Requiem of the Forsaken: Echoes Beyond the Veil (Book 7 of 13) Anis

Meah,2025-05-25 Power without purpose is destruction Purpose without wisdom is tyranny Six months after his transformation Kazuki has become something the world has never seen a force that moves through shadows to topple corrupt leaders and reshape the political landscape To some he s a necessary evil To others he s become the very monster he once fought against But to Mizuki bound to him by forces beyond understanding he remains the boy who once meditated by peaceful waters As Kazuki builds his empire of shadows targeting corruption with surgical precision the barriers between worlds begin to fracture Reality itself tears open revealing glimpses of realms that shouldn t exist When cosmic forces take notice of the growing imbalance an ancient entity arrives to deliver judgment on whether this new order can survive or whether everything must be reset to preserve the greater harmony But in the spaces between worlds where memory and essence transcend death something unexpected stirs The bonds that connect the living to the lost may hold the key to a balance no one imagined possible if they can survive the trial that will determine the fate of all realms Requiem of the Forsaken Echoes Beyond the Veil Where justice becomes revolution love transcends death and the price of perfect balance may be everything they hold dear
