Royal Canon Of Turin:

The Political Situation in Egypt During the Second Intermediate Period, C. 1800-1550 B.C. K. S. B. Ryholt, Adam Bülow-Jacobsen, 1997 The Second Intermediate Period designates the 250 year period 1800-1550 BC which separates the two glorious periods of the Middle Kingdom and the New Kingdom During the 19th century BC an invasion by Canaanite tribes into the Delta took place Around 1800 BC these people proclaimed their own king and the Delta thus became independent from the rest of Egypt Egypt remained split between the Canaanitic rulers in North and the native Egyptian Kings in the South for the rest of the Second Intermediate Period The division of Egypt brought about an economic decline and the entire period is characterized by a lack of royal monuments This circumstance has greatly hampered any attempts to establish a chronology of the period and as a consequence it has been very difficult to date many sources which are relevant for the social and political situation of the period The Second Intermediate Period has therefore remained one of the most obscure periods of Egypt's ancient history The dissertation is a new attempt to establish a chronology for the Second Intermediate Period and define the different kingdoms their territories and political relations The study consists of four main chapters three appendixes a catalogue of sources bibliography and indices Included is a catalogue of all the historical sources about 1500 known to certify the names of the Egyptian kings of the Second Intermediate Period Each source is described in terms of type origin and present location followed by bibliographical references The Royal Canon of Turin Sir Alan Henderson Gardiner, 1987 Papyrus No. 1874. The Royal Canon of Turin. A Facsimile, Edited and Annotated by Alan H. Gardiner. Museo Egizio (TURIN), Alan Henderson Gardiner, 1959 In Search of History John Van Seters, 1997 The primary concern of the book is to understand the origins and nature of history writing in ancient Israel The investigation is undertaken against the background of history writing in the Near Eastern and classical worlds Professor Van Seters begins with a broad survey of all the historiographic material relevant for the study of Israel's own writing of history He then turns his attention to the question of Israel's historiography by focusing particularly on the Deuteronomistic Historian the first Israelite historian
