Anne Terry WHITE,1956 Art, History, and Postwar Fiction Kevin Brazil,2018 Art History and Postwar Fiction explores the ways in which twenty century novelists responded to visual art and how writing about art was often a means of commenting on historical developments of the period Bulletin United States. the tears of things In this series of meditations Dominic Pettman and Eugene Thacker explore some of the key negative affects both eternal and emergent associated with climate change environmental destruction and cosmic solitude In so doing they unearth something so obvious that it has gone largely unnoticed the question of how we should feel about climate change Between the information gathered by planetary sensors and the simple act of breathing the air new unsettling moods are produced for which we currently lack an adequate language Should we feel grief over the loss of our planet Or is the strange feeling of witnessing mass extinction an indicator that the planet was never ours to begin with Sad Planets explores this relationship between our all too human melancholia and a more impersonal sorrow nestled in the heart of the cosmic elements Spanning a wide range of topics from the history of cosmology to the existential threat of climate change this book is a reckoning with the limits of human existence and comprehension As Pettman and Thacker observe never before have we known so much about the planet and the cosmos and yet never before have we felt so estranged from that same planet to say nothing of the stars beyond

Lost Worlds of Ancient and Modern

Greece D. J. Ian Begg,2021-04-30 By day young Gilbert Bagnani studied archaeology in Greece but by night he socialised with the elite of Athenian society Secretly writing for the Morning Post in London he witnessed both antebellum Athens in 1921 and the catastrophic collapse of Christian civilisation in western Anatolia in 1922 While there have been many accounts by refugees of the disastrous flight from Smyrna few have been written from the perspective of the west side of the Aegean The flood of a million refugees to Greece brought in its wake a military coup in Athens the exile of the Greek royal family and the execution or imprisonment of politicians whom Gilbert knew Gilbert s weekly letters to his mother in Rome reveal his Odyssey like adventures on a voyage of discovery through the origins of western civilisation As an archaeologist in Greece he travelled through time seeing history repeat itself Minoan Knossos Byzantine Constantinople and Ottoman Smyrna were all violently destroyed but the survivors escaped to the new worlds of Mycenaean Greece Renaissance Venice and modern Greece At Smyrna in the twentieth century history was written not only by the victors but was also recorded by the victims At the same time however the twentieth century itself was so filled with reports of ethnic cleansings on such a scale that the reports brutalized the humanity of the supposedly civilized people reading about them and the tragedy of Smyrna disappeared from public awareness between the cataclysmic upheavals of the First and Second World Wars
