LoPucki, Elizabeth Warren, 2000 The systems approach we employ in this book looks at more than just law Law is one of many elements that together constitute the secured credit system To teach the law without teaching the system in which it is embedded would deprive the law of much of its meaning and make it more difficult to understand Lynn LoPucki and Elizabeth Warren Fully incorporating the new Article 9 of the UCC this substantially revised edition of the groundbreaking text continues to simplify the conceptually complex policies of the secured credit system with an innovative systems approach By exploring secured transactions and investment securities in a series of assignments and problems students are empowered to focus on secured transactions as one aspect of a larger system thus facilitating learning and comprehension of the material What makes this casebook stand out from the rest Expert authorship renowned authors Lynn LoPucki and Elizabeth Warren draw on their years of legal scholarship and teaching excellence to refine and extend their systems approach Uses the author s unique and innovative systems approach treating secured credit as a system with subsystems that work together to accomplish the system s principal goal A combination of traditional application and open ended theoretical problems are presented in the order of difficulty with the most difficult problems focusing on an actual practice setting to enhance student learning Each assignment is appropriate for a 50 60 minute class contains carefully selected problems that involve students in case strategy and planning and includes all the information needed to answer the problems New To The Third Edition Incorporates the new Article 9 Secured Transactions of the UCC throughout the entire text Updated cases and problems reflect recent legal trends and developments A thoroughly revised Teacher s Manual in every chapter Teacher's Manual for Secured Credit Professor Elizabeth Warren, 2000-01-01 International and Comparative Secured Transactions Law Spyridon V Bazinas, Orkun Akseli, 2017-10-19 The law of secured transactions has seen dramatic changes in the last decade International organisations particularly the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law UNCITRAL have been working towards the creation of international legal standards aimed at the modernisation and harmonisation of secured financing laws eg the United Nations Convention on the Assignment of Receivables in International Trade the UNCITRAL Legislative Guide on Secured Transactions and its Intellectual Property Supplement the UNCITRAL Guide on the Implementation of a Security Rights Registry and the UNCITRAL Model Law on Secured Transactions The overall theme of this book is international or cross border secured transactions law It assembles contributions from some of the most authoritative academic voices on secured financing law This publication will be of interest to those involved in secured transactions around the world including policy makers practitioners judges arbitrators and academics

The Creation and Interpretation of Commercial Law Clayton P. Gillette, 2022-03-21 This title was first published in 2003 This volume contains essays by prominent commentators on topics in commercial law It addresses the increasing harmonization of international commercial law and the essays demonstrate different methodologies used in analysing commercial law such as economic and jurisprudential approaches

Secured Credit in Europe Teemu Juutilainen, 2018-03-22 Winner of the 2016 2018 KG Idman Prize This monograph seeks the optimal way to promote compatibility between systems of proprietary security rights in Europe focusing on security rights over tangible movables and receivables Based on comparative research it proposes how best to tackle cross border problems impeding trade and finance notably uncertainty of enforceability and unexpected loss of security rights It offers an extensive analysis of the academic literature of more recent years that has appeared in English German the Scandinavian languages and Finnish The author organises the concrete means of promoting compatibility into a centralised substantive approach a centralised conflicts approach a local conflicts approach and a local substantive approach The centralised approaches develop EU law and the local approaches Member State laws The substantive approaches unify or harmonise substantive law while the conflicts approaches rely on private international law The author proposes determining the optimal way to promote compatibility by objective based division of labour between the four approaches The objectives developed for that purpose are derived from the economic functions of security rights the conditions for legal evolution and a transnational conception of justice This book is an important contribution to the future of secured transactions law in Europe and more widely It will be of interest to academics policymakers and legal practitioners involved in this field

Use of TARP Funds in the Support and Reorganization of the Domestic Automotive Industry Elizabeth Warren, 2010

The Future of Secured Credit in Europe Horst Eidenmüller, Eva-Maria Kieninger, 2012-07-12 This volume contains the reports and discussions presented at the conference The Future of Secured Credit in Europe in Munich from July 12th to July 14th 2007 It aims at taking the debate to a new stage by exploring the need and possible avenues for creating a European law of security interests The first part examines from an economic and a community law perspective the case for European lawmaking on secured credit and the legislative approach to be taken The intention in the second and third part is to look in more detail at the choices European lawmakers will have to make in devising a European law of secured credit The second part focuses on secured transactions involving corporeal movables tangibles whereas the third part considers categories of collateral that may require special rules

Property Law and Economics Boudewijn Bouckaert, 2010-01-01 This book contains illuminating and carefully written literature reviews on the central topics of the economics of property rights and institutions As a bonus it includes two fascinating chapters on topics off the beaten path slavery and new types of property rights in environmental goods This book will be indispensable for students and experienced scholars alike covers property law and property rights providing a full summary and comprehensive bibliography of the existing law together with discussion from an economic perspective on the most important aspects of property law. Leading experts have brought together their knowledge and insight on a full range of issues including comparative property law and the history of property law to create a truly autonomous interdisciplinary resource. This essential reference work will strongly appeal to scholars and students enrolled in academic programmes of law and economics. Academic lawyers involved in research and teaching of private common law, practicing lawyers in the field of real estate law as well as economists involved in researching development economics and transition economics will also find this an invaluable resource.

Eric Posner University of Chicago Law School US This study
