Tropical Immersion Rogol Ethan Rogol, Ethan Rogol, 2010-04 Everyone knows that Costa Rica is a paradise But how does one find one's way around when streets have no names and houses have no numbers When does one shake hands and when does one kiss one's friends Tropical Immersion is the wry and very personal story of a year in Costa Rica the overland journey there and back and side trips to Nicaragua and Ecuador It details navigating the rough narrow busy Costa Rican sidewalks and learning to see doing so as a sport eating fruit that smells like bodily fluids and discovering that it tastes delicious and learning to respect reckless Mexican bus drivers whose driving could be described by the uninitiated as terrifying by deciphering their clever use of turn signals The book offers a feast for the senses rich earthy aromas warm wind on the skin the bitter taste of dust in the air the sound of birds insects children laughing mothers calling their names and laborers working the land Its focus is not sightseeing but culture diving not ogling or conquest but participation and integration It is part travelogue part cultural primer part memoir part romance and a treatise on the being present wherever one is in the country The selection of sites is necessarily subjective yet it attempts to represent geographical historical social and cultural concerns as well as strictly literary interests Had this list been prepared by the editors of Michelin Guide they would have added asterisks or stars to the entries Interesting Worth a detour Worth a journey It is the opinion of the author of Canadian Literary Landmarks that all thirty six sites are Worth a journey It is recognized that the average person is unlikely to visit No 1 not to mention No 36 but as these sites happen to be the first and last entries in the book they mark a convenient and symbolic beginning and ending No 1 being L Anse aux Meadows Epaves Bay Nfld and No 36 being the North Pole NWT

Canadian Literary Landmarks John Robert Colombo, 1984-01-01 Here is a list of three dozen of the top literary locales
