Only Woman On Board:

The Only Woman in the Room Rita Lakin, 2000-01-01 Rita Lakin was a pioneer a female scriptwriter in the early 1960s when Hollywood television was exclusively male For years in creative meetings she was literally the only woman in the room In this breezy but heartfelt remembrance Lakin takes readers to a long forgotten time when women were not considered worthy or welcome at the creative table Widowed with three young children she talked herself into a secretarial job at Universal Studios in 1962 despite being unable to type or take dictation With guts skill and humor she rose from secretary to freelancer to staff writer to producer to executive producer and showrunner meeting hundreds of famous and infamous show biz legends along the way during her long and unexpected career She introduced many women into the business and was a feminist before she even knew she was one The general public did not know her name but Lakin touched the lives of millions of viewers week after week year after year The relevance of her personal journey charming yet occasionally shocking will be an eye opener to present day who take for granted the abundance of female creative talent in today s Hollywood “I Was the Only Woman” Sue Hendler, 2017-03-15 I was the only woman These words appear again and again in the stories of women planners working in Canada from the 1940s to the 1970s Despite their small numbers women were active in the Community Planning Association of Canada and the Town Planning Institute of Canada later called the Canadian Institute of Planners during those years This book tells their stories expanding our understanding of what constitutes planning and who counts as planners It challenges us to re evaluate not only the profession s past but also its role in creating a more inclusive and equitable future Women in Management Marilyn J Davidson, Ronald J Burke, 2000-01-28 Following on from the successful Women in Management Current Research Issues this volume provides an up to date and comprehensive overview of current international research findings pertaining to women in management reflecting recent global changes and issues Like its predecessor this volume brings together an international group of eminent academics who review the major contemporary issues facing women in management as well as the individual organizational and governmental consequences of these changes Women in Management Current Issues in Research II will be a vital resource for scholars and students in management business occupational psychology industrial sociology and gender studies In addition related work groups such as Personnel Occupational Management Management Consultants and Trainers as well as Trade Unionists should find this book essential to read Love on Board Aries Skye, 2026-01-27 When a guarded divorcee and a love weary mogul cross paths on a singles cruise a pact to keep things platonic sets sail toward a second chance neither of them is ready for Aquila Richards Oliver has the life many envy a high profile husband two beautiful sons and a seemingly perfect role as wife mother and big sister But perfection comes at a steep price When her marriage to a world renowned chef unravels under the weight of betrayal and long buried truths Aquila chooses herself for the first time in years and begins the hard work of rebuilding her life on her own terms Roman Patterson has built everything but a family At thirty five the successful entrepreneur has more wealth than time and more regrets than romance Convinced love has passed him by he reluctantly agrees to a singles cruise expecting nothing more than cocktails and casual distractions What neither Roman nor Aquila expects is to find each other on a boat in the middle of paradise They make a pact to enjoy the cruise as friends but their connection is instant and the chemistry is undeniable As sparks fly and emotions deepen they are forced to face the realities waiting back on land exes children broken trust and wounds that still sting Can Aquila let down her guard and believe in love again Can Roman prove he is more than a fleeting escape Or will the past sink the promise of something real Her Turn Vicki Donlan, Helen French Graves, 2007-09-30 It is time for women to take charge says successful businesswoman Vicki Donlan In a spirited call to action she covers the challenges opportunities prospects and emerging roles for female leaders in a wide spectrum of fields including business politics education healthcare law and nonprofits Best she buttresses her points through original interviews with women leaders in many fields including Teresa Heinz Kerry Chairman Heinz Family Philanthropies Gail Deegan Board Member TJX Companies and EMC and Ann Caldwell Chair Commission on Women in Higher Education American Council on Education This book both guide and manifesto offers both women and men a blueprint for establishing a new model of leadership that can take advantage of the skill passion and wisdom of women everywhere Familiar statistics demonstrate the continued inequality in pay between women and men the dearth of women on the boards and in the executive suites of major corporations and the challenges that women face in breaking down barriers in politics science law healthcare and other male dominated professions As Donlan reminds us women have always had to fight to gain access to basic privileges such as education and the right to vote And yet dig deeper and the numbers are beginning to tell a different story For example women currently start two out of every three new businesses Once started women owned businesses are more likely to be in operation at the crucial make or break five year mark and less likely to be in debt than those established by men A recent study finds that the most profitable Fortune 100 companies are those with women on the board and networks are developing to raise funds for women political candidates who are beating their male opponents with increasing regularity In short women have the numbers talents determination and willingness to lead and a groundswell that has the potential to result in dramatic change is building Drawing from interviews with dozens of pioneers in business politics education healthcare philanthropy and other fields Donlan argues that women are poised to shatter the glass ceiling but only if they start working together to make it happen This is a historic time As this book argues if women organize more effectively the emergence of a new model of leadership one that includes women at the highest reaches of society is inevitable More Women on Boards Lynne E. Devnew, Marlene Janzen Le Ber, Mariateresa Torchia, Ronald J. Burke, 2018-10-01 More Women on Boards An International Perspective is the seventh volume in the Women and Leadership Research Theory and Practice book series The purpose of this volume is to explore the complexity of issues related to increasing the number of women on boards of directors around the world how these issues have been understood how they have been more and less successfully addressed in different countries and industries and how they are similar and yet different as a results of cultural and legal differences In the Introduction and 18 chapters included in this book 42 researchers activists and practitioners who were raised or work today in at least 17 countries on 6 continents seek to answer the questions Why have women on boards Why is adding women to boards so challenging What actions increase the number of women on boards and What can we learn from situations where there are women board members In seeking to answer these questions the authors summarize previously existing research and share the results of their own recent qualitative and quantitative research studies conducted in many different countries Both fix the woman and fix the society challenges and solutions are explored Stories of women who have successfully joined and in many cases led boards of directors are shared It is clear to us and we believe will be clear to those who read this book that there is no single program that will lead to gender equality on boards however we believe that the authors in this volume provide a rich variety of research and well supported suggestions for addressing the challenges When local cultures are considered and multiple suggestions implemented as appropriate we are confident we will together increase the number of women on boards throughout the world Women, Work and Transport Tessa Wright, Lucy Budd, Stephen Ison, 2022-10-17 Women Work and Transport is an international collection that brings together researchers with global expertise in gender and transport work to provide original evidence of the experiences of women working in all transport modes across countries in the Global North and the Global South
