Sculptural Materiality in the Age of Conceptualism MarinR. Sullivan,2017-07-05

Sculptural Materiality in the Age of Conceptualism is structured around four distinct but interrelated projects initially realized in Italy between 1966 and 1972 Yayoi Kusama s Narcissus Garden Michelangelo Pistoletto s Newspaper Sphere Sfera di giornali Robert Smithson s Asphalt Rundown and Joseph Beuys s Arena These works all utilized non traditional materials collaborative patronage models and alternative modes of display to create a spatially and temporally dispersed arena of matter and action with photography serving as a connective material thread within the sculpture it reflects While created by major artists of the postwar period these particular projects have yet to receive substantive art historical analysis especially from a sculptural perspective Here they anchor a transnational narrative in which sculpture emerged as a node a center of transaction comprising multiple material phenomenon including objects images and actors When seen as entangled polymorphous entities these works suggest that the charge of sculpture in the late postwar period came from its concurrent existence as both three dimensional phenomena and photographic image in the interchanges among the materials that continue to activate and alter the constitution of sculpture within the contemporary sphere

Kennedy,Trista Mallory,Angelique Szymanek,2021-04-28 Transnational Perspectives on Feminism and Art 1960 1985 is a collection of essential essays that bring transnational feminist praxis into conversation with histories of feminist art in the 1960s 1970s and early 1980s The artistic practices and processes examined within these pages all centre on gender and sexual politics as they variously intersect with race class sovereignty Indigeneity citizenship and migration at particular historical moments and within specific geopolitical contexts The book s central premise is that reconsidering this period from transnational feminist perspectives will enable new thinking about the critical commonalities and differences across heterogeneous and geographically dispersed practices that have contributed to the complex and multifaceted relationship between feminism and art today The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history cultural studies visual culture material culture and gender studies

After Modernist Painting Craig Staff,2013-03-14 Painting has often been declared dead since the 1960s and yet it refuses to die Even the status and continued legitimacy of the medium has been repeatedly placed in question As such painting has had to continually redefine its own parameters and re negotiate for itself a critical position within a broader more discursive set of discourses Taking the American Clement Greenberg s Modernist Painting as a point of departure After Modernist Painting will be both a historical survey and a critical re evaluation of the contested and contingent nature of the medium of painting over the last 50 years Presenting the first critical account of painting rather than art generally this book provides a timely exploration of what has remained a persistent and protean medium Craig Staff focuses on certain developments including the relationship of painting to Conceptual Art and Minimalism the pronouncement of paintings alleged death its response to Installation Art s foregrounding of site how it was able to interpret ideas around appropriation simulation and hybridity and how today painting can be understood as both imaging and imagining the digital After Modernist Painting is an invaluable resource for those seeking to understand the themes and issues that have pertained to painting within the context of postmodernism and contemporary artistic practice
