Richards, Kathy A. Perkins, 2019 The Routledge Companion to Twentieth Century British Theatre and Performance Claire Cochrane, Lynette Goddard, Catherine Hindson, Trish Reid, 2024-10-08 The Routledge Companion to Twentieth Century British Theatre and Performance provides a broad range of perspectives on the multiple models and examples of theatre artists enthusiasts enablers and audiences that emerged over this formative 100 year period This first volume covers the first half of the century constructing an equitable and inclusive history that is more representative of the nation's lived experience than the traditional narratives of British theatre. Its approach is intra-national weaving together the theatres and communities of England, Scotland, Wales, and Northern Ireland. The essays are organised thematically arranged into sections that address nation, power and identity, fixity and mobility, bodies in performance, the materiality of theatre and communities of theatre. This approach highlights the synergies, convergences and divergences of the theatre landscape in Britain during this period, giving a sense of the sheer variety of performance that was taking place at any given moment in time. This is a fascinating and indispensable resource for undergraduate and graduate students, postgraduate researchers and scholars across theatre and performance studies, cultural studies and twentieth-century history.

The Routledge Companion to Scenography Arnold Aronson, 2017-09-11. Editor and leading scholar Arnold Aronson brings together a uniquely valuable anthology of texts, especially commissioned from across the discipline of theatre and performance studies. Establishing a stable terminology for a deeply contested term for the first time, this volume looks at scenography as the totality of all the visual, spatial and sensory aspects of performance. Tracing a line from Aristotle's Poetics down to Brecht and Artaud and into contemporary immersive theatre and digital media, The Routledge Companion to Scenography is a vital addition to every theatre library.
