Private Sociology Arthur B. Shostak,1996 Each contributor to this book has used personal experience as the basis from which to frame his individual sociological perspectives Because they have personalized their work their accounts are real and recognizable as having come from real persons about real experiences There are no objectively distanced disembodied third person entities in these accounts These writers are actual people whose stories will make you laugh cry think and want to know more Journey into Newness Patrick C. Heston,2022-08-23 Wilderness periods of our lives those dry and desperate seasons when God seems distant and detached perhaps even indifferent or impotent can seem an abnormal and painful part of our lives that simply must be painfully plodded through and somehow endured Yet far from being something abnormal and life threatening like a cancer invading our bodies wilderness periods represent a fundamental element of our life in the Spirit and part of God s well orchestrated plan to guarantee that we become and possess everything he desires for us Our Australian Theatre in the 1990s ,2023-09-29 AUSTRALIAN THEATRE in the 1990s is a vigorous enterprise displaying the energies and contradictions of a multicultural society This collection of essays by leading scholars of Australian theatre and drama surveys the emergence and directions of the new theatrical energies which have challenged or redefined the Australian mainstream Aboriginal multicultural Asian Australian women s gay and lesbian community and young people s theatre and charts the exciting growth of physical theatre The contributors assess the impact of evolving funding and industrial priorities and examine the theoretical and cultural debates surrounding Australian playwriting and theatre making from the 1970s Vietnam dramas to the postmodern present Showdown at Big Sandy Greg Doudna,2006-10-01 Inside story of Herbert Armstrong s Worldwide Church of God as told by a student at the church run Ambassador College Big Sandy Texas 1972 75 Story of youthful naivete and creativity in a world of biblical fundamentalism Difficult to put down Mac Overton The Journal It s priceless Gavin Rumney Ambassador Watch A Place Called Home Alice Taylor,2024-10-14 In fact two places called home For over sixty years Alice Taylor has lived in the village of Innishannon the gateway to West Cork But her childhood was spent on a farm in North Cork near the Kerry border and her memories of that homeplace are vivid Here she recalls the sounds and smells of the farmyard now silent she visits her old national school today in ruins and her secondary which has a new life as a cultural centre She also writes of day to day life in her beloved Innishannon With her trademark wit and wisdom Alice takes us on a ramble around both of her homes celebrating the places the people and the special moments that have stayed in her heart over the years A Wide & Open Land Peter Ridgeway,2021-09-09 In the Winter of 2019 Peter Ridgeway set out to walk 179 kilometres across the Cumberland Plain the region of rural land west of Sydney Carrying his food and water and camping under the stars he crossed one of the least known landscapes in Australia all within view of its largest city This book recounts a unique journey across a landscape few Australians will ever see In this open country the familiar forests of Sydney s sandstone are replaced by a fertile world of open woodlands native grasslands and wetlands home to some of the Nation s most unique and endangered wildlife The traditional land of the Darug Gundungurra and Dharawal peoples and the birthplace of the first Australian colony it is a landscape which also holds the key to our entwined and conflicted origins What was once a limitless tract of woodland is now being engulfed by the city to its east in the largest construction project ever undertaken in the Southern Hemisphere the elimination of an ecosystem and a community This book provides an immersion in the history wildlife and culture of one of Australia s most rapidly vanishing landscapes and reveals how the destruction of the West is erasing not only itself but something central to the identity of all Australians The Dragon and the Crown Stanley S.K.

Smith,2001-10-17 Their eyes see rubble former exiles see home Globe and Mail 23 June 2000 Douglas Porteous and Sandra Smith begin their analysis by examining just how important home is to human life and community Using a multitude of case studies of displacement they derive a theoretical framework that addresses the methods effects of and motives for domicile Two case studies of resettlement resulting from hydro electric power development in British Columbia are used to test this framework Porteous and Smith assess the implications of loss of home evaluate current efforts at mitigation suggest better policies to alleviate the suffering of the dispossessed and as a last resort urge resistance against unacceptable projects Danny Boy Mary K Snyder,2023-03-09 What was supposed to be a day at the park with my son ended up to be the day that would change the course of so many lives some for the worst and some for the better Instead of giving him a bath before bed I was watching him fight for his life As the years unfolded I discovered the true meaning of love faith struggle fear and most of all hope I had a front row seat to watch life's unpredictability a crash course in the delicacy life holds for all of us Out of tragedy the perfect person was reborn A person who only knew how to truly enjoy life and what it had to offer good or bad There was no agenda no hate no greed or dishonesty just love This story is about the journey my son took us on Only a person with a pure heart can carry those who hold money and power over humanity It is a story of a boy who was able to make a difference without money fame or social media He made a difference with his ability to bring people together to overcome adversity and political abuse Abuse that unfortunately exists in a corrupt system that we are all a part of It is a journey of love lies deception and triumph Through this journey this book was born The Churchman, 1926 And the Meadow Lark Sang Margaretha Willms, 2011 Stories are blessings and with this volume of memoirs Margaretha Willms leaves a legacy of gifts for future generations This collection of stories radiates the simplicity of a carefree childhood of growing up and changing with the seasons of life a reminder of the repetition and rhythm of nature on the prairies and the assurance of a coming spring when the meadowlark sings once again Deep in every family background are the ethnic and religious values of their ancestors and it is important to preserve them by passing on stories connected to the places where those values found fullness in everyday living Margaretha writes A person is bound to their place of birth to the home of their childhood to the graves of their parents and to customs and traditions even if only in memory and history is a journey into that memory In recording moments of time about living through the hardships of the Great Depression she often finds humour in describing what seem in their proper perspective to lend themselves to rather amusing explorations Her story is told with candid unflinching honesty giving a glimpse of Mennonite social and religious traditions that made life unique Margaretha's sensitive portrayal of country schools in which her husband taught in the 1950s revives the spirit of rural schools as the heart and soul and pulse of every community in their time Something of the prairies survives in the melody of the meadowlark and the stories in Margaretha Willms' book are also sustained for the future memories of the past too full of life to be forgotten

SUGAR and SNAKES Norman Wilkinson, 2020-12-01 An adventurer A beautiful princess A forbidden love that would change their world forever Zeneal had broken mongoose law He had trespassed into another kingdom to secretly meet his princess and the love of his life Her father the King had discovered them and banished him forever or risk a war with his neighbours His father had punished him yet when a new greater threat arises he and his clan must stand and face a wild mongoose army from the rainforest of overwhelming numbers Their life of tranquillity on the island is over maybe forever With their backs to the sea the swarm advances They must stand few against many good against evil Heroes and Champions may prevail but he is just a boy is he one of them Identity, Diaspora and Return in American Literature Maria Antònia Oliver-Rotger, 2014-09-19 This volume combines literary analysis and theoretical approaches to mobility diasporic identities and the construction of space to explore the different ways in which the notion of return shapes contemporary ethnic writing such as fiction ethnography memoir and film Through a wide variety of ethnic experiences ranging from the Transatlantic Asian American Latino and Caribbean alongside their corresponding forms of displacement political exile war trauma and economic migration the essays in this collection connect the intimate experience of the returning subject to multiple locations historical experiences inter subjective relations and cultural interactions They challenge the idea of the narrative of return as a journey back to the untouched roots and home that the ethnic subject left behind Their diacritical approach combines on the one hand a sensitivity to the context and structural elements of modern diaspora and on the other an analysis of the individual psychological processes inherent to the experience of displacement and return such as nostalgia memory and belonging In the narratives of return analyzed in this volume space and identity are never static or easily definable rather they are in process and subject to change as they are always entangled in the historical and inter subjective relations ensuing from displacement and mobility This book will interest students and scholars who wish to further explore the role of American literature within current debates on globalization migration and ethnicity
