Phillip Stanley,2023-10-24 Mind and Its World III first concludes the investigation into causes and results as presented in Collected Topics It then turns to the analysis of the ways in which mind cognizes phenomena particularly the ways in which conceptuality functions by investigating the modes of engagement from Classifications of Mind and the methods that lead to cognition from Collected Topics Selected readings analytical meditations study questions and review summaries are included in the sourcebook Dreaming and Self-Cultivation in China, 300 BCE-800 CE Robert Ford Campany,2024-09-09 Practitioners of any of the paths of self cultivation available in ancient and medieval China engaged daily in practices meant to bring their bodies and minds under firm control They took on regimens to discipline their comportment speech breathing diet senses desires sexuality even their dreams Yet compared with waking life dreams are incongruous unpredictable in a word strange How then did these regimes of self fashioning grapple with dreaming a lawless yet ubiquitous domain of individual experience In Dreaming and Self Cultivation in China 300 BCE 800 CE Robert Ford Campany examines how dreaming was addressed in texts produced and circulated by practitioners of Daoist Buddhist Confucian and other self cultivational disciplines Working through a wide range of scriptures essays treatises biographies commentaries fictive dialogues diary records interpretive keys and ritual instructions Campany uncovers a set of discrete paradigms by which dreams were viewed and responded to by practitioners He shows how these paradigms underlay texts of diverse religious and ideological persuasions that are usually treated in mutual isolation The result is a provocative meditation on the relationship between individuals nocturnal experiences and one culture s persistent attempts to discipline interpret and incorporate them into waking practice
