Tradition and Modernity. Changing the Images of Women in Selected Fiction by Manju Kapur and Anita Nair Sasikala Alagiri, 2017-11-21 Along with a range of socio cultural political and economic concerns the focus on self has been an inevitable assertion of writers during the last quarter of the twentieth century Individualistic in tone the contemporary women novelists are trying to portray realistically the predicament of modern women torn between the forces of tradition and modernity their sense of frustration and alienation the emotional and psychological turmoil and complexities of man women relationships and subtleties of feminine consciousness against the persistent patriarchal social set up Cognizant of the evils originating from patriarchy a positive sense of feminine identity has been recognized by them and the result is the emergence of a new woman in Indian society and its concept in the Indian English novel which has assumed a strident posture in the contemporary writings by women The shift from submission to assertion acquiescence to resistance and obedience to rebellion however has not been abrupt and effortless Women are still in the process of negotiation with different limiting factors and thresholds of patriarchy to claim their due space and affirm their identity The present study is an attempt to critically investigate the negotiations with cultural norms by the women characters in the selected novels by the contemporary novelists namely Manju Kapur and Anita Nair Almost all the women characters major and minor from the selected novels have been considered and positioned as per their ideological leanings and convictions under two thematic chapters namely Women in the Clutches of Traditional Norms and Tradition to Modernity The major issues around which the novels move education marriage gendered space and mother daughter relationships are taken up to put them within the contemporary social conditions in which women characters live The present book is divided into five chapters to make a critical and analytical study of the select novels of these contemporary Indian women writers in English The present work is focused on five selected novels Manju Kapur's Difficult Daughters Home and Custody and Anita Nair's Ladies Coup and Mistress

The Dialectic of Historicity in Modernist Fiction: a Study Based on Select Works of O V Vijayan and M Mukundan Swapna Gopinath, 2017-12-15 Modernism when viewed through the spectacles of Marxian aesthetics emerges as a problematic artistic movement especially when placed within the context of social structures that define the cultural practices at any given point in time The much discussed debate within the Marxist canon regarding the dialectic relationship between society and art in the context of modernism had stalwarts of Marxist criticism deliberating this relationship between art and society From Europe modernism spread to other parts of the world including India where it captured the imagination of the writers of regional languages as well In Kerala with its staunch Marxian perspectives and its supporters including a faithful political network of leaders and followers modernism invited heated debates of a similar nature A debate was triggered off challenging the ideological frameworks of modernist aesthetics with a large part of the intelligentsia actively participating in it Kerala Kaumudi magazine published these arguments as a series leading to further discussions in the cultural and political discourses that shaped the sensibility of the times This book is an attempt to explore this relationship with these debates and discussions as referral points To substantiate the arguments four texts that emerged as iconic texts are studied O V Vijayan's The Legends of Khasak 1969 and The Saga of Dharmapuri 1985 and M Mukundan's On the Banks of Mayyazhi 1974 and God's Mischief 1989
