Teaching Lives: Contemporary Pedagogies of Life Narratives Laurie McNeill, Kate Douglas, 2018-12-07 The contemporary boom in the publication and consumption of auto biographical representation has made life narratives a popular and compelling subject for twenty first century classrooms The proliferation of forms media terminologies and disciplinary approaches in a range of educational contexts invites discussion of how and why we teach these materials Drawing on their experiences in disciplines including creative writing language studies education literary studies linguistics and psychology contributors to this volume explore some of the central issues that inspire enable and complicate the teaching of life writing subjects and texts examining the ideologies issues methods and practices that underpin contemporary pedagogies of auto biography The collection acknowledges the potential perils that life writing texts and subjects represent for instructors with a series of short essays by leading auto biography scholars who reflect on their failed experiences teaching life narratives and share strategies for negotiating the particular challenges these texts can present Exploring issues including teaching across genres analyzing writing about trauma decolonizing pedagogies and challenging assumptions our own our students and our colleagues Teaching Lives illuminates what makes the teaching of life narratives different from teaching other kinds of subjects or texts and why auto biography has such a critical role to play in contemporary education This book was originally published as a special issue of a b Auto Biography Studies Biography Nigel Hamilton,2009-06-30 For what purpose and for whom has biographical pursuit endured and how does it play such a contested popular role in contemporary Western culture from biopics to blogs memoirs to docudramas Award winning biographer Hamilton addresses these questions in an incisive and vivid narrative that will appeal to students of human nature and self representation across the arts and sciences

The Politics of Contested Narratives Ilse Lazaroms,Emily Gioielli,2016-03-17 The twentieth century in Europe was characterized by great moments of rupture such as two world wars ideological conflict and political polarization In these processes as well as in the historical writing that followed in its wake the individual as an historical entity often appeared crushed In line with contemporary theories about the precariousness of historical writing and the self this volume seeks to understand the important developments in modern Europe from the perspective of the single sometimes isolated but always original viewpoint of individuals inhabiting the space at the other side of the traditional grand narratives Including theoretical chapters as well as detailed case studies this volume takes a biographical approach to dystopian events the Holocaust Fascism Communism and collectivization by starting with the voices of unknown historical actors and relating their experiences to larger processes in modern European history such as the emergence of the national collective memory and state formation as well as changes in the understanding of modern identities and the re formulation of the self This book was originally published as a special issue of the European Review of History The Biographical Turn Hans

Renders,Binne de Haan,Jonne Harmsma,2016-09-13 The Biographical Turn showcases the latest research through which the field of biography is being explored Fifteen leading scholars in the field present the biographical perspective as a scholarly research methodology investigating the consequences of this bottom up approach and illuminating its value for different disciplines While biography has been on the rise in academia since the 1980s this volume highlights the theoretical implications of the biographical turn that is changing the humanities Chapters cover subjects such as gender religion race new media and microhistory presenting biography as as a research methodology suited not only for historians but also for explorations in areas including literature studies sociology economics and politics By emphasizing agency the use of primary sources and the critical analysis of context and historiography this book demonstrates how biography can function as a scholarly methodology for a wide range of topics and fields of research International in scope The Biographical Turn emphasizes that the individual can have a lasting impact on the past and that lives that are now forgotten can be as important for the historical narrative as the biographies of kings and presidents It is a valuable resource for all students of biography history and historical theory Writing Feminist Lives Malin Lidström Brock,2017-05-05 This book draws attention to the controversy that surrounds Betty Friedan Germaine Greer Gloria Steinem and Simone de Beauvoir s lives and the important role that their life stories have played in their feminist writing Directly and indirectly the four women have contributed to battles over feminism's meaning through autobiographically informed political writing. Inevitably therefore their biographers are also participants in these battles yet not always on the same side as their subjects. Writing Feminist Lives introduces a further fold of nuance into considerations of biography and feminism by showing that the biographers of the four women have made methodological choices that reflect their loyalty to or their scepticism towards competing ideological definitions of the exemplary feminist life. The Biographer and the Subject Rana Tekcan, 2010-03-01 A good biography is a well staged illusion. It creates on paper a vivid rounded and immediate sense of lived life. In contrast to purely fictional forms biography writing does not allow total freedom to the biographer in the creative act. Ideally a biography's backbone is formed by accurate historical facts. But its soul lies elsewhere. Since the concern is life something more is needed. Nothing dry cold or dead but a vibrant impression of life that is left in the air after one turns over the last page. But how does a biographer do it? The way a biographer creates a subject is largely dictated by the historical distance between them. There are three types of distance in biographical writing. First where the biographer and the subject personally know one another second where the biographer is a near contemporary of the subject and third where biographer and subject are distinctly separated in some cases by hundreds of years. Tekcan explores how some of the most accomplished biographers manage to recreate life across time and space. She closely examines Samuel Johnson's Life of Mr Richard Savage James Boswell's Life of Samuel Johnson Lytton Strachey's Eminent Victorians Michael Holroyd's Lytton Strachey Park Honan's Jane Austen and Andrew Motion's Keats. Biographical Television Drama Hannah Andrews, 2021-04-13 Biographical Television Drama breaks new ground as to my knowledge the first book length exploration of the terms in which television engages in biographical storytelling. Backed by robust research in biography studies and British television history Hannah Andrews deftly unravels the complexities behind the accessibility of biographical television drama. Her book tackles key questions head on notably rhetorics and style narrative and performance and innovatively ethics while also shedding light on the interconnections with other biographical screen forms through a rich corpus. This is an essential critical study that vindicates television drama's unique place in the histories and practices of screen biography. Bel n Vidal Senior Lecturer in Film Studies at King's College London and co editor of The Biopic in Contemporary Film Culture. This book explores what happens when biography and television meet in a novel fusion of the two fields of study. Andrews compares core concepts in biography and television studies such as intimacy the presentation of the self and the uneasy relationship between fact and fiction. The book examines biographical drama's generic hybridity accounting for the influence of the film biopic docudrama melodrama and period drama. It discusses biographical television drama's representation of real lives in terms of visual style performance and self reflexivity. Andrews also assesses how life stories are shaped for televisual narrative formats and analyses the adaptation process for the biographical drama. Finally the book considers various kinds of reputation of the broadcast institution author biographical subject in relation to the ethics of televisual biography. The Known Citizen Sarah E.

Igo, 2020-03-10 A Washington Post Book of the Year Winner of the Merle Curti Award Winner of the Jacques Barzun Prize Winner of the Ralph Waldo Emerson Award A masterful study of privacy Sue Halpern New York Review of Books Masterful and timely A marathon trek from Victorian propriety to social media exhibitionism Utterly original Washington Post Every day we make decisions about what to share and when how much to expose and to whom Securing the boundary between one's private affairs and public identity has become an urgent task of modern life How did privacy come to loom so large in public consciousness Sarah Igo tracks the quest for privacy from the invention of the telegraph onward revealing enduring debates over how Americans would and should be known The Known Citizen is a penetrating historical investigation with powerful lessons for our own times when corporations government agencies and data miners are tracking our every move A mighty effort to tell the story of modern America as a story of anxieties about privacy Shows us that although we may feel that the threat to privacy today is unprecedented every generation has felt that way since the introduction of the postcard Louis Menand New Yorker Engaging and wide ranging Igo's analysis of state surveillance from the New Deal through Watergate is remarkably thorough and insightful The Nation
