The Making of... Adaptation and the Cultural Imaginary Jan Cronin, 2019-11-25 This book explores Making of sites as a genre of cultural artefact Moving beyond making of documentaries the book analyses novels drama film museum exhibitions and popular studies that re present the making of culturally loaded film adaptations It argues that the Making of genre operates on an adaptive spectrum orienting towards and enacting the adaptation of films and their making The book examines the behaviours that characterise Making of sites across visual media it explores the cultural work done by these sites why recognition of Making of sites as adaptations matters and why our conception of adaptation matters Part one focuses on the adaptive domain presented by the Making of John Ford s The Quiet Man Part two attends to Making of Gone with the Wind sites and concludes with Making of The Lord of the Rings texts as the acme of the cultural risks and investments charted in earlier chapters

Locating Migrating Media Greg Elmer, Charles H. Davis, Janine Marchessault, John McCullough, 2012-07-10 Locating Migrating Media details the extent to which media productions both televisual and cinematic have sought out new and cheaper shot locations creative staff and financing around the world The book contributes to debates about media globalization focusing on the local impact of new sites of media production The book s chapters also question the role that film and television industries and local and regional governments play in broader economic develop and tax incentive schemes While metaphors of transportation mobility fluidity and change continue to serve as key concepts and frames for understanding contemporary media industries products and processes the essays in this book look to local spaces neighborhoods cultural workers and stories to ground the global that is to interrogate the effect of media globalization before during and after film and television shooting and onsite production By locating migrating media these chapters seek to determine the political economic and cultural conditions that produce contemporary forms of televisual and cinematic storytelling and how these processes affect the inhabitants the look and the very geopolitical future of local communities neighborhoods cities and regions The focus on relocated screen production highlights the act of film and television making both aesthetically and economically To locate migrating media is therefore to determine the political and cultural economies of globalized sets and stages be they in new studios or on city streets or perhaps most importantly in our imaginations

New Zealand Medievalism Anna Czarnowus, Janet M. Wilson, 2024-04-30 This volume maps the phenomenon of medievalism in Aotearoa initially as an import by the early white settler society and as a form of nation building that would reinforce Britishness and ancestral belonging This colonial narrative underpins the volume s focus on the imperial relationship in chapters on the academic study of the Middle Ages on medievalism in film and music in manuscript and book collections and colonial stained glass and architecture Through the alternative 21st century frameworks of a global Middle Ages and Aotearoa s bicultural nationalism the volume also introduces Maori understandings of the ancestral past that parallel the European epoch and at the opposite end of the spectrum the phenomenon of global right wing medievalism as evidenced in the Alt right extremism underpinning the Christchurch mosque attack of 2019 The 11 chapters trace the transcultural moves and networks that comprise the shift from the 20th century study of the Middle Ages as an historical period to manifestations of medievalism as the reception and interpretation of the medieval past in postmedieval times Collectively these are viewed as indications of the changing public perception about the meaning and practice of the European heritage from the colonial to contemporary era The volume will appeal to educationists scholars and students interested in the academic history of the Middle Ages in New Zealand enthusiasts of film music and performance of the medieval members of the public interested in Aotearoa s history and popular culture and all who enjoy the colourful reinventions of medievalism Film-Induced Tourism Sue Beeton,2005-05-17 Film induced tourism has the potential to revitalise flagging regional rural communities and increase tourism to urban centres however it carries with it its own unique problems This publication explores such elements delving into the disciplines of sociology and psychology along with the fields of destination marketing community development and strategic planning Peter Jackson Alfio Leotta,2015-12-17 The most comprehensive academic examination of Peter Jackson s work and career The Frodo Franchise Kristin Thompson,2007-08-27 In this study of Peter Jacksons film adaptation of J R R Tolkiens The Lord of the Rings trilogy Kristin Thompson demonstrates the impact the trilogy has had on the companies that made it on the fantasy genre on New Zealand and on independent cinema and looks at how the trilogy is regarded as one the most important films ever made Visit Somerset: History and Heritage Ian J Brodie,2016-04-20 Somerset is a county that has it all Ranked seventh in the UK for size with vast expanses of open unspoilt spaces waiting to be explored Join award winning author and photographer Ian Brodie on a journey of discovery through the history and heritage of the county Uncover the stunning variety of scenery compare the bleak majesty of the Mendip Hills with the ever changing vistas of Exmoor the soft folds of the southern hills the rich green flatness of the Levels the great expanses of sand beaches with their popular resort towns and the rocky headlands at either end of the Somerset shoreline Discover noble wool churches with their imposing towers and contrast them to the dignity of Georgian Bath the medieval quaintness of Wells or bustling market towns like Taunton Yeovil and Frome Presented by Visit Somerset the official Destination Management Organisation for Somerset this ebook showcases more than 200 sensational places to visit It includes in depth touring information handy hints maps and over 750 stunning images The Cinematic Tourist Rodanthi Tzanelli,2007-06-11 Recent years have seen a radical transformation of conventional tourist marketing and experience The use of exotic locations in Hollywood films has allowed global audiences to enjoy distant places Simultaneously Hollywood screening of potential tourist paradises has generated new tourist industries around the world This book takes a closer look at this new phenomenon of cinematic tourism combining theory with case studies drawn from four continents America Europe Asia and Australasia The author explores audiences perceptions of film and their covert relationship with tourist advertising campaigns alongside the nature of newly born tourist industries and the reaction of native populations and nation states faced with the commodification of their histories identities and environments Into Norway Ian J Brodie,2016-12-02 The Lillehammer region and Gudbrandsdalen Gudbrand Valley in Norway offer a myriad of cultural experiences and activities in an area of outstanding natural beauty Join award winning author and photographer Ian J Brodie on a journey of discovery through the history and heritage of the region Travelling from Lillehammer in the south to Rondane National Park in the north you will discover a vibrant cultural landscape with farms clinging to the mountain sides and picturesque villages along the way You will find numerous gems steeped in cultural history and offering unique adventures heritage accommodation and traditional Norwegian food A scenery in which you can relax enjoy the tranquillity and find inspiration With Into Norway you will get a unique insight into Norwegian culture and way of life with authentic stories and local food served by enthusiastic and committed hosts combined with enchanting nature experiences during bright summer nights Published by Into Norway and Visit Lillehammer the official Destination Management Organisation for the Lillehammer region this ebook includes in depth touring information history heritage attractions accommodation handy hints maps enhanced ebook features and over 500 stunning images Issues in Cultural Tourism Studies Melanie K. Smith,2015-10-14 The third edition of Issues in Cultural Tourism Studies provides a vital framework for analysing the complexity of cultural tourism and its increasing globalization in existing as well as emergent destinations of the world It focuses in particular on the need for even more creative tourism strategies to differentiate destinations from each other using a blend of localized cultural products and innovative global attractions The book explores many of the most pertinent issues in heritage arts festivals indigenous ethnic and experiential cultural tourism in urban and rural environments alike Since the second edition of this book there have been many important developments in this field and this third edition has been completely revised and updated to include New content on demand and motivation for cultural tourism sustainable cultural tourism and ethnic cultural tourism New and updated case studies from an even wider global perspective A revised up to date framework for global cultural tourism studies in the light of recent research publications and industry developments New pedagogical features within the text to aid understanding and critical thinking including questions at the end of case studies and a further reading section At the interface between the global and the local a sustainable and people centred approach to cultural tourism planning and development is advocated to ensure that benefits are maximized for local areas a sense of place and identity are retained and the tourist experience is enhanced to the full The text is unique in that it provides a summary and a synthesis of all of the major issues in global cultural tourism which are presented in an accessible way using a diverse range of international case studies It is essential and valuable reading for all tourism students From Hobbits to Hollywood Ernest Mathijs,Murray Pomerance,2006 Peter Jackson s film version of The Lord of the Rings 2001 2003 is the grandest achievement of 21st century cinema so far But it is also linked to topical and social concerns including war terrorism and cultural imperialism Its style symbols narrative and structure seem always already linked to politics cultural definition problems of cinematic style and the elemental mythologies that most profoundly capture our imaginations This volume treats Jackson's trilogy as having two conditions of existence: an aesthetic and a political Like other cultural artefacts it leads a double life as objet d'art and public statement about the world so that nothing in it is ever just cinematically beautiful or tasteful and nothing is ever just a message or an opinion New Zealand with a Hobbit Botherer John Gisby, 2005-01-01 What should you do if your spouse becomes addicted to the Lord of the Rings movies and swoons at the very mention of Orlando Bloom's name Thud! Quick! fetch the smelling salts How about taking the advice of a strange apparition that reveals itself in a dream An apparition that looks remarkably like the director of the movies Peter Jackson but not quite remarkably enough to prompt legal action An apparition that recommends touring New Zealand in an effort to prove that its sheep pastures aren't really filled by frolicking Hobbits Just sheep and the occasional zorbing local This is the hilarious tale of such a tour featuring snow-capped mountains and turquoise lakes flightless birds and flying cattle bungee jumping grannies and the carrot mafia strange yellow eyes peering up from a road map and hotel receptionists always desperate to know win you are living Destination Branding Nigel Morgan, Annette Pritchard, Roger Pride, 2007-06-07 In today's highly competitive market many destinations from individual resorts to countries are adopting branding techniques similar to those used by Coca-Cola, Nike and Sony in an effort to differentiate their identities and to emphasize the uniqueness of their product By focusing on a range of global case studies Destination Branding demonstrates that the adoption of a highly targeted consumer research-based multi-agency mood branding initiative leads to success every time

Overtourism Martha Honey, Kelsey Frenkiel, 2021-05-27 COVID-19 put a temporary stop to the crisis of overtourism Yet there is no question that travel will resume the only question is when it does what will it look like Overtourism: Lessons for a Better Future charts a path toward tourism that is truly sustainable focusing on the triple bottom line of people planet and prosperity This practical book examines the causes and effects of overtourism before turning to emerging management strategies Visitor education traffic planning and redirection to lesser-known sites are among the measures that can protect the economic benefit of tourism without overwhelming local communities As tourism revives around the world these innovations will guide government agencies parks officials site managers civic groups environmental NGOs tourism operators and others with a stake in protecting our most iconic places Antipodean Antiquities Marguerite Johnson, 2019-03-21 Leading and emerging early career scholars in Classical Reception Studies come together in this volume to explore the under-represented area of the Australasian Classical Tradition They interrogate the interactions between Mediterranean Antiquity and the antipodean worlds of New Zealand and Australia through the lenses of literature film theatre and fine art Of interest to scholars across the globe who research the influence of antiquity on modern literature film theatre and fine art this volume fills a decisive gap in the literature by bringing antipodean research into the spotlight Following a contextual introduction to the field the six parts of the volume explore the latest research on subjects that range from the Lord of the Rings and Xena

Warrior Princess franchises to important artists such as Sidney Nolan and local authors whose work offers opportunities for cross cultural and interdisciplinary analysis with well known Western authors and artists
