Seeds Of Fire Chinese Voices Of Conscience:

Seeds of Fire Geremie Barmé, John Minford, 1989 Europe and the Asia-Pacific Stephanie Lawson, 2013-12-16 The many points of contact and conflict about culture and identity that exist between Europe and the Asia Pacific are highlighted in this book This work surveys a variety of issues relating to culture identity and representation from an interdisciplinary perspective with contributions from sociology economics history politics international relations security studies museum studies translation studies and literary and cultural studies Each brings a different perspective to bear on questions of culture and identity in the contemporary period and how these relate to the politics of representation The Aftermath Of The 1989 Tiananmen Crisis For Mainland China Bih-jaw Lin, 2019-07-11 The 1989 Tiananmen crisis marked a crucial turning point for the People's Republic of China The unprecedented demonstrations of popular dissent triggered the downfall of reformist premier Zhao Ziyang who supported the students and the rise of his conservative successor Li Peng The subsequent military crackdown on the demonstrators horrified the world and threatened the PRC with international isolation In this book distinguished scholars from Taiwan and the United States analyze the wide ranging effects of the crisis on the role of ideology the Party the military social and legal reform economic reform Taiwan and Hong Kong and foreign relations For anyone interested in China and in particular the future of Communism this volume will be essential reading Chinese Literature in the Second Half of a Modern Century Pang-Yuan Chi, David Der-wei Wang, 2000-09-22 an important contribution to the study of recent Chinese literature Choice This fine scholarly survey of Chinese literature since 1949 discusses such trends as modernism nativism realism root seeking and scar literature misty poets and political feminist and societal issues in modern Chinese literature Library Journal This volume is a survey of modern Chinese literature in the second half of the twentieth century It has three goals 1 to introduce figures works movements and debates that constitute the dynamics of Chinese literature from 1949 to the end of the century 2 to depict the enunciative endeavors ranging from ideological treatises to avant garde experiments that inform the polyphonic discourse of Chinese cultural politics 3 to observe the historical factors that enacted the interplay of literary post modernities across the Chinese communities in the Mainland Taiwan Hong Kong and overseas Morning Sun Laifong Leung, Jan Walls, 2016-09-16 This is a collection of interviews with 26 writers of China's zhiqing generation relatively young artists who participated in the Cultural Revolution as teen age Red Guards suffered through the subsequent rustication of intellectual youth and eventually returned to relatively normal lives but always with a tragic hiatus haunting their formative years While one goal of Professor Leung is to introduce to the West an important group of writers little known outside China she also aims to succeed through the interviews in providing a special perspective on the devastating political history of China since the 1970s years through the eyes of its keenest observers and in offering a perspective on the social political and cultural milieu of the period Censorship Derek Jones, 2001-12-01 Censorship A World Encyclopedia presents a comprehensive view of censorship from Ancient Egypt to those modern societies that claim to have abolished the practice For each country in the world the history of censorship is described and placed in context and the media censored are examined art cyberspace literature music the press popular culture radio television and the theatre not to mention the censorship of language the most fundamental censorship of all Also included are surveys of major controversies and chronicles of resistance Censorship will be an essential reference work for students of the many subjects touched by censorship and for all those who are interested in the history of and contemporary fate of freedom of expression

China in the 21st Century Jeffrey N. Wasserstrom, Maura Elizabeth Cunningham, 2018-03-12 In this fully revised and updated third edition of China in the 21st Century What Everyone Needs to Know Jeffrey N Wasserstrom and Maura Elizabeth Cunningham provide cogent answers to urgent questions regarding the world's newest superpower and offer a framework for understanding China's meteoric rise from developing country to superpower Framing their answers through the historical legacies Confucian thought Western and Japanese imperialism the Mao era and the Tiananmen Square massacre that largely define China's present day trajectory Wasserstrom and Cunningham introduce readers to the Chinese Communist Party the building boom in Shanghai and the environmental fallout of rapid Chinese industrialization They also explain unique aspects of Chinese culture such as the one child policy and provide insight into Chinese American relations a subject that has become increasingly fraught during the Trump era As Wasserstrom and Cunningham draw parallels between China and other industrialized nations during their periods of development in particular the United States during its rapid industrialization in the 19th century they also predict how we might expect China to act in the future vis vis the United States Russia India and its East Asian neighbors Updated to include perspectives on Hong Kong's shifting political status as well as an expanded discussion of President Xi Jinping's time in office China in the 21st Century provides a concise and insightful introduction to this significant global power

Modern Chinese Writers Helmut Martin, Jeffrey C. Kinkley, 2016-09-16 This volume gathers personal reflections on life and literature by 44 of China's leading authors It aims to illustrate how Chinese society and its creative writing have supported, competed and fought with each other for the past 40 years and more Much of what is revealed here is mundane but the pressure of bringing art to social and political causes indeed the universal pressure to survive forges this collection into a very human document The strengths and weaknesses of these essays offer a window on those of modern Chinese literature itself Realism was the favoured literary doctrine of the day and reflecting this most of these essays speak for themselves about war revolution betrayal and commitment
