Our Lady Of The Drive In:

Our Lady in the Rose Peter Patrick Glancy Campbell, 2016-07-13 Our Lady in the Rose is my late wife Bettys little miracle happening as I pushed her in the garden of her Larkfield Care Home shortly before she went to the Lord It was a lovely sunny August day as I quietly said the rosary asking for peace and healing for both of us Little did I know that our Lady would answer by asking me to place one of the beautiful white roses on Bettys hair and take a photo Our Lady of the Exile Thomas A. Tweed, 1997-10-02 Our Lady of the Exile is a study of Cuban American popular Catholicism focusing on the shrine of Our Lady Charity in Miami Drawing on a wide range of sources and using both historical and ethnographic methods the book examines the religious life of the Cuban exiles who visit the shrine Those pilgrims are diverse and so are the motives that bring them At the same time author Thomas A Tweed argues Cuban devotees of the national patroness share a great deal Most come to pray for their homeland and to recreate bonds with other Cubans on the island and in the diaspora The shrine is a place where they come to make sense of themselves as an exiled people The religious symbols there link the past and present and bridge the homeland and the new land Through rituals and artifacts at the shrine Tweed suggests the Cuban diaspora imaginatively constructs its collective identity and transports itself to the Cuba of memory and desire While the book focuses on Cuban exiles in Miami it moves beyond case study as it explores larger issues concerning religion identity and place How do migrants relate to heir homeland How do they understand themselves after they have been displaced What role does religion play among these diasporic groups Building on this study of one exiled group Tweed proposes a theory of diasporic religion that promises to illuminate the experiences of other groups that have been displaced from their native land As the first book length analysis of Cuban American Catholicism Tweed s book will be an invaluable resource to scholars and students of not only Religious Studies American Studies and Ethnic Studies but also those who study cultural anthropology human geography and Latin American history Our Lady of the Green Mrs. Louie Mackern, M. Boys, 1899 Our lady of the green, a book of ladies' golf, ed. by L. Lackern and M. Boys Our Lady, 1899 Our Lady of Everyday Life María Del Socorro Castañeda-Liles, 2018-03-01 For Mexican Catholic women in the United States devotion to Our Lady of Guadalupe La Virgen is a necessary aspect of their cultural identity In this masterful ethnography Mar a Del Socorro Casta eda Liles considers three generations of Mexican origin women between the ages of 18 and 82 She examines the Catholic beliefs the women inherited from their mothers and how these beliefs become the template from which they first learn to see themselves as people of faith She also offers a comprehensive analysis of how Catholicism creates a culture in which Mexican origin women learn how to be good girls in a manner that reduces their agency to rubble Through the nexus of faith and lived experience these women develop a type of Mexican Catholic imagination that helps them challenge the sanctification of shame guilt and aguante endurance at all cost This imagination allows these women to transgress strict notions of what a good Catholic woman should be while retaining life giving aspects of Catholicism This transgression is most visible in their relationship to La Virgen which is a fluid and deeply engaged process of self awareness in everyday life

The Sisters of Our Lady of the Missions Rosa Bruno-Jofre, 2019-11-04 This book traces the journey taken by the Canadian Province of the Sisters of Our Lady of the Missions Religieuses de Notre Dame des Missions RNDM from its establishment in Manitoba in 1898 to 2008 when the congregation as a whole redefined its mission and vision Using archival research conducted in Canada England and Italy and incorporating oral interviews with RNDM sisters this book explores the historical work of the sisters in schools and the part they played in the developing educational state The congregation's activities in schools first in Manitoba and Saskatchewan and later in Ontario and Quebec show how the sisters educational work related to the social characteristics of the communities they worked in e g those of French Canadian settlers British and continental European immigrants and the Métis population The Sisters of Our Lady of the Missions examines the impact of Vatican II in the 1960s and into the 2000s as well as the dismantling of neo scholasticism and the process of secularization of consciousness in society at large These emerging issues led the congregation to examine its individual and collective identity at the intersection of feminist theology eco spirituality and a critique of Western cosmology Our Lady of Dreams

(Firm), 1901 Mid-America, 1924 Religion, Spirituality and Everyday Practice Giuseppe Giordan, William H. Swatos, Jr., 2011-08-14 The current generation of young adults at least in the Western world has shown a marked tendency toward a preference for describing themselves as spiritual as contrasted to religious This book seeks to examine the possible meanings and consequences associated with this contrast in terms of the similarities and differences that affect those who use these terms with respect to the everyday practices that they themselves employ or believe should follow from being self defined as religious or spiritual or not The several chapters in this volume take up the religious spiritual contrast specifically through investigations into practice In what ways do people who claim to be religious or spiritual define these self images as manifest in their own lives How on a daily basis does a person who considers himself or herself religious or spiritual live out that self image in specific ways that she or he can describe to others even if not share with others Are there ways that being spiritual can involve religion or ways that being religious can involve spirituality and if so how do these differ from concepts in prior eras e.g. Ignatian spirituality Orthodox spirituality Anglican spirituality etc We also explore if there are institutions of spiritual practice to which those who term themselves spiritual turn or if the difference implied by these terms may instead be between institutionalized and de institutionalized expressions of practice including but not limited to self spiritualities
