Secularized Europe:

A Secular Europe Lorenzo Zucca, 2012-10-11 The accommodation of diverse religious practices and laws within a secular framework is one of the most pressing and controversial problems facing contemporary European public order In this provocative contribution to the subject Lorenzo Zucca develops a new picture of what secularism means and how Europe can reconcile its religious diversity Religious America, Secular Europe? Peter Berger, Grace Davie, Effie Fokas, 2021-11-18

Europe is a relatively secular part of the world in global terms Why is this so And why is the situation in Europe so different from that in the United States The first chapter of this book the theme articulates this contrast The remaining chapters the variations look in turn at the historical philosophical institutional and sociological dimensions of these differences Key ideas are examined in detail among them constitutional issues the Enlightenment systems of law education and welfare questions of class ethnicity gender and generation In each chapter both the similarities and differences between the European and the American cases are carefully scrutinized The final chapter explores the ways in which these features translate into policy on both sides of the Atlantic This book is highly topical and relates very directly to current misunderstandings between Europe and America

Politics of Religion in Western Europe François Foret, Xabier Itçaina, 2013-06-17 Religion is becoming increasingly important to the study of political science and to re-examine key concepts such as democracy securitization foreign policy analysis and international relations The secularization of Europe is often understood according to the concept of multiple modernities the idea that there may be several roads to modernity which do not all mean the eradication of religion This framework provides support for the view that different traditions societies and groups can come to terms with the components of modernity capitalism democracy human rights science and reason while keeping in touch with their religious background faith and practice Contributors examine the interaction between EU integration processes and Western European countries such as Belgium France Luxembourg Austria Scandinavia Italy and the UK and shine fresh light on the economic and cultural contexts brought about by relationships between politics and religion including immigrant religions and new religious movements This volume combines theoretical perspectives from political sociology and international relations to consider the role of religion as a source of power identity and ethics in institutions and societies Politics of Religion in Western Europe will be of interest to scholars of politics religion the European Union and political sociology

Church Planting in the Secular West Paas, 2016 An expert study of church planting in the most secular part of contemporary Europe In this book Stefan Paas offers thoughtful analysis of reasons and motives for missionary church planting in Europe and he explores successful and unsuccessful strategies in that post-Christian secularized context Drawing in part on his own involvement with planting two churches in the Netherlands Paas explores confessional motives growth motives and innovation motives for church planting in Europe tracing them back to different traditions and reflecting on them from theological and empirical perspectives He presents examples from the European context and offers sound advice for improving existing missional practices Paas also draws out lessons for North America in a chapter coauthored with Darrell Guder and John Franke Finally Paas weaves together the various threads in the book with a theological defense of church planting Presenting new research as it does this critical missiological perspective will add significantly to a fuller understanding of church planting in our contemporary context

The Origins of Jewish Secularization in Eighteenth-Century Europe Shmuel Feiner, 2011-06-06 Throughout the eighteenth century an ever sharper distinction emerged between Jews of the old order and those who were self consciously of a new world As aspirations for liberation clashed with adherence to tradition as national ethnic cultural and other alternatives emerged and a long circuitous search for identity began it was no longer evident that the definition of Jewishness would be based on the beliefs and practices surrounding the study of the Torah In The Origins of Jewish Secularization in Eighteenth Century Europe Shmuel Feiner reconstructs this evolution by listening to the voices of those who participated in the process and by deciphering its cultural codes and meanings On the one hand a great majority of observant Jews still accepted the authority of the Talmud and the leadership of the rabbis on the other there was a gradually more conspicuous minority of Epicureans and freethinkers As the ground shifted each individual was marked according to his or her place on the path between faith and heresy between devoutness and permissiveness or indifference Building on his award winning Jewish Enlightenment Feiner unfolds the story of critics of religion mostly Ashkenazic Jews who did not take active part in the secular intellectual revival known as the Haskalah In open or concealed rebellion Feiner s subjects lived primarily in the cities of western and central Europe Altona Hamburg Amsterdam London Berlin Breslau and Prague They participated as fashionable Jews adopting the habits and clothing of the surrounding Gentile society Several also adopted the deist worldview of Enlightenment Europe rejecting faith in revelation the authority of Scripture and the obligation to observe the commandments Peering into the synagogue observing individuals in the coffeehouse or strolling the boulevards and peeking into the bedroom Feiner recovers forgotten critics of religion from both the margins and the center of Jewish discourse His is a pioneering work on the origins of one of the most significant transformations of modern Jewish history

The Routledge Handbook of Religion and Politics in Europe Effie Fokas, Alberta Giorgi, 2025-12-30 The Routledge Handbook of Religion and Politics in Europe is an outstanding reference source to this engaging subject area A number of developments at the intersection between religion and politics in Europe including the terrorist attacks echoing that of 9 11 the rise of the far right and populism linked to anti Islamic rhetoric in the context of migration of Muslims into Europe and a series of controversies to do with free speech and hate speech have served as a catalyst for a surge in interdisciplinary scholarship The relationships between religion and politics are increasingly recognised as central to our understanding of contemporary European life and are investigated from a growing variety of approaches and perspectives Comprising 31 chapters by a team of international contributors this handbook is divided into three parts Theoretical underpinnings and methodological perspectives Actors policies and institutions Emerging themes and current debates Within these sections central issues debates and problems to religion and politics are examined including migration religion in the city digital religion environmentalism humour celebrity and leadership activism authority citizenship mediatization secularism judicialization marketization political economy security European parliament human rights party politics populism feminism political violence hate speech bioethics pandemics and health cults race equality and inequality The Routledge Handbook of Religion and Politics in Europe is essential reading for students and researchers in religious studies and politics This handbook will also be very useful for those in related fields such as cultural studies media studies anthropology and sociology

Funerary Culture and the Limits of Secularization in Denmark Anne Kjaersgaard, 2017 Considered one of the most irreligious countries in the world in spite of continued religious affiliation of the majority of the population Denmark is an important case to explore the limits of secularization This study challenges the secularization thesis from the perspective of lived religion innovatively examining death related behaviour and hitherto overlooked religion in relation to organ donation churchyard design grave visiting rituals and graveyard photographs Dissertation Series Death Studies Nijmegen Studies in Thanatology Vol 4 Subject Danish Studies Religious Studies Death Studies

The Secularization of the European Mind in the Nineteenth Century Owen Chadwick, 1990-09-13 Owen Chadwick's acclaimed lectures on the secularisation of the European mind trace the declining hold of the Church and its doctrines on European society in the nineteenth century

Migrants and Religion: Paths, Issues, and Lenses, 2020-11-04 Despite the worldwide dramatic spread of religious based discriminations persecutions and conflicts both official data and academic literature have underestimated their role as a root cause of contemporary migrations This multidisciplinary study aims to overcome this gap Through an unprecedented collection of theoretical analysis and original empirical evidence the book provides unique data and insights on the role of religion in the trajectories of asylum seekers and migrants from the analysis of the religious geography of sending countries to the role of spirituality as a factor of resilience and adaptation By enhancing both academic and political debate on these issues the book offers the possibility of regaining awareness of the close link between religious freedom and the quality of democracy Contributors include Paolo Gomarasca Monica Martinelli Monica Spatti Andrea Santini Andrea Plebani Paolo Maggolini Riccardo Redaelli Alessia Melcangi Giancarlo Rovati Annavittoria Sarli Giulia Mezzetti Lucia Boccacin Linda Lombi Donatella Bramanti Stefania Meda Giovanna Rossi Beatrice Nicolini Cristina Giuliani Camillo Regalia Giovanni Giulio Valtolina Paola Barachetti Maddalena Colombo Rosangela Lodigiani Mariagrazia Santagati Fabio Baggio Vera Lomazzi Paolo Bonetti Laura Zanfrini Mario Antonelli Luca Bressan Alessandro Bergamaschi Catherine Blaya N ria Llevot Calvet Olga Bernad Caverro and Jordi Garreta Bochaca
