Biblical scholars and students are finding the role of the Bible in film an increasingly absorbing and rewarding topic. The eleven lively and provocative articles in this volume explore both types of film showcasing the cinema's impact on the perception of the Bible in modern culture. Not the Girl Next Door Charlotte Chandler, 2012-12-11 As Charlotte Chandler did so well in her previous biographies she will again draw on the recorded words of Joan Crawford and those who knew her well to paint a rich portrait of the woman and the star. Joan Crawford was born Lucille LeSueur in Texas in 1908. She became a chorus girl in silent films before finding her voice in Possessed (1931) with Clark Gable. Their affair would continue on and off screen for many years. Throughout the thirties Joan continued to earn critical acclaim for her forte of playing career women who never gave up. Her Oscar-winning film Mildred Pierce (1945) began the long running feud between Joan and Bette Davis which reached its height with Whatever Happened to Baby Jane (1962). Joan was married four times including once to Douglas Fairbanks Jr who spoke extensively to Charlotte Chandler for this book. Following her death, Joan's decision to cut her eldest children out of her will prompted her daughter Christina to write the damning book Mommie Dearest which changed Joan's image forever. Charlotte Chandler spent many hours recording interviews with Joan and also those closest to her. What emerges is a subtle portrait of a complex woman and a new insight into the legendary actress.

Finding North George Foy, 2016-05-10 Navigation is the key human skill. It's something we do everywhere whether feeling our way through a bedroom in the dark or charting a ship's course. But how does navigation affect our brains, our memory, ourselves? Blending scientific research and memoir and written in beautiful prose Finding North starts with a quest by the author to understand this most basic of human skills and why it's in mortal peril. In 1844 Foy's great great grandfather, captain of a Norwegian cargo ship, perished at sea after getting lost in a snowstorm. Foy decides to unravel the mystery surrounding Halvor Michelsen's death and the roots of his own obsession with navigation by re-creating his ancestor's trip using only period instruments. Beforehand he meets a colorful cast of characters to learn whether men really have better directional skills than women, how cells, eels and spaceships navigate and how tragedy results from GPS glitches. He interviews a cabby who has memorized every street in London, sails on a Haitian cargo sloop and visits the site of a secret navigational cult in Greece. At the heart of Foy's story is this fact: navigation and the brain's memory centers are inextricably linked. As Foy unravels the secret behind Halvor's death, he also discovers why forsaking our navigation skills in favor of GPS may lead not only to Alzheimers and other diseases of memory but to losing a key part of what makes us human.
