Revelatory Landscapes Aaron Betsky, 2001 Landscape Theory in Design Susan Herrington, 2016-12-08

Phenomenology Materiality Cybernetics Palimpsest Cyborgs Landscape Urbanism Typology Semiotics Deconstruction the minefield of theoretical ideas that students must navigate today can be utterly confusing and how do these theories translate to the design studio Landscape Theory in Design introduces theoretical ideas to students without the use of jargon or an assumption of extensive knowledge in other fields and in doing so links these ideas to the processes of design In five thematic chapters Susan Herrington explains the theoretic groundings of the theory of philosophy why it matters to design an example of the theory in a work of landscape architecture from the twentieth and twenty first centuries debates surrounding the theory particularly as they elaborate modern and postmodern thought and primary readings that can be read as companions to her text An extensive glossary of theoretical terms also adds a vital contribution to students comprehension of theories relevant to the design of landscapes and gardens Covering the design of over 40 landscape architects architects and designers in 111 distinct projects from 20 different countries Landscape Theory in Design is essential reading for any student of the landscape Eco-revelatory Design , 1998 Meaning in Landscape Architecture and Gardens Marc landscapes from Norway and England to California and Mexico providing firsthand reports on the visions and adventures of a small band of geomancers as they seek to unravel the mysteries of the Earth Maybe not such a small band because along the way we encounter angels landscape devas Nature Spirits and otherworldly mentors and revel in vistas of the ancient past of the Earth when that revelation was as fresh as a sunrise as it will soon be again

Jacket Literature as an Art Form - Evolving Intermedial Literary Landscape Asunción López-Varela

Azcárate,2025-07-02 Literature as an Art Form Evolving Intermedial Literary Landscape brings together sixteen scholarly contributions that explore literature's ongoing transformation across media cultures and technologies This anthology traces the dynamic interplay between literature and visual sonic performative and algorithmic forms ranging from illuminated manuscripts and oral traditions to digital texts and anime Rejecting the notion of literature as a fixed verbal art the chapters highlight its status as a transmedial evolving practice shaped by and shaping the environments in which it is situated Each essay examines how literature migrates across modalities revealing it as a mutable process of technopoiesis Together they offer a compelling vision of literature not as an autonomous artefact but as a fluid cultural phenomenon whose conditions of existence are inseparable from intermedial exchange

Subverting the Empire Paul Genoni,2004 This paper examines the way in which contemporary Australian novelists use various tropes derived from exploration in order to embellish themes of personal search in their fiction By doing so they have borrowed from the language and myths created by what was essentially an exercise in imperialism and applied them to the quest by individuals in the settler society to find a permanent spiritual home in the new country The exploration imagery proves to be apposite in that just as the empire's hopes were dashed when exploration of the inland was repelled by the barren heart of the continent so too has the metaphysical exploration of the same spaces foundered on uncompromising and withholding landscapes

Ciaran Carson Neal Alexander,2010-09-15 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library Ciaran Carson is one of the most challenging and inventive of contemporary Irish writers exhibiting verbal brilliance formal complexity and intellectual daring across a remarkably varied body of work This study considers the full range of his oeuvre in poetry prose and translations and discusses the major themes to which he returns including memory and history narrative language and translation mapping violence and power It argues that the singularity of Carson's writing is to be found in his radical imaginative engagements with ideas of space and place The city of Belfast in particular occupies a crucially important place in his texts serving as an imaginative focal point around which his many other concerns are constellated The city in all its volatile mutability is an abiding frame of reference and a reservoir of creative impetus for Carson's imagination Accordingly the book adopts an interdisciplinary approach that draws upon geography urbanism and cultural theory as well as literary criticism It provides both a stimulating and thorough introduction to Carson's work and a flexible critical framework for exploring literary representations of space

Landscapes Beyond Land Arnar Árnason,2012-09-15 Land is embedded in a multitude of material and cultural contexts through which the human experience of landscape emerges Ethnographers with their participative methodologies long term co residence and concern with the quotidian aspects of the places where they work are well positioned to describe landscapes in this fullest of senses The contributors explore how landscapes become known primarily through movement and journeying rather than stasis Working across four continents they explain how landscapes are constituted and recollected in the stories people tell of their journeys through them and how in turn these stories are embedded in landscaped forms Theme Park Landscapes Terence G. Young, Robert B. Riley, 2002 The prevalence and influence of theming increased so dramatically during the 1990s that theme parks have become a metaphor for postmodern urban life But few scholarly studies focus on the landscapes in theme parks This volume s authors examine themed landscapes in Asia Europe and North America in response to this worldwide development Reading Sin in the World Anthony Dykes, 2011-02-24 Prudentius is one of the major Latin poets of antiquity A Christian living and writing in Spain in the late fourth and early fifth centuries he was thoroughly imbued with the whole tradition of Latin poetry The Hamartigenia is a didactic poem exploring the origins of evil and how it operates in the world It is full of echoes and reworkings of earlier poems by Lucretius Virgil and others but is also a serious contribution to this important theological issue which was much discussed in Church circles of the day This is a major new study of the Hamartigenia in the context of Prudentius work as a whole and is striking for being as seriously interested in its theological as in its literary contribution
