Rhetoric Of Racism:

The Rhetoric of Racism Revisited Mark Lawrence McPhail, 2002 Looks at the rhetorical dynamics of racism how in addition to social and material structures and institutions language can be a cause and facilitator of racism Thoroughly discusses essentialism and racial difference theories of complicity and coherence and the theory of racism as a problem of psychiatry back cover The Rhetoric of Racism Mark Lawrence McPhail, 1994 This book explores the pragmatic theoretical and philosophical issues that emerge in contemporary considerations of rhetoric and race relations It examines the epistemological assumptions at work in our understanding of and participation in the language of oppression Contents In the Shadow of the Word From Socrates to South Africa Language and Oppression Racism in Black and White Race as Symbolic Reality From Complicity to Coherence References Index

The Rhetoric of Racist Humour Simon Weaver, 2016-02-24 In today's multicultural and multireligious societies humour and comedy often become the focus of controversy over alleged racist or offensive content as shown for instance by the intense debate of Sacha Baron Cohen's characters Ali G and Borat and the Prophet Muhammad cartoons published in the Danish newspaper Jyllands Posten Despite these intense debates commentary on humour in the academy lacks a clear way of connecting the serious and the humorous and a clear way of accounting for the serious impact of comic language The absence of a developed serious vocabulary with which to judge the humorous tends to encourage polarized debates which fail to account for the paradoxes of humour This book draws on the social theory of Zygmunt Baumann to examine the linguistic structure of humour arguing that as a form of language similar to metaphor it is both unstable and unpredictable and structurally prone to act rhetorically that is to be convincing Deconstructing the dominant form of racism aimed at black people in the US and that aimed at Asians in the UK The Rhetoric of Racist Humour shows how racist humour expresses and supports racial stereotypes in the US and UK while also exploring the forms of resistance presented by the humour of Black and Asian comedians to such stereotypes An engaging exploration of modern late modern and fluid or postmodern forms of humour this book will be of interest to sociologists and scholars of cultural and media studies as well as those working in the fields of race and ethnicity humour and cultural theory

Critical Rhetorics of Race Michael G. Lacy, Kent A. Ono, 2011 In this collection scholars seek to examine the complicated and contradictory terrain of the rhetorics of race while moving the field of communication in a more intellectually productive direction Race and Reconciliation John B. Hatch, 2009-12-01 Hatch develops a robust rhetorical theory of reconciliation and applies it to contemporary national and global efforts to redress the racialized wounds and injustices created by slavery What emerges from this work is a profound vision for the prospects of meaningful reparation forgiveness and reconciliation in American race relations Race, Rhetoric, and Technology Adam J. Banks, 2006-08-15 This book examines the Digital Divide in light of America's larger racial divide in an attempt to figure out what meaningful access for African American to technologies and the larger American society can or should mean Racism Ellis

Cashmore, Ernest Cashmore, James Jennings, 2001 Chronological anthology of 38 essays that demonstrate the long and complex intellectual history of racism as an idea and show how powerful groups have utilized racism to advance social economic or cultural interests

Critical Rhetorics of Race Kent A. Ono, 2011-07-11 According to many pundits and cultural commentators the U S is enjoying a post racial age thanks in part to Barack Obama s rise to the presidency This high gloss of optimism fails however to recognize that racism remains ever present and alive spread by channels of media and circulated even in colloquial speech in ways that can be difficult to analyze In this groundbreaking collection edited by Michael G Lacy and Kent A Ono scholars seek to examine this complicated and contradictory terrain while moving the field of communication in a more intellectually productive direction An outstanding group of contributors from a range of academic backgrounds challenges traditional definitions and applications of rhetoric From the troubling media representations of black looters after Hurricane Katrina and rhetoric in news coverage about the Columbine and Virginia Tech massacres to cinematic representations of race in Crash Blood Diamond and Quentin Tarantino s films these essays reveal complex intersections and constructions of racialized bodies and discourses critiquing race in innovative and exciting ways Critical Rhetorics of Race seeks not only to understand and navigate a world fraught with racism but to change it one word at a time

A Rhetoric of Symbolic Identity Gerald A. Powell Jr.,2004-05-19 This study explores African American identity through film drawing from Spike Lee s cinematic production of X 1992 and Bamboozled 2000 The study brings attention to how African American identity is negotiated in communicative interactions In doing so the study proposes an alternative rhetorical and cultural approach to the nuances of African American identity Using contemporary theories from Ronald Jackson Mark McPhail Cornel West W E B Du Bois and Eric Watts the researcher explores the dynamics of human interaction the manifestations of power perception essentialist thinking and how these in turn penetrate through language in our understanding of others This study makes critical arguments concerning the strategic positioning of language for purposes of understanding culture and difference More importantly it rearticulates black identity making an argument for its complexities which are other than historical and factual It argues that black identity needs to be examined in terms of a more critical and culturally appropriate rhetoric

Rhetorical Crossover Cedric Burrows,2020-10-27 In music crossover means that a song has moved beyond its original genre and audience into the general social consciousness Rhetorical Crossover uses the same concept to theorize how the black rhetorical presence has moved in mainstream spaces in an era where African Americans were becoming more visible in white culture Cedric Burrows argues that when black rhetoric moves into the dominant culture white audiences appear welcoming to African Americans as long as they present an acceptable form of blackness for white tastes The predominant culture has always constructed coded narratives on how the black rhetorical presence should appear and behave when in majority spaces In response African Americans developed their own narratives that revise and reinvent mainstream narratives while also reaffirming their humanity Using an interdisciplinary model built from music education film and social movement studies Rhetorical Crossover details the dueling narratives about African Americans that percolate throughout the United States

Getting Real About Race Stephanie M. McClure,Cherise A. Harris,2017-08-24 Getting Real About Race is an edited collection of short essays that address the most common stereotypes and misconceptions about race held by students and by many in the United States in general

Rhetorics of Names and Naming Star Medzerian Vanguri,2016-01-29 This volume takes up rhetorical approaches to our primarily linguistic understanding of how names work considering how theories of materiality in rhetoric enrich conceptions of the name as word or symbol and help explain the processes of name bestowal accumulation loss and theft Contributors theorize the formation modification and recontextualization of names as a result of technological and cultural change and consider the ways in which naming influences identity and affects grants power

A Critique of Anti-racism in Rhetoric and Composition Erec Smith, 2019-12-12 A Critique of Anti racism in Rhetoric and Composition The Semblance of Empowerment critiques current antiracist ideology in rhetoric and composition arguing that it inadvertently promotes a deficit model of empowerment for both students and scholars Erec Smith claims that empowerment theory which promotes individual communal and strategic efficacy is missing from most antiracist initiatives which instead often abide by what Smith refers to as a primacy of identity an over reliance on identity particularly a victimized identity to establish ethos Scholars of rhetoric composition communication and critical race theory will find this book particularly useful

The Power of Race in Cuba Danielle Pilar Cleland, 2017 In The Power of Race in Cuba Danielle Pilar Cleland analyzes racial ideologies that negate the existence of racism and their effect on racial progress and activism through the lens of Cuba Since 1959 Fidel Castro and the Cuban government have married socialism and the ideal of racial harmony to create a formidable ideology that is an integral part of Cubans sense of identity and their perceptions of race and racism in their country While the combination of socialism and a colorblind racial ideology is particular to Cuba strategies that paint a picture of equality of opportunity and deflect the importance of race are not particular to the island s ideology and can be found throughout the world and in the Americas in particular By promoting an anti discrimination ethos diminishing class differences at the onset of the revolution and declaring the end of racism Castro was able to unite belief in the revolution to belief in the erasure of racism The ideology is bolstered by rhetoric that discourages racial affirmation The second part of the book examines public opinion on race in Cuba particularly among black Cubans It examines how black Cubans have indeed embraced the dominant nationalist ideology that eschews racial affirmation but also continue to create spaces for black consciousness that challenge this ideology The Power of Race in Cuba gives a nuanced portrait of black identity in Cuba and through survey data interviews with formal organizers hip hop artists draws from the many black spaces both formal and informal to highlight what black consciousness looks like in Cuba
