Pioneer Photographers of Brazil, 1840-1920 Gilberto Ferrez, Weston J. Naef, 1976 Pioneer Photographers of Brazil, 1972 Pioneer Photographers of Brazil, 1840-1920 Gilberta Ferrez, Weston J. Naef, 1980 Pioneer Photographs of Brazil, 1976 The Pioneering Photographic Work of Hercule Florence Boris Kossoy, 2017-12-14 This book delivers an in depth analysis of Hercule Florence who is virtually unknown despite being among the world's photographic pioneers Based on the texts of various manuscripts letters diaries notes and advertisements this book answers numerous questions surrounding Florence's work including the materials methods and techniques he employed and why it took more than a century for his discovery to come to light Kossoy's groundbreaking research establishes Florence's use of photography to describe the product of his experiments half a decade before Sir John Herschel recommended photography to Henry Fox Talbot This book aims to change the fact that despite its cultural and historical importance Florence's photographic breakthrough remains largely unknown in the English speaking world Architecture in Nineteenth-Century Photographs Micheline Nilsen, 2017-07-05 Revealing that nineteenth century photography goes beyond the functional to reflect the aesthetic intellectual and cultural concerns of the time this study proposes that each photographic image of architecture be studied both as a primary visual document and an object of aesthetic inquiry This multi faceted approach drives Architecture in Nineteenth Century Photographs Essays on Reading a Collection Despite three decades of post colonial post structuralist and gender conscious criticism the study of architectural photography continues to privilege technical virtuosity This volume offers a thematic exploration of the material and a socio historical examination that allows consideration of questions that have not been addressed comprehensively before in a single publication Themes include exoticism and armchair tourism the absence of women from architectural photography the role of photographs as commodities vernacular architecture and the picturesque and historic preservation urban renewal and nationalism Micheline Nilsen analyzes photographs from France and England the two countries where photography was invented and from around the world representing a corpus of over 10 000 photographs from the Janos Scholz Collection of Nineteenth Century Photographs of the Snite Museum of Art at the University of Notre Dame Brazil Today, 1977 Encyclopedia of Nineteenth-Century Photography John Hannavy, 2013-12-16 The Encyclopedia of Nineteenth Century Photography is the first comprehensive encyclopedia of world photography up to the beginning of the twentieth century It sets out to be the standard definitive reference work on the subject for years to come Its coverage is global an important first in that authorities from all over the world have contributed their expertise and scholarship towards making this a truly comprehensive publication The Encyclopedia presents new and ground breaking research alongside accounts of the major established figures in the nineteenth century arena Coverage includes all the key people processes equipment movements styles debates and groupings which helped photography develop from being a solution in search of a problem when first invented to the essential communication tool creative medium and recorder of everyday life which it had become by the dawn of the twentieth century The sheer breadth of coverage in the 1200 essays makes the Encyclopedia of Nineteenth Century Photography an essential reference source for academics students researchers and libraries worldwide Photographers Peter E. Palmquist,2000 Picturing Tropical Nature Nancy Stepan,2001 Picturing Tropical Nature reflects on the work of several nineteenth and twentieth century scientists and artists including Alexander von Humboldt Alfred Russel Wallace Louis Agassiz Sir Patrick Manson and Margaret Mee Their careers illuminate several aspects of tropicalization science and art in the making of tropical pictures the commercial and cultural boom in things tropical in the modern period photographic attempts to represent tropical hybrid races antitropicalism and its role in an emerging environmentalist sensibility and visual depictions of disease in the new tropical medicine Jacket Visual Typologies from the Early Modern to the Contemporary Tara Zanardi, Lynda Klich,2018-07-04 Visual Typologies from the Early Modern to the Contemporary investigates the pictorial representation of types from the sixteenth to the twenty first century Originating in longstanding visual traditions including street crier prints and costume albums these images share certain conventions as they seek to convey knowledge about different peoples The genre of the type became widespread in the early modern period developing into a global language of identity The chapters explore diverse pictorial representations of types customs and dress in numerous media including paintings prints postcards photographs and garments Together they reveal that the activation of typological strategies including seriality repetition appropriation and subversion has produced a universal and dynamic pictorial language Typological images highlight the tensions between the local and the international the specific and the communal and similarity and difference inherent in the construction of identity The first full length study to treat these images as a broader genre Visual Typologies gives voice to a marginalized form of representation Together the chapters debunk the classification of such images as unmediated and authentic representations offering fresh methodological frameworks to consider their meanings locally and globally and establishing common ground about the operations of objects that sought to shape embody or challenge individual and collective identities House and Street Sandra Lauderdale Graham,1992 During the later half of the nineteenth century a majority of Brazilian women worked most as domestic servants either slave or free House and Street re creates the working and personal lives of these women drawing on a wealth of documentation from archival court and church records Lauderdale Graham traces the intricate and ambivalent relations that existed between masters and servants She shows how for servants the house could be a place of protection as well as oppression while the street could be dangerous but also more autonomous She integrates her discoveries with larger events taking place in Rio de Janeiro during the period including the epidemics of the 1850s the abolition of slavery the demolition of slums and major improvements in sanitation during the first decade of the 1900s House and Street was originally published by Cambridge University Press in 1988 For this paperback edition Lauderdale Graham has provided a new introduction Exploring the Archive Manuela Fischer, Michael Kraus,2015-07-15

The Ethnologisches Museum in Berlin holds more than 6 500 historical black and white photographs from Latin America. These images were produced between 1868 and 1936 and mainly depict ethnological and archaeological motifs although some portray views of urban or natural landscapes. The contributions to this volume focus on particular series from this extensive archive. In doing so they illustrate the enormous potential for research inherent within such repositories of memory, represent a diverse set of approaches and provide varied interpretations of historical photographs. The contributions focus on the contexts in which these images were produced and provide interpretations of the intentions behind some of the photographs. Moreover they analyse the acquisition of these photographs and the manner in which they have been preserved and disseminated. Additionally the contributions highlight the manners in which the images have been used and the impact of some of the formats in which the photographs were published. This richly illustrated volume is complemented by the digital reproductions available online at <http://www.smb.digital.de>.

Emancipating the Female Sex June Edith Hahner, 1990. June E. Hahner's pioneering work Emancipating the Female Sex offers the first comprehensive history of the struggle for women's rights in Brazil. Based on previously undiscovered primary sources and fifteen years of research, Hahner's study provides long overdue recognition of the place of women in Latin American history. Hahner traces the history of Brazilian women's fight for emancipation from its earliest manifestations in the mid nineteenth century to the successful conclusion of the suffrage campaign in the 1930s. Drawing on interviews with surviving Brazilian suffragists and contemporary feminists as well as manuscripts and printed documents, Hahner explores the strategies and ideological positions of Brazilian feminists. In focusing on urban upper and middle class women from whose ranks the leadership for change arose, she examines the relationship between feminism and social change in Brazil's complex and highly stratified society.

Slave Life in Rio de Janeiro, 1808-1850 Mary C. Karasch, 2019-01-29. Rio de Janeiro in the first half of the nineteenth century had the largest population of urban slaves in the Americas, primary contributors to the atmosphere and vitality of the city. Although most urban historians have ignored these inhabitants of Rio, Mary Karasch's generously illustrated study provides a comprehensive description and analysis of the city's rich Afro-Cariocan culture, including its folklore, its songs, and accounts of its oral history. Professor Karasch's investigation of the origins of Rio's slaves demonstrates the importance of the Central Africaness of the slave population to an understanding of its culture. Challenging the thesis of the comparative mildness of the Brazilian slave system, other chapters discuss the marketing of Africans in the Valongo, the principal slave market, and the causes of early slave mortality, including the single greatest killer, tuberculosis. Also examined in detail are adaptation and resistance to slavery, occupations and roles of slaves in an urban economy, and art, religion, and associational life. Mary C. Karasch is Associate Professor of History at Oakland University in Rochester, Michigan.
