Teaching Primary English Eve Bearne, David Reedy, 2023-07-31 Now in its second edition Teaching Primary English is a bestselling comprehensive evidence informed guide designed to support and inspire teaching and learning in the primary school. Written in a clear and accessible way it draws on the very latest research and theory to describe and exemplify a full and rich English curriculum. It offers those on teacher training courses as well as qualified teachers who are looking to develop their practice invaluable subject knowledge and guidance for effective enjoyable classroom practice. Throughout there is an emphasis on equity and inclusion. Advice and ideas are supported by explicit examples of good teaching linked to video clips filmed in real schools, reflective activities, observational tasks and online resources. Each chapter includes suggestions for great children's literature, considers assessment throughout and offers support in planning for inclusion and special educational needs. New and expanded areas for this edition include Multimodal texts, Increased coverage of Early Years Dialogic learning and oracy. Comprehensive companion website with revised and additional resources. A new section on digital literacies. Reading for pleasure. Teaching grammar in context. Critical literacy. With a focus on connecting all modes of English, the global and the local and home and school experience, this detailed uplifting book includes inspiring case studies throughout and will support you in developing a curious critical approach to teaching and learning English. Additional content can be found on the fantastic supporting website. Features include Video clips from within the classroom to demonstrate English teaching techniques. Audio resources including an interactive quiz to check understanding and provide real life examples and case studies. Downloadable resources to support teaching and incorporate into lesson plans. New Directions in Teaching English Antero Eidman-Aadah, Elisa A. Scherff, 2015-03-25 New Directions in Teaching English: Reimagining Teaching Teacher Education and Research attempts to create a comprehensive vision of critical and culturally relevant English teaching at the dawn of the 21st century. This book is multi-voiced. It includes perspectives from classroom teachers, teacher educators and researchers in language and literacy positioned to respond to recent changes in national conversations about literacy learning and assessment. These variously situated authors also recognize the rapidly changing demographics in schools, the changing nature of literacy in the digital age and the increasing demands for literacy in the workplace. This book is critical. At all times education is a political act and schools are embedded within a sociocultural reality that benefits some at the expense of others. Therefore the approach advocated through many of the chapters is one of critical literacy where English students gain reading and writing skills and proficiency with digital technologies that allow them to become more able, discerning and empowered consumers and producers of texts. Handbook of Research on Teaching Literacy Through the Communicative and Visual Arts, Volume II James Flood, Shirley Brice Heath, Diane Lapp, 2015-04-22 The Handbook of Research on Teaching Literacy Through the Communicative and Visual Arts Volume II brings together state of the art research and practice on the evolving view of literacy as encompassing not only reading writing speaking and listening but also the multiple ways through which learners gain access to knowledge and skills It forefronts as central to literacy education the visual communicative and performative arts and the extent to which all of the technologies that have vastly expanded the meanings and uses of literacy originate and evolve through the skills and interests of the young A project of the International Reading Association published and distributed by Routledge Taylor Francis Visit <http://www.reading.org> for more information about International Reading Association books membership and other services
