In the modern age the experience of suffering is primarily a political problem constructed out of crucial conflicting perspectives The book draws on a genealogy of suffering through the conflicting perspectives of four major political theorists Martin Luther Thomas Hobbes Jean Jacques Rousseau and Friedrich Nietzsche Although supplying contradictory accounts of the nature of suffering and human response to it these theorists when examined together provide a historical foundation for the political structures of our time and a trajectory for the problematic of suffering which defies all limits This book works to foster a contemporary political response to suffering addressing the techniques of its production and representation and the dilemmas of ascertaining causes and responsibilities Global Faith, Worldly Power John Corrigan, Melani McAlister, Axel R. Schäfer, 2022-09-15 Assessing the grand American evangelical missionary venture to convert the world this international group of leading scholars reveals how theological imperatives have intersected with worldly imaginaries from the nineteenth century to the present Countering the stubborn notion that conservative Protestant groups have steadfastly maintained their distance from governmental and economic affairs these experts show how believers ambitious investments in missionizing and humanitarianism have connected with worldly matters of empire the Cold War foreign policy and neoliberalism They show too how evangelicals international activism redefined the content and the boundaries of the movement itself As evangelical voices from Africa Asia and Latin America became more vocal and assertive U S evangelicals took on more pluralistic multidirectional identities not only abroad but also back home Applying this international perspective to the history of American evangelicalism radically changes how we understand the development and influence of evangelicalism and of globalizing religion more broadly In addition to a critical introduction and essays by editors John Corrigan Melani McAlister and Axel R Sch fer are essays by Lydia Boyd Emily Conroy Krutz Christina Cecelia Davidson Helen Jin Kim David C Kirkpatrick Candace Lukasik Sarah Miller Davenport Dana L Robert Tom Smith Lauren F Turek and Gene Zubovich Chicagoland D.K.
