The Geographies of African American

Short Fiction Kenton Rambsy, 2022-03-25 Perhaps the brevity of short fiction accounts for the relatively scant attention devoted to it by scholars who have historically concentrated on longer prose narratives The Geographies of African American Short Fiction seeks to fill this gap by analyzing the ways African American short story writers plotted a diverse range of characters across multiple locations small towns a famous metropolis city sidewalks a rural wooded area apartment buildings a pond a general store a prison and more In the process these writers highlighted the extents to which places and spaces shaped or situated racial representations Presenting African American short story writers as cultural cartographers author Kenton Rambsy documents the variety of geographical references within their short stories to show how these authors make cultural spaces integral to their artwork and inscribe their stories with layered and resonant social histories The history of these short stories also documents the circulation of compositions across dozens of literary collections for nearly a century Anthology editors solidified the significance of a core group of short story authors including James Baldwin Toni Cade Bambara Charles Chesnutt Ralph Ellison Zora Neale Hurston and Richard Wright Using quantitative information and an extensive literary dataset The Geographies of African American Short Fiction explores how editorial practices shaped the canon of African American short fiction

The Short Writings of Nelson Algren

Richard F. Bales, 2022-09-22 Nelson Algren was a renowned Chicago writer known for his social commentary and his novels like The Man with the Golden Arm and A Walk on the Wild Side Although he continues to be remembered almost exclusively for his novels this book aims to highlight the value and influence of his short form works Before he died in 1981 Algren had amassed a genre defying body of work including short stories articles poems and book reviews The present book features a comprehensive analysis and discussion of Algren's lost literature including everything but his novels One of the pieces covered is a masterpiece of race relations written in 1950 more than 60 years before the galvanization of the Black Lives Matter movement Another is a scathing poem about Algren's transatlantic love affair with Simone de Beauvoir Both items are reprinted in the book courtesy of the Algren estate This book also includes references to Algren's works that have yet to be studied by Algren scholars

Short Story

Theories, 2015-06-29 Short Story Theories A Twenty First Century Perspective problematizes different aspects of the renewal and development of the short story The aim of this collection is to explore the most recent theoretical issues raised by the short story as a genre and to offer theoretical and practical perspectives on the form Centering as it does on specific authors and on the wider implications of short story poetics this collection presents a new series of essays that both reinterpret canonical writers of the genre and advance new critical insights on the most recent trends and contemporary authors Theorizations about genre reflect on different aspects of the short story from a multiplicity of perspectives and take the form of historical and aesthetic considerations gender centered accounts and examinations that attend to reader response theory cognitive patterns sociolinguistics discourse analysis postcolonial studies postmodern techniques and contemporary uses of minimalist forms Looking ahead this collection traces the evolution of the short story from Chaucer through the Romantic writings of Poe to the postmodern developments and into the twenty first century This volume will prove of interest to scholars and graduate students working in the fields of the short story and of literature in general In addition the readability and analytical transparency of these essays make them accessible to a more general readership interested in fiction
