Security in the Information Age United States. Congress. Joint Economic Committee, 2002 Security in the Information Age ,2002 Security in the Information Age Robert F. Bennett, 2001-01-01 Over the years the Joint Economic Committee of the U S Congress has investigated a wide range of threats to the U S and its economy Following its June 2001 hearing entitled Wired World Cyber Security and the U S Economy it became clear that we needed to better understand an increasingly complicated set of diffuse security threats Senator Robert F Bennett volunteered to identify individuals whose perspectives about critical infrastructure protection would be of value to the Congress and compile a study This compendium represents a range of perspectives on infrastructure protection from definitions and strategies to business challenges and policy actions National Security in the Information Age Emily O. Goldman, Silvio Pons, Federico Romero, 2004 This book examines how technology has affected national security focusing on issues such as definitions of peace and war the conduct of and military organization for war and the growing role of the private sector in providing security This is a 107-2

Hearing: Cyberterrorism: Is The Nation's Critical Infrastructure Adequately Protected?, July 24, 2002, * ,2003

Critical infrastructure protection significant challenges need to be addressed , The United States General Accounting Office GAO presents a report entitled Critical Infrastructure Protection Significant Challenges in Developing National Capabilities published in April 2001 The report is for the Subcommittee on Technology Terrorism and Government Information of the Committee on the Judiciary for the U S Senate The report discusses the progress of the National Infrastructure Protection Center NIPC in developing national capabilities for analyzing cyber threat and vulnerability data and enhancing capabilities for responding to cyber attacks Cyberterrorism United States. Congress. House. Committee on Government Reform. Subcommittee on Government Efficiency, Financial Management, and Intergovernmental Relations, 2003 The New Millennium: Challenges and Strategies for a Globalizing World Sai Felicia

Krishna-Hensel, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2000 An important look at the complexity of the challenges faced by the international system at the beginning of the new millennium The shape of the New World Order is being driven largely by forces unleashed through factors such as economic globalization and technological development The book emphasizes the importance of interdisciplinary analysis in order to understand the extent and diversity of the factors which condition the dynamics of this transformation Essential reading for students of human rights security finance and technology Security

In The Information Age New Challenges, New Strategies, Etc., May 2002 ,2002 Rethinking Leadership and "whole of Government" National Security Reform Joseph R. Cerami, Jeffrey A. Engel, Army War College (U.S.). Strategic Studies Institute, 2010 On June 24 2009 The Bush School of Government and Public Service and The Scowcroft Institute of International Affairs at Texas A M University and the U S Army War College Strategic Studies Institute SSI conducted a conference on Leadership and Government Reform in Washington DC Two panels discussed Leader Development in Schools of Public Affairs and Leadership National Security and Whole of Government Reforms The panelists and authors reflected on the nature of external internal and transnational threats to U S security and the need for changes in developing people organizations and institutions to more effectively efficiently and ethically improve the U S Government s capacity to address the need for change The authors in this book share the belief of many in the international and public affairs community that the world is changing in fundamental ways and our traditional models for understanding America s role do not appear to be working very well A new era of reform is needed for this new age In response panelists in their detailed remarks and subsequent papers offer suggestions to reform the United States national security system to meet 21st century threats while simultaneously developing the leaders who can implement a serious and broad scale reform agenda
