Selected Errors Writings On Art And Politics 1981 90:

The Art of Interruption John Roberts, 1998 This is the first monograph length study that charts the coercive diplomacy of the administrations of Richard Nixon and Gerald Ford as practised against their British ally in order to persuade Edward Heath's government to follow a more amenable course throughout the Year of Europe and to convince Harold Wilson's governments to lessen the severity of proposed defence cuts Such diplomacy proved effective against Heath but rather less so against Wilson It is argued that relations between the two sides were often strained indeed to the extent that the most special elements of the relationship that of intelligence and nuclear co operation were suspended Yet the relationship also witnessed considerable co operation This book offers new perspectives on US and UK policy towards British membership of the European Economic Community demonstrates how US détente policies created strain in the special relationship reveals the temporary shutdown of US UK intelligence and nuclear co operation provides new insights in US UK defence co operation and re evaluates the US UK relationship throughout the IMF Crisis "Artwriting, Nation, and Cosmopolitanism in Britain " Mark A. Cheetham, 2017-07-05 Arguing in favour of renewed critical attention to the nation as a category in art history this study examines the intertwining of art theory national identity and art production in Britain from the early eighteenth century to the present day The book provides the first sustained account of artwriting in the British context over the full extent of its development and includes new analyses of such central figures as Hogarth Reynolds Gilpin Ruskin Roger Fry Herbert Read Art Language Peter Fuller and Rasheed Araeen Mark A Cheetham also explores how the Englishing of art theory which came about despite the longstanding occlusion of the intellectual and theoretical in British culture did not take place or have effects exclusively in Britain Theory has always travelled with art and vice versa Using the frequently resurgent discourse of cosmopolitanism as a frame for his discourse Cheetham asks whether English traditions of artwriting have been judged inappropriately according to imported criteria of what theory is and does This book demonstrates that artwriting in the English tradition has not been sufficiently studied and that English Art Theory is not an oxymoron Such concerns resonate today beyond academe and the art world in the many heated discussions of resurgent Englishness The Cultural Devolution Neil Mulholland, 2017-10-23 Title first published in 2003 What happened to art in Britain when the balance began to shift from public to private subsidy following the IMF crisis in 1976 In this polemical book Neil Mulholland charts the political and cultural shifts in art in Britain from the mid 1970s to the end of the twentieth century His account covers the key trends and artists of this extraordinarily diverse period including critical postmodernism feminism neoconservatism object sculpture the new image Brit Art and Scottish neoconceptualism and traces the development of critical thinking from the opinions of critics such as Richard Cork John Roberts and Matthew Collings to tabloid press art scandals The Cultural Devolution offers a broad critical and historical framework within which to understand public debate on the merits of young British artists such as Damien Hirst while looking beyond such celebrities to re discover the wealth and range of work

Art Has No History! John Roberts, 1994 In this stimulating collection of essays John Roberts draws together a wide range of work on some of the most important artists of the post war period Written by leading art historians and artist writers the essays take a sharply critical look at the construction of modern art history The artists discussed include Francis Picabia Robert Rauschenberg Ad Reinhardt Andy Warhol Gerhard Richter Mary Kelly Cindy Sherman Victor Burgin and Laurie Anderson The extensive influence of post structuralism on all schools of art history has brought about a widespread derogation of questions around intentionality and social agency Free ranging textual interpretation has come to outweigh causal analysis Art Has No History reverses this bias Putting the artist back into art history the essays reinstate the claims for historical materialism as a theory of the conflictual socialization of individuals Acknowledging the dissemblances involved in the representations of artistic invention the book challenges the self image of traditional art history and the radical New Art History alike In his introduction John Roberts gives a fascinating account of the vicissitudes of Marxist writing on art from Max Raphael and Arnold Hauser to T J Clark and Griselda Pollock Placing the debates on intention and agency in their wider political context he refers to what he calls the continuing influence of historical materialism on the best Anglophone art writing today Art Has No History is a lively and iconoclastic contribution to that tradition
