Revolution In Zanzibar An Americans Cold War Tale:

Revolution In Zanzibar Donald Petterson, 2009-04-21 The Cold War exploded in Zanzibar in 1964 when African rebels slaughtered one of every ten Arabs Led by a strange messianic Ugandan Cuban trained factions headed the rebels making Zanzibar in the eyes of Washington a potentially cancerous base for the communist subversion of mainland Africa Exotic Zanzibar fabled island of spices former slave trading entrept and stepping off point for 19th century expeditions into the vast interior of the Dark Continent had succumbed to the terror of 20th century revolution and Cold War intrigue In the vivid eyewitness tradition of The Bang Bang Club and The Skull beneath the Skin Donald Petterson weaves an engrossing tale of human drama played out against a background of violence and horror As the only American in Zanzibar throughout the revolution Petterson reports with the inside authority of a highly placed diplomatic observer illuminating how the current troubles in Zanzibar are rooted in the Cold War and the revolution of 1964 Language and Collective Mobilization Nadra

O. Hashim, 2009-06-16 Language and Collective Mobilization analyzes the origins of communal conflict in five phases of Zanzibar s modern history The first phase examines the implementation of British colonial control focusing on the conversion of Zanzibar s subsistence farming economy to a cash crop plantation complex This first phase of colonial rule disrupted a variety of indigenous political and social institutions which traditionally promoted peace and stability During subsequent phases of colonial rule the British government devised political economic and educational policies that promoted elite Arab rule at the expense of the majority Swahili speaking population Colonial authorities rendered illegal any attempts by Swahilis to organize political resistance a rule which exacerbated anti Arab animosity Colonial rule ended in 1964 when Swahili speaking Zanzibaris led a violent revolution against English command and Arab control Having forced a variety of wealthy Arab and Indian communities off the island Swahili revolutionaries allowed a small number of Indian merchants and a few Shirazi farmers to remain Less than twenty years after the revolution in this fifth phase of Zanzibar s political history partisan conflict between the Shirazi and Swahili populations threatens to unleash a new rash of violence The social climate mirrors the first phase of British rule where economic stratification deepens and political tensions grow The analysis offered in this book will find an audience in students scholars journalists and policymakers interested in understanding so called ethnic conflict in Africa

Contemporary Issues in Swahili Ethnography Iain Walker, 2018-10-11 The term Swahili describes the Muslim peoples of the East African coast speakers of Kiswahili or closely related languages who have historically filled roles as middlemen and merchants the cosmopolitan products of a trading economy between Africa and the Indian Ocean world This collection brings together anthropologists working on the greater Swahili world and the issues it confronts dealing with societies from southern Somalia northern Mozambique and the Comoro Islands to Zanzibar and Mafia The authors discuss a range of contemporary issues such as the shifting roles of Islam on the mainland coast consumerism conservation memory and belonging in Zanzibar how a Muslim society deals with HIV AIDS social change development and political strategies in the Comoros and Swahili women in London The diversity of these themes reflects the diversity of the Swahili world itself despite a cohesive cultural identity built upon shared practices religious beliefs and language the challenges facing Swahili people are multiple and complex This book comprises articles originally published in the Journal of Eastern African Studies along with some new chapters

Negotiating Memory from the Romans to the Twenty-First Century Øivind Fuglerud,Kjersti Larsen,Marina

Prusac-Lindhagen,2020-09-14 Manipulation of the past and forced erasure of memories have been global phenomena throughout history spanning a varied repertoire from the destruction or alteration of architecture sites and images to the banning or imposing of old and new practices The present volume addresses these questions comparatively across time and geography and combines a material approach to the study of memory with cross disciplinary empirical explorations of historical and contemporary cases This approach positions the volume as a reference point within several fields of humanities and social sciences The collection brings together scholars from different fields within humanities and social science to engage with memorialization and damnatio memoriae across disciplines using examples from their own research The broad chronological and comparative scope makes the volume relevant for researchers and students of several historical periods and geographic regions

Zanzibar Was a Country Nathaniel Mathews,2024-04-09 Zanzibar Was a Country explores the transregional impact of the Zanzibar Revolution of 1964 through the historical memory of its exiles Thousands of former citizens of Zanzibar and their offspring live in Oman and are a significant contemporary example of an Arab community that maintains a living connection to Africa in diaspora These Zanzibaris as they are often known in Oman speak Swahili sustain community originally formed in Africa and continue to remember Zanzibar s history as an independent country Drawing on their life histories their historiography of Zanzibar and the archival traces of their migrations Nathaniel Mathews demonstrates how these exiles were important to nation building and economic development in Oman

Modern Architecture in Africa Antoni S. Folkers,Belinda A. C. van Buiten,2019-07-22 This book offers unique insights into modern

African architecture influenced by modern European architecture and at the same time a natural successor to existing site specific and traditional architecture It brings together the worlds of traditional site specific architecture with the Modernist Project in Africa which to date have only been considered in isolation The book covers the four architectural disciplines urban planning building technology building physics and conservation It includes an introduction with a historical outline and an analysis and comparison of a number of projects in various countries in Africa On the basis of examples drawn from practice the author documents and describes the hybrid architectural forms that have emerged from the confrontation and fusion with pre modern Western architecture and urban planning and in so doing he also narrates the history of African architecture

Practising Self-Government Yash Ghai,Sophia Woodman,2013-08-29 Autonomy provides a framework that allows for regions within countries to exercise self government beyond the extent available to other sub state units This book presents detailed case studies of thirteen such autonomies from around the world in which noted experts on each outline the constitutional legal and institutional frameworks as well as how these arrangements have worked in practice to protect minority rights and prevent secession of the territories in question The volume s editors draw on the case studies to provide a comparative analysis of how autonomy works and the political and institutional conditions under which it is likely to become a workable arrangement for management of the differences that brought it into being Working Class History Working Class History,2020-12-01 History is not made by kings politicians or a few rich individuals it is made by all of us From the temples of ancient Egypt to spacecraft orbiting Earth workers and ordinary people everywhere have walked out sat down risen up and fought back against exploitation discrimination colonization and oppression Working Class History presents a distinct selection of people s history through hundreds of on this day in history anniversaries that are as diverse and international as the working class itself Women young people people of color workers migrants Indigenous people LGBT people disabled people older people the unemployed home workers and every other part of the working class have organized and taken action that has shaped our world and improvements in living and working conditions have been won only by years of violent conflict and sacrifice These everyday acts of resistance and rebellion highlight just some of those who have struggled for a better world and provide lessons and inspiration for those of us fighting in the present Going day by day this book paints a picture of how and why the world came to be as it is how some have tried to change it and the lengths to which the rich and powerful have gone to maintain and increase their wealth and influence This handbook of grassroots movements curated by the popular Working Class History project features many hidden histories and untold stories reinforced with inspiring images further reading and a foreword from legendary author and dissident Noam Chomsky Making a World after Empire Christopher J. Lee,2019-08-19 In April 1955 twenty nine countries from Africa Asia and the Middle East came together for a diplomatic conference in Bandung Indonesia intending to define the direction of the postcolonial world Ostensibly representing two thirds of the world s population the Bandung conference occurred during a key moment of transition in the mid twentieth century amid the global wave of decolonization that took place after the Second World War and the nascent establishment of a new Cold War world order in its wake Participants such as Jawaharlal Nehru of India Gamal Abdel Nasser of Egypt Zhou Enlai of China and Sukarno of Indonesia seized this occasion to attempt the creation of a political alternative to the dual threats of Western neocolonialism and the Cold War interventionism of the United States and the Soviet Union The essays collected here explore the diverse repercussions of this event tracing diplomatic intellectual and sociocultural histories that ensued as well as addressing the broader intersection of postcolonial and Cold War history With a new foreword by Vijay Prashad and a new preface by the editor Making a World after Empire speaks to contemporary discussions of decolonization Third Worldism and the emergence of the Global South thus reestablishing the conference s importance in twentieth century global history Contributors Michael Adas Laura Bier James R Brennan G Thomas Burgess Antoinette Burton Dipesh Chakrabarty Julian Go Christopher J Lee Jamie Monson Jeremy Prestholdt and Denis M Tull

coast port city of Dar es Salaam literally the Haven of Peace hosts a population reflecting a legacy of long relations with the Arabian Peninsula and a diaspora emanating in waves from the Indian subcontinent By the 1960s after decades of European imperial intrusions Tanzanian nationalist forces had peacefully dismantled the last British colonial structures of racial segregation and put in place an official philosophy of nonracial nationalism Yet today more than five decades after independence race is still a prominent and publicly contested subject in Dar es Salaam What makes this issue so dizzyingly elusive for government bureaucrats and ordinary people alike is East Africa's location on the Indian Ocean a historic crossroads of diverse peoples possessing varied ideas about how to reconcile human difference social belonging and place of origin Based on a range of archival oral and newspaper sources from Tanzania and India this book explores the history of cross cultural encounters that shaped regional ideas of diaspora and nationhood from the earliest days of colonial Tanganyika when Indian settlement began to expand dramatically to present day Tanzania a nation always under construction The book focuses primarily on two prominent city spaces schools and cinemas the one a site of education the other a site of leisure one typically a programmatic entity of government the other usually a bastion of commercial enterprise Nonetheless the forces shaping schools and cinemas as they developed into busy centers of urban social interaction were surprisingly similar the state community organizations nationalist movements economic change and the transnational winds of Indian Ocean culture and capital Whether in the form of institutional apparatuses like networks of Indian teacher importation and curricula adoption or through the market predominance of the Indian film industry schools and cinemas in East Africa historically were influenced by actions and ideas from around the Indian Ocean Diaspora and Nation in the Indian Ocean argues that an Indian Ocean wide perspective enables an examination of the transnational production of ideas about race against a backdrop of changing relationships and claims of belonging as new notions of nationhood and diaspora emerged It bridges an academic divide because historians often either focus on the Indian diaspora in isolation or write it out of the story of African nation building Further in contrast to the swell of publications on global Indian or South Asian diasporas that highlight longings for and contacts with the homeland the book also demonstrates that much of the creative production of diasporic Indian identities formed in East Africa was a result of local albeit cosmopolitan encounters across cities like Dar es Salaam

The Fate of Africa Martin Meredith, 2011-09-06 The definitive story of African nations after they emerged from colonialism from Mugabe's doomed kleptocracy to Mandela's inspiring defeat of apartheid The Fate of Africa has been hailed by reviewers as A masterpiece The nonfiction book of the year The New York Post a magnificent achievement Weekly Standard a joy Wall Street Journal and one of the decade's most important works on Africa Publishers Weekly starred review Spanning the full breadth of the continent from the bloody revolt in Algiers against the French to Zimbabwe's civil war Martin Meredith's classic history focuses on the key personalities events and themes of the independence era and explains the myriad problems that Africa has faced in the past half century It covers recent events like the ongoing conflict in Sudan the controversy over

Western aid the exploitation of Africa's resources and the growing importance and influence of China The African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights [2 Volume Set] Nat Rubner, 2023 A landmark study of the African Charter on human and peoples rights one of the most important documents in modern African history that positions it within the African Lives Matter struggle to assert an African identity rather than as simply a human rights document This set describes its underlying African origins and how the principles of the OAU influenced its path and content A Good African Story Andrew Rugasira, 2013-02-07 Since it was founded in 2003 Good African Coffee has helped thousands of farmers earn a decent living send their children to school and escape a spiral of debt and dependence Africa has received over 1 trillion in aid over the last fifty years and yet despite these huge inflows the continent remains mired in poverty disease and systemic corruption In A Good African Story as Andrew Rugasira recounts the very personal story of his company and the challenges that he has faced and overcome as an African entrepreneur he provides a tantalising glimpse of what Africa could be and argues that trade has achieved what years of aid have failed to deliver This is a book about Africa taking its destiny in its own hands and dictating the terms of its future Disposable Cities Garth Andrew Myers, 2017-03-02 Based on in depth fieldwork in three cities Dar es Salaam Zanzibar and Lusaka this book provides a critical analysis of the United Nations Sustainable Cities Program in Africa SCP Focusing on the SCP's policies for solid waste management which was identified as the top priority problem by the SCP the book examines the success of these pilot schemes and the SCP's record in building new relationships between people and government It argues that the SCP has operated in a political vacuum without recognition of the long and problematic histories and cultural politics of urban environmental governance in Eastern and Southern Africa This book brings these cultural and political histories to the fore in its examination of the contemporary dynamics In doing so it not only provides an insightful analysis of the policies and outcomes for the SCP but also puts forward a historically grounded critique of neoliberalism good governance and sustainable development discourses Building a Peaceful Nation Paul Bjerk, 2015 A compelling account of the establishment of Tanzania's stable and ambitious government in the face of external threats and internal turmoil Rethinking Conflict Resolution and Management I. W. Zartman, Siniša Vuković, 2023-02-14 Rethinking and revising the established knowledge and practice of conflict resolution and management this innovative book brings together complementary perspectives to consider what novel approaches to conflict need to be invented after the collapse of the World Order The Black Power Movement Peniel E. Joseph, 2013-08-21 The Black Power Movement remains an enigma Often misunderstood and ill defined this radical movement is now beginning to receive sustained and serious scholarly attention Peniel Joseph has collected the freshest and most impressive list of contributors around to write original essays on the Black Power Movement Taken together they provide a critical and much needed historical overview of the Black Power era Offering important examples of undocumented histories of black liberation this volume offers both powerful and poignant examples of Black Power Studies scholarship
