Seed Remembers:

The Seed Remembers Albert Mark Toops, Dana Gail Aston, 2001-01-01 Seeds of Memory J. Richard Jacobs, 2021-07-10 SPACE once believed to be a vast and vacant void has been found in fact to be filled with all sorts of things things that roam freely and at random Our little spaceship Earth is no longer as secure as we once thought it to be There are clouds of dust and gas so hot that their mere passing would scour our little system of planets with a breath of death and destruction complete Clouds so massive that just their passing could throw all our little planets from of their peaceful orbits into the deep cold of a sunless darkness and fling our star out and on its way to being one of the eternal roamers of our galaxy or even throw it into an intergalactic journey to who knows where Black holes blazars blasts of deadly radiation from nearby super novae stars burned out hulks of stars super dense neutron stars rocks small or incredibly large and a host of other things none of them welcome visitors IN THIS INCREDIBLE SWEEPING SAGA across thousands of years and hundreds of light years we come face to face with our fears and deep prejudices It is here in SEEDS OF MEMORY that we get an idea of what it means to be HUMAN and what HUMAN really means It is here in SEEDS OF MEMORY that we are confronted with the need to know colliding head on with reality Are we HOMO SAPIENS SAPIENS truly the only form that humans can take and is our history the only history Might there not be others or others created out of the very stuff of life who are after all our brothers and sisters kith and kin In this story we find that the lines that divide have indistinct fuzzy edges and that we are the ones who make those divisions Here we discover humanity at its magnificent best its seething worst and everything imaginable between while we make an uncertain attempt to reunite two peoples separated by time and space and other things One of those unwelcome visitors has arrived and we are pitifully unprepared This is a speculative look into a far flung future disaster that could actually happen and well might someday and how the human species reacts to it It could even be said that it is a look at a future history a history we might not be able to survive What I Remember Paul C. Valentine, 2011-11-18 THIS IS THE STORY OF ONE MAN S MEMORY of the past 80 years of our history in the 20th and beginning of the 21st century Recollections of the ending of the Great Depression World War II Growing up in Elgin Illinois Elgin High School College years at DePauw University Miami University of Ohio Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Stanford Law School the Air Force Polio in the 50s Washington D C in the Kennedy Years Law practice in Palo Alto Vietnam protests Turmoil on the Stanford Campus The Creative Initiative Foundation Nuclear power and alternative energy Beyond War His 57 year marriage to Nancy Elizabeth Hodge of Niles Ohio their family of three children and seven grandchildren and their living in retirement at The Sequoias in Portola Valley California This is a story of ordinary people who found meaning in their lives in extraordinary times Sarah and the Garden Tricia Hayes, 2025-04-18 Why did Sarah laugh God asks but no one answers Is there even an answer to such a question Sarah s story is not simple There is no bitter old woman who laughs at God because she does not believe on that day God came to her tent to tell her she would have a child Her story begins in the beginning all the way back in the garden where God created unity and where humanity destroyed it in the matter of the tree Sarah's story is about that destruction but it is also about how God hears her and about how God insists she is essential to the Eden work God is doing in the world This thoughtful study looks at Sarah with fresh eyes Beautiful writing and artistic images bring Sarah out of the shadows traditional interpretation has hidden her within to reveal green garden newness born of dust and desolation

Complete Poems A. M. Klein, 1990-01-01 This collection includes all Klein's poetry both original works and translations from Hebrew Yiddish Aramaic and Latin Many of them coming from all periods of his careers have never been published

Learning and Memory Isidore Gormezano, Edward A. Wasserman, 2013-02-01 This volume presents the views and findings of behaviorally and biologically oriented investigators invited to participate in The University of Iowa's biennial learning and memory symposium While chapters vary in their scope and depth of coverage they are all amply referenced so that researchers teachers and students can obtain background information appropriate to their respective needs

In the Mirror of Memory Janet Gyatso, 1992-01-01 This book studies the diverse array of species of memory in Buddhism Contributors focus on a particular school group of texts terms or practices and identify a considerable range of types of mnemonic faculties in Buddhism Included are discussions of Buddhist teaching meditation visualization prayer commemoration of the Buddha dharma practice the use of mnemonic lists to condense lengthy scriptures and the purported recollection of infinite previous lives that immediately preceded Sakyamuni's attainment of Buddhahood Even enlightened awareness itself is said by some Buddhist schools to consist in a mnemonic engagement with reality as such The authors explore Buddhist views on mundane acts of memory such as recognizing reminding memorizing and storing data as well as special types of memory that are cultivated in religious practice One of the most striking discoveries is that perception is intimately related to certain types of memory Several essays investigate if and if so how meditative mindfulness and recollection of the past both of which can be designated by the term smṛti are connected within the Buddhist tradition The question of whether recollection of the past can be explained without violating the foundational Buddhist notions of radical impermanence and no self is addressed by several of the contributing scholars Among the primary sources for the studies in this volume are the northern and southern Abhidharma literature the Maṭṭka's Pāli and Mahāyāna sūtras works of the Buddhist logicians Yogaśāstra materials the Tibetan Great Perfection Rdzogschen tradition and Indian and Tibetan commentarial works Affinities of Buddhist views on memory with those found in Western phenomenology semiology psychology and history of religions are considered as well

Remembering India's Villages Santosh K. Singh, 2023-07-21 In the time of agrarian crisis and movement Remembering India's Villages centralises the rural India examining its stubborn past and dynamic present Departing from the myth of little republics it sees villages in cinema development discourses and debates among the founders of modern India like Gandhi Nehru Tagore and Ambedkar Empirical research multidisciplinary perspective and cross cultural insights are useful aids in this book toward understanding the reality of the rural that comprises structural anomalies and social possibilities The book remembers India s villages under the trope of reconstitution rather than disappearance The book adds to the renewed interest in village studies rural sociology development studies and intellectual history This book is co published with Aakar Books Print edition not for sale in South Asia India Sri Lanka Nepal Bangladesh Pakistan and Bhutan The Second Scroll Abraham Moses Klein,2000-01-01 First published in 1951 The Second Scroll is the only novel by A M Klein a complex work rich with biblical talmudic kabbalistic and literary allusions This scholarly edition annotates and restores the text to Klein s original vision Edible Memory Jennifer A. Jordan,2015-04-14 Jordan begins with the heirloom tomato inquiring into its botanical origins in South America and its culinary beginnings in Aztec cooking to show how the homely and homegrown tomato has since grown to be an object of wealth and taste as well as a popular symbol of the farm to table and heritage foods movements She shows how a shift in the 1940s away from open pollination resulted in a narrow range of hybrid tomato crops But memory and the pursuit of flavor led to intense seed saving efforts increasing in the 1970s as local produce and seeds began to be recognized as living windows to the past
