The “Eranistes” or “Polymorphus” Theodoret, Aeterna Press, Some men distinguished neither by family nor education and without any of the honourable notoriety that comes of an upright life are ambitious of achieving fame by wicked ways Of these was the famous Alexander the coppersmith a man of no sort of distinction at all no nobility of birth no eloquence of speech who never led a political party nor an army in the field who never played the man in fight but plied from day to day his ignominious craft and won fame for nothing but his mad violence against Saint Paul

New Testament Christology Frank J. Matera, 1999-01-01 How should we understand the Christ of the New Testament What is the biblical framework that theologians and students must master if their systematic Christology is to be rooted in Scripture In this book Frank Matera answers these questions through a comprehensive study of the Christology found in the New Testament

Resurrecting Justice Douglas Harink, 2020-09-29 Theologian Douglas Harink invites readers to rediscover Romans as a treatise on justice tracing Paul's thinking on this theme through a sequential reading of the book and finding in each passage facets of the gospel's primary claim that God accomplishes justice in the death and resurrection of Jesus Messiah

Looking for Life John G. Lewis, 2005-04-30 Through exegetical studies of 1 Corinthians and Galatians John Lewis shows how Paul synthesises theology and ethics which interpreters frequently separate as integrated aspects of Christian thinking and living This fusion becomes evident in Paul's complex process of theological moral reasoning that lies beneath the surface of his letters for which we have coined the phrase theo ethical reasoning The book also examines how Paul encourages his churches to apply this theo ethical reasoning in the community practice of spiritual discernment a dialogical comparative process of reasoned reflection on behaviour and experience Through this practice of looking for life community members are led by the Spirit as they reason together attempting to associate the manifestations of new life with conduct that faithfully portrays Christ's self giving pattern This correlation of conduct with experience grounds Paul's own proclamation of Jesus Christ in word and deed It also becomes the foundation for believers faith and hope as they come to know Christ and experience the power of God Thus the book concludes that the practice of spiritual discernment by means of theo ethical reasoning lies at the centre of Paul's religion

The Cross in Corinth Raymond Pickett, 1997-06-01 Pickett explores how Paul appealed to the death of Jesus in the Corinthian correspondence in order to promote a community ethos and ethic consistent with the ideals and values it symbolized In so doing Paul was responding to interpersonal conflicts within the community and criticisms of his ministry criticisms he saw as founded on Graeco Roman cultural values of the cultivated elite His consistent emphasis on the weakness of the cross served to critique social expressions of power in Corinth More constructively Paul attempted to secure conduct befitting the gospel by invoking the death of Jesus as a symbol of other regarding behaviour

New Testament Theology Eckhard J. Schnabel,2023-11-21 Southwestern Journal of Theology 2023 Book Award Honorable Mention Theological Studies New Testament Theology is a major new contribution to New Testament scholarship by renowned scholar Eckhard Schnabel While many New Testament theologies approach the material through a particular thematic construct e g covenant Schnabel takes a different approach First he focuses on Jesus Messiah and his significance for the early church Second he seeks to describe the theology of the New Testament as it was written and read in its historical context This approach honors the fact that the authors and original readers of the New Testament were real people dealing with real issues in their specific ecclesiological cultural and missiological settings Schnabel comprehensively combines a historical description of the New Testament s theology with a systematic reflection on the New Testament s message and the convictions of Jesus and his early followers This valuable contribution to the field will be insightful reading for students scholars and pastors
