Technique and Sensibility in the Fiction and Poetry of Raymond Carver Arthur F. Bethea, 2013-04-03 A comprehensive examination of the fiction and poetry of Raymond Carver You Can't Kiss It Better Diana Hendry, 2011-11-30 When the story opens Megan who is a foster mother has two children in her charge Anna a 12 year old who is rather given to magical thinking and Raymond who is 10 and never speaks to anyone Both children have sad broken backgrounds Anna in her fourth foster home fantasises that her debt ridden alcoholic mother is a famous actress and Raymond's totally unreliable mother rarely comes to see him Sam a frightened rabbit of a child rejected by his family because of lameness and pebble specs is the next to join the foster family and then Brent arrives dramatically in the middle of the night a tearaway teenager totally beyond the control of his unimaginative intellectual father All four of Megan's foster children have difficulties to overcome in the house high above the river where each one of them becomes involved in some way with the mysterious river woman It is impossible not to be totally drawn into the pattern of Brent Anna Raymond and Sam's lives in this imaginative and compassionate novel The Current, 1887 Reflections from Wickersham Pond Raymond Copp, 2016-11-10

Reflections from Wickersham Pond is a collection of poems about life faith and the wonder of our natural world Authors father and son give a unique generational perspective of the world around us the importance of family love and relationships

The Poetry of Raymond Carver Sandra Lee Kleppe, 2016-02-24 Best known as one of the great short story writers of the twentieth century Raymond Carver also published several volumes of poetry and considered himself as much a poet as a fiction writer Sandra Lee Kleppe combines comparative analysis with an in depth examination of Carver's poems making a case for the quality of Carver's poetic output and showing the central role Carver's pursuit of poetry played in his career as a writer Carver constructed his own organic literary system of autopoetics a concept connected to a paradigm shift in our understanding of the inter relatedness of biological and cultural systems This idea is seen as informing Carver's entire production and a distinguishing feature of Kleppe's book is its contextualization of Carver's poetry within the complex literary and scientific systems that influenced his development as a writer Kleppe addresses the common themes and intertextual links between Carver's poetry and short story careers situates Carver's poetry within the love poem tradition explores the connections between neurology and poetic memories and examines Carver's use of the elegy genre within the context of his terminal illness Tellingly Carver's poetry which has aroused slight interest among literary scholars is frequently taught to medical students This testimony to the interdisciplinary implications of Carver's work suggests the appropriateness of Kleppe's culminating discussion of Carver's work as a bridge between the fields of literature and medicine
