Thoughts From Yesterday Glen Thomas Hierlmeier, 2013-01-24 My life has been so rich owing to the people who I have been blessed to know who have provided the substance to write about and I have been in so many wonderful places. Once I capture a theme I mull it over for days or weeks and months, sometimes years. I may write several drafts in my mind before I write a single word. Sometimes the first writing of a story will come out in more or less final draft form. I tend to be very serious in my writing. I choose serious subjects then I try to honor my commitment that a good story should make you laugh and cry and relate to the people, places, and things in the story. Unfortunately, there is often much more crying than laughing. I'll keep working on that. You should know that I have cried first. As I write, I relive my stories; there are some I have read many times and I have cried over them every time as much the last as the first. As my subtitle relates, this is an unfinished work. There are many more stories and essays, letters, poems, and such that I still have in mind to write. I hope to get to many more of them so we can share the special people, places, and things of our lives. I have been encouraged to go ahead with what I have, knowing that I will keep writing and keep crying and laughing some too.

When Three Hearts Align Dwayne New, Terry New, 2024-03-28 Many couples grapple with the divine institution of marriage, trying to understand its value and meaning for which a blueprint was not handed. Often couples enter marriage ill-equipped to handle the issues of life in a pressure-cooked world. Consequently, when challenges arise, many spouses say, "fix her" or "fix him" or may simply choose to walk away from the marriage only to get involved with another person and start the vicious cycle again. On the other hand, for those couples who opt to remain in their marriage, they may simply just endure the relationship without ever learning the essential precepts to thrive as a team. So what is this thing called marriage? In this life-changing book, When Three Hearts Align, the authors believe marriage is a divine institution created by God whereby a man and a woman choose to enter a covenant relationship with each other and have made an unconditional lifetime commitment to God to stay with and become one with an imperfect person. You might ask, "How does one do that?" The authors state, "Marriage is a mystical union. It is not easily understood without the willingness to know and understand the Creator of marriage Furthermore the authors give invaluable insight and relatable stories that will empower couples give them hope and give them the courage to fight for their marriage The authors seek to help couples realize that the divine institution of marriage is not the issue We are merely imperfect people who enter the institution of marriage and need to be equipped with the necessary tools to have a successful marriage Admittedly this book will challenge our thoughts attitudes and beliefs about how we see ourselves our spouse and the significant role we have in the success or failure of our marriage and even other friendships Think about this wherever you go there you are If you are ready to transform your life and marriage get ready to embrace this journey of self awareness self correction and unconditional love while seeing the value of cultivating and maintaining a servant's heart toward God and toward each other This book When Three Hearts Align will unlock and reveal the mystical union of marriage The
