Excerpt from Book of the Royal Blue Vol 5 He lived long enough to feel the solace of the prayers that men offered for his recovery and to realize that if destiny had given him a martyrs cross it also brought the martyrs crown of immortality and honor Quite as truly as any soldier who falls in battle he died for his country as the victim of a social propaganda which wages war against the representatives of all civilization and government The Divine Healer did not answer as we asked our prayers for his recovery We asked for his life and He has given him a long life even forever and ever His own prayer as he sank into unconsciousness before the surgical operation was that of the soldier and the Christian Thy kingdom come Thy will be done It was the spirit of one ready for any fate the spirit of a manly Christian gentleman who had faced danger and death and all the problems of life many times before and was prepared to face the last great problem with the same brave and unshaken heart In this solemn moment when death unites the nation in a brotherhood of sorrow all true Americans will delight in doing honor to the noble personal qualities which illuminated the life of Mr McKinley and made him a splendid type of American manhood which is the highest expression of humanity Mr McKinley was a man of strong and solid mind and history will give him high rank among our Presidents not only because of his association with the great events of his time but because of real ability and comprehensive grasp in public affairs His moral qualities were those which the American people will admire and dwell upon most at this juncture his personal and public purity his kindly heart and generous impulses his shining domestic virtues his love of country and his brave and undaunted soul His name will be associated with the patriotic and noble effort to bury sectional discord at home and to unite in peace and love the States torn asunder many years ago by hate and war Standing by the man who has died for the nation we are all today Americans and nothing but Americans The blood of the martyr is the seed of the church the tragedy of Mr McKinley s death should strengthen the foundations of the Republic by bringing closer together all who love free institutions and giving fresh power to old ideals and aspirations His touching prayer should be the inspiration for the revival of a higher
