Peoples Of The Ituri:

Peoples of the Ituri, 1993 The King of the World in the Land of the Pygmies Joan Mark, 1998-12-01 Joan Mark offers an interpretive biography of Patrick Tracy Lowell Putnam 1904-53 who spent twenty five years living among the Bambuti pygmies of the Ituri Forest in what is now Zaire On the Epulu River he constructed Camp Putnam as a harmonious multiracial community He modeled his camp on the dude ranches of the American West taking in paying guests while running a medical clinic and occasionally offering legal aid to the local people and assumed the role of intermediary between locals and visitors including Colin M Turnbull author of the classic Forest People Mark describes Putnam's mercurial relations with family and with his African and American wives and follows him to his sad and violent end She places Patrick Putnam within the context of three different anthropological traditions and examines his contribution as an expert on pygmies African Rain Forest Ecology and Conservation William Weber, Lee J. T. White, Lisa Naughton-Treves, Amy Vedder, 2001-01-01 Extending from west Africa to Madagascar from the vast lowland Congo Basin to the archipelago of forest islands on its eastern rim the African rain forest is surpassed in size only by the Amazon This book sheds light on the current efforts to understand and conserve the African rain forest an area in need of urgent action to save its biological wealth cultural heritage and economic potential Written by conservation scientists and practitioners based in the African rain forest the book offers a multidisciplinary perspective that integrates many biological and social sciences Early chapters trace the forces from paleoecological factors to recent human actions that have shaped the African forest environment The next chapters discuss the dominant biological patterns of species ranging from the distinctive elephants gorillas and okapi to the less well known birds butterflies and amphibians Other chapters focus on how such different groups as hunter gatherers forest farmers bushmeat hunters recent immigrants and commercial foresters have used the forests Several authors stress the need for tighter links between research and conservation action The final section draws lessons from the collective experience of those working in an Africa wracked by political strife and economic hardship The Forest People Colin Turnbull, 1968 This classic work describes the author's experiences while living with the BaMbuti Pygmies not as a clinical observer but as their friend learning their customs and sharing their daily life Turnbull conveys the lives and feelings of the BaMbuti whose existence centers on their intense love for their forest world which in return for their affection and trust provides their every need We witness their hunting parties and nomadic camps their love affairs and ancient ceremonies the molimo in which they praise the forest as provider protector and deity the elima in which the young girls come of age and the nkumbi circumcision rites in which the villagers of the surrounding non Pygmy tribes attempt to impose their culture on the Pygmies whose forest home they dare not enter People of the Tropical Rain Forest Julie Sloan Denslow, Christine Padoch, Curator of the Institute of Economic Botany Christine Padoch, 1988-01-01 Looks at the depiction of tropical rain forests in movies and art discusses government policy business exploitation and the future of the rain forest and describes
