Performance in Beowulf and Other Old English Poems Steven J. A. Breeze,2022 An examination of the depiction and representation of performative acts in Old English texts Acts of performance such as music storytelling and poetry recital have made significant contributions to the rediscovery and widening popularity of Old English poetry However while these performances capture the imagination they

StarBriefs 2001 ,2012-12-06 This compilation probably looks like one of the craziest things a human being could spend his or her time on Yet nobody would wonder at someone taking a short walk every day after twenty five years that person would have covered a surprisingly long distance This is exactly the story behind this list which appeared first as a few pages within the directory StarGuides or whatever name it had at that time and as a distinct sister publication since 1990 The idea behind this dictionary is to offer astronomers and related space scientists practical assistance in decoding the numerous abbreviations acronyms contractions and symbols which they might encounter in all aspects of the vast range of their professional activities including traveling Perhaps it is a bit paradoxical but if scientists quickly grasp the meaning of an acronym solely in their own specific discipline they will probably encounter more difficulties when dealing with adjacent fields It is for this purpose that this dictionary might be most often used Scientists might also refer to this compilation in order to avoid identifying a project by an acronym which already has too many meanings or confused definitions

Bird's Eye View Dorothy Bird,Joyce Greenberg,2012-01-12 With a foreword by Marcia B Siegel In 1930 seventeen year old Dorothy Bird from Victoria British Columbia was sent to study dance at the Cornish School in Seattle There she was totally captivated by Martha Graham who at the end of summer invited Dorothy to study with her at the Neighborhood Playhouse in New York City Dorothy debuted with the Graham Group in 1931 in Primitive Mysteries and was a company member and Graham's demonstrator until 1937. Bird's Eye View is a warm and human story that chronicles the early development of modern dance from a dancer's perspective. Dorothy Bird was the only dancer of her time to work with all the major choreographers in concert and on Broadway: George Balanchine, Agnes de Mille, Doris Humphrey, Helen Tamiris, Anna Sokolow, Herbert Ross, Jose Limon, and Jerome Robbins among others. She recounts fascinating theater experiences with such luminaries as Orson Welles, Gertrude Lawrence, Carol Channing, Danny Kaye, and Elia Kazan. Dorothy shares her methods and experiences as a teacher for Balanchine and her twenty-five year tenure at the Neighborhood Playhouse to highlight her philosophy of giving back to the next generation of performers. Of all the artists Dorothy Bird worked with, Martha Graham figures most strongly in the book and in her life. Her narrative about Graham's early creative process is a valuable addition to the literature, as is the story of her personal involvement with Graham. The reader gains an intimate insight into the love and fear instilled by Graham in her followers.
