limited part in academic writings on Bushman culture In Dress as Social Relations Vibeke Maria Viestad challenges this myth of the nearly naked Bushman and provides an interdisciplinary study of Bushman dress as it is represented in the archives and material culture of historical Bushman communities Maintaining a critical perspective Viestad provides an interpretation of the significance of dress for historical Bushman people Dress she argues formed an embodied practice of social relations between humans animals and other powerful beings of the Bushman world moreover this complex and meaningful practice was intimately related to subsistence strategies and social identity The historical collections under scrutiny present a wide variety of research material representing different aspects of the bodily practice of dress Whereas the Bleek Lloyd archive of oral myths and narratives has become renowned for its great research potential the artefact collections of Dorothea Bleek and Louis Fourie are much less known and have not earlier been published in a richly illustrated and comprehensive way Dress as Social Relations is aimed at scholars and students of archaeology anthropology material culture studies dress studies ethnographic studies museology culture historical studies and African studies but will also be of interest to people of descendant communities
