

Set Module States

Ensure modules are in the correct state before you proceed.

The following modules are available in your system:

Module ID	Mode	State
1	operational	usable
2	operational	usable

At least one module is usable in the current world. Click Next to continue with this world. Or reset module 2 to the initialization state to enable you to restore your security world to uninitialized nShield modules.

Refer to the user guide for details of how to put your nShield module in the initialization state. If you need to power down your computer, select the tickbox below and then restart the wizard on boot up to continue the installation.

☐ The machine must be switched off to change the hardware state.
