses on the intrinsic merit of Siddal's poetics whilst advocating a research method that could have multiple applications elsewhere
