Quake Stories By Nance Van Winckel:

Quake Nance Van Winckel, 1997 Held together by a wealth of images items and ideals these tantalizing tales join Sara Fritz Maria Stevie Nona Claudia and Sam as one An earthquake appears in each story reminding us that beneath the surface all is tumult flux And while each quake sings of life s unpredictability and precariousness it is joined by familiar images player pianos brass doorknobs and movie posters which fall away often to return altered A number of gypsy characters playing tangential roles at first become central to the collection s larger story line When Sara loses her hands after a freak accident in Ever After she encounters two Gypsy sisters whose scandalous family affairs permeate the rest of the book In Hearsay Fritz an out of work ventriloquist is haunted by a failed love affair with a Gypsy woman thirty four years past and the son he never knew In the final story of the collection Taking Leave the artist Sam leaves his old life behind to start over again while his wife seeks solace among a group of intriguing women who help her begin anew
