Rhetoric In Sociology 1st Edition:

Rhetoric, Media, and the Narratives of US Foreign Policy Adam Lusk, 2021-12-30 Rhetoric Media and the Narratives of US Foreign Policy Making Enemies studies the process of communicating threats to the US public and explores when and why the American public believes another country or regime is a threat Through a comparative and historical study the author focuses on how the media environment enables and constrains rhetorical strategies deployed to construct reproduce and change narratives about a threat Recent literature on threat inflation securitization and critical security studies returned to the concept of threat Building on this renewed conceptual attention this book examines why and how policy makers and other public figures in particular the President convince the public about a threat and will be of interest to students and academics in the disciplines of political science international relations foreign policy security studies and contemporary history

Sociological Readings and Re-readings (1996) Paul Atkinson, 2018-05-08 Published in 1996 this book comprises a number of essays by Paul Atkinson in which he reflects on processes of reading and writing in the social sciences Topics covered include ethnographers confessions an analysis of the style of Erving Goffman a reflection of his own experiences of re reading work and a discussion of the challenges of reading an alien discipline This book was originally published as part of the Cardiff Papers in Qualitative Research series edited by Paul Atkinson Sara Delamont and Amanda Coffey The series publishes original sociological research that reflects the tradition of qualitative and ethnographic inquiry developed at Cardiff The series includes monographs reporting on empirical research edited collections focussing on particular themes and texts discussing methodological developments and issues Rhetoric and Storytelling within the U.S. Asylum Process Mónica Reyes, 2024-09-20 This book explores the U S asylum process and how those seeking shelter deal with the rhetorical pressures of compelling asylum narratives they need to write in order to stay Centered around a study conducted at a shelter on the U S border this book moves beyond this context to demonstrate how liminal sites provide opportunities for displaced communities to employ distinct shared rhetorical practices of daily life like silence and routine that both safeguard vulnerabilities and enact agency for individuals within precarious spaces Placing people who seek asylum and those who work with them as rhetorical and socio cultural experts on this issue the study adds to the emerging importance of rhetoric within discussions of asylum and forced migration and demonstrates the significance of rhetorical ecology theory as part of a blended methodology in understanding people seeking asylum as a group in a perpetual and explicit state of ethos development Highlighting the need for support which is sensitive to the narrative struggles people seeking asylum face this book will have important findings for scholars and upper level students of cultural rhetorics feminist rhetoric migration studies political science and intercultural communication Attic Oratory and Performance Andreas Serafim, 2017-01-12 In a society where public speech was integral to the decision making process and where all affairs pertaining to the community were the subject of democratic debate the communication between the speaker and his audience in the public forum whether the law court or the Assembly cannot be separated from the notion of performance Attic Oratory and Performance seeks to make modern Performance Studies productive for and so make a significant contribution to the understanding of Greek oratory Although quite a lot of ink has been spilt over the performance dimension of oratory the focus of nearly all of the scholarship in this area has been relatively narrow understanding performance as only encompassing delivery the use of gestures and vocal ploys and the convergences and divergences between oratory and theatre Serafim seeks to move beyond this relatively narrow focus to offer a holistic perspective on performance and oratory Using examples from selected forensic speeches in particular four interconnected speeches by Aeschines 2 3 and Demosthenes 18 19 he argues that oratorical performance encompassed subtle communication between the speaker and the audience beyond mere delivery and that the surviving texts offer numerous glimpses of the performative dimension of these speeches and their links to contemporary theatre

Empowering Memory and Movement Elisabeth Schussler Fioenza, 2014-05-01 With Empowering Memory and Movement Elisabeth Schussler Fioenza completes a three volume look across her influential work and career In Transforming Vision 2011 she drew from decades of pioneering scholarship to offer the contours of a critical feminist hermeneutic The chapters in Changing Horizons 2013 sketched out a theory of liberation Now the consequences for a liberating praxis are elaborated in interviews and essays that chart Schussler Fioenza's own personal and professional history as these are intertwined with the history of the worldwide movement for emancipation and full equality Empowering Memory and Movement looks back but also looks around at challenges and potentialities on the global scene and looks ahead to an emancipatory future with a critical and wise engagement with scripture and the interpretive tradition always at the center

The Recovery of Rhetoric Richard H. Roberts, James M. M. Good, 1993

The Routledge Handbook of Digital Writing and Rhetoric Jonathan Alexander, Jacqueline Rhodes, 2018-04-27 This handbook brings together scholars from around the globe who here contribute to our understanding of how digital rhetoric is changing the landscape of writing Increasingly all of us must navigate networks of information compose not just with computers but an array of mobile devices increase our technological literacy and understand the changing dynamics of authoring writing reading and publishing in a world of rich and complex texts Given such changes and given the diverse ways in which younger generations of college students are writing communicating and designing texts in multimediated electronic environments we need to consider how the very act of writing itself is undergoing potentially fundamental changes These changes are being addressed increasingly by the emerging field of digital rhetoric a field that attempts to understand the rhetorical possibilities and affordances of writing broadly defined in a wide array of digital environments Of interest to both researchers and students this volume provides insights about the fields of rhetoric writing composition digital media literature and multimodal studies

Legal and Rhetorical Foundations of Economic Globalization Keren Wang, 2019-06-13 This book examines the subtle ways in which rhetorics of sacrifice have been re appropriated into the workings of the global political economy in the 21st century It presents an in depth analysis of the ways in which ritual practices are deployed under a diverse set of political and legal contexts as legitimation devices in rendering exploitative structures of the prevailing political economic system to appear inescapable or even palatable To this end this work explores the deeper rhetorical and legal basis of late capitalist governmentality by critically interrogating its mythical and ritual dimensions The analysis gives due consideration to the contemporary incarnations of ritual sacrifice in the transnational neoliberal discourse from those exploitative yet inescapable contractual obligations to calendrical multi billion dollar offerings to the insatiable needs of too big to fail corporations The first part of the book provides a working interpretative framework for understanding the politics of ritual sacrifice one that not only accommodates multidisciplinary interdisciplinary knowledge of ritual practices but that can also be employed in the integrated analysis of sacrificial rituals as political rhetoric under divergent historical and societal contexts The second conducts a series of case studies that cut across the wide variability of ritual public takings in late capitalism The book concludes by highlighting several key common doctrines of public ritual sacrifice which have been broadly observed in its case studies These common doctrines tend to reflect the rhetorical and legal foundations for public takings under hegemonic market driven governance They define appropriate and proper occasions for suspending pre existing legal protections to regularize otherwise transgressive transfers of rights and possessions for the greater good of the economic order

The Sensory Modes of Animal Rhetorics Alex C. Parrish, 2021-07-14 The Sensory Modes of Animal Rhetorics A Hoot in the Light presents the latest research in animal perception and cognition in the context of rhetorical theory Alex C Parrish explores the science of animal signaling that shows human and nonhuman animals share similar rhetorical strategies such as communicating to manipulate or persuade which suggests the vast impact sensory modalities have on communication in nature The book demonstrates new ways of seeing humans and how we have separated ourselves from and subjectified the animal rhetor This type of cross species study allows us to trace the origins of our own persuasive behaviors providing a deeper and more inclusive history of rhetoric than ever before Rhetoric on the Margins of Modernity C. L. Hobbs, 2002

The Routledge Handbook of Queer Rhetoric Jacqueline Rhodes, Jonathan Alexander, 2022-04-25 The Routledge Handbook of Queer Rhetoric maps the ongoing becoming of queer rhetoric in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries offering a dynamic overview of the history of and scholarly research in this field The handbook features rhetorical scholarship that explicitly uses and extends insights from work in queer and trans theories to understand and critique intersections of rhetoric gender class and sexuality More important chapters also attend to the intersections of constructs of queerness with race class ability and neurodiversity In so doing the book acknowledges the many debts contemporary queer theory has to work by scholars of color feminists and activists inside and outside the academy The first book of its kind the handbook traces and documents the emergence of this subfield within rhetorical studies while also pointing the way toward new lines of inquiry new trajectories in scholarship and new modalities and methods of analysis critique intervention and speculation This handbook is an invaluable resource for scholars graduate students and advanced undergraduate students studying rhetoric communication cultural studies and queer studies

Decolonisation of Materialities or Materialisation of (Re-)Colonisation Artwell Nhemachena, Jairo Kangira, 2017-11-28

Contemporary scholarly discourses about decolonising materialities are taking two noticeable trajectories the first trajectory privileges establishing connections relationships and associations between human beings and nature The second trajectory privileges restoration restitution reparations for colonial dispossessions lootings and disinheritance While the first trajectory presupposes that colonialism was merely about separation alienation and disconnections between human beings and nature the second trajectory stresses the colonialists dispossession disinheritance and privations of Africans Drawing on contemporary discourses about materialities in relation to semiotics non representationalism rhetoric ecocriticism territorialisation deterritorialisation and reterritorialisation translation animism science and technology studies this book teases out the intellectually rutted terrain of African materialities It argues that in a world of increasing impoverishment the significance of materialities cannot be overemphasised more so for the continent of Africa where impoverishment materialises in the midst of resource opulence The book is a pacesetter in no holds barred interrogation of African materialities

Soccer's Neoliberal Pitch John M. Sloop, 2023-05-23

American sports agnostics might raise an eyebrow at the idea that soccer represents a staging ground for progressive cultural social and political possibility within the United States It is just another game after all in a society where mass audience spectator sport largely avoids any political stance in other than a generic corporate friendly patriotism But John Sloop picks up on the work of Laurent Dubois and others to see in American soccer a sport that has achieved immense participation and popularity even as it struggles to establish major league status a game that permits surprisingly diverse modes of thinking about national identity because of its marginality As a rhetorician who engages with both critical theory and culture John Sloop seeks to read soccer as the game intersects with gender race sexuality class and the logic of neoliberal values The result of this engagement is a sense of both enormous possibility and real constraint If American soccer offers more possibility because of its marginality looking at how these cultural social and political possibilities are closed off or constrained can provide valuable insights into American culture and values In Soccer's Neoliberal Pitch Sloop analyzes a host of soccer adjacent case studies the equal pay dispute between the US women's national team and the US Soccer Federation the significance of hooligan literature the introduction of English soccer to American TV audiences the strange invisibility of the Mexican soccer league despite its consistent high TV ratings and the reading of US national teams as underdogs despite the nation's quasi imperial dominance of the Western hemisphere While there is a growing bookshelf of titles on soccer and a growing number on American soccer Soccer's Neoliberal Pitch is the first and only book length analysis of soccer through a rhetorical lens This book is a model for critical cultural work with sports with appeal to not only sports studies but cultural studies communication and even gender studies classrooms It is independent of its bona fides an engaging and enjoyable read for the soccer fan and the soccer curious Debasing Political Rhetoric Ofer Feldman, 2023-04-26 This book is a companion to Political Debasement Incivility Contempt and Humiliation in Parliamentary and Public Discourse It brings together interdisciplinary contributions to provide a comprehensive and detailed exploration of the nature function and effect of debasement language used by selected political leaders in Western and non Western countries Among them are Donald Trump in the USA Recep Tayyip Erdo an Turkey Rodrigo Roa Duterte Philippines Jair Bolsonaro Brazil Abe Shinz Japan Pauline Hanson Australia Kyriakos Mitsotakis Greece Geert Wilders the Netherlands Beppe Grillo Italy and Santiago Abascal Spain Chapters focus specifically on the language of these leaders while examining debasement discourse from narrow and broad perspectives The former includes the use of crude or abusive language e g curses obscenity and swearing to demean humiliate mock insult or belittle based on the actual or perceived object or entity e g race religion national gender identity or sexual orientation the latter includes the use of devious or indirect irony sarcasm cynicism ridicule subtlety and understatement to degrade and discredit other individuals or groups The book represents the collective wisdom of scholars and researchers experts in fields such as communication political science international relations and social and political psychology Cumulatively the authors develop a global analysis of debasement discourse in societies from West to East and offer a cutting edge approach to expand a framework assessing the role and effect of such rhetoric in contemporary politics Ethos, Technology, and AI in Contemporary Society Aaron Hess, Jens E. Kjeldsen, 2024-12-10 Bringing together expert rhetorical theorists and technologists this book explores our current understanding of and attitudes toward ethos credibility and trust in today s changing technological landscape Recent advancements in technology including the development of digital technologies the growth of algorithmic machine learning and artificial intelligence and the circulation of disinformation in social media necessitate a reevaluation of ethos To explore the rhetorical concept of ethos which is the perceived character of a speaker contributors theorize how ethos is enabled constrained and constituted through new communication technologies In this edited collection chapters address key philosophical questions concerning the rhetorical capacities of modern communicating machines such as ChatGPT Midjourney or other digital platforms Through case studies new theorizing and critical inquiry contributors contemplate the changing relationship between humans and technology in rhetoric and ethos revealing contemporary tensions and insecurities regarding issues including authenticity and authorship This book will be of interest to students and scholars in the fields of Rhetoric Communication Studies Technology Studies Digital Humanities and Cultural Studies Social Stratification, Class, Race, and Gender in Sociological Perspective, Second Edition David Grusky, 2019-09-05 The volume offers essential reading for undergraduates who need an introduction to the field for graduate students who wish to broaden their understanding of stratification research and for advanced scholars who seek a basic reference guide Although most of the selections are middle range theoretical pieces suitable for introductory courses the anthology also includes advanced contributions on the cutting edge of research The editor outlines a modified study plan for undergraduate students requiring a basic introduction to the field

Argumentation Theory: A Pragma-Dialectical Perspective Frans H. van Eemeren, 2018-07-27 The book offers a compact but comprehensive introductory overview of the crucial components of argumentation theory In presenting this overview argumentation is consistently approached from a pragma dialectical perspective by viewing it pragmatically as a goal directed communicative activity and dialectically as part of a regulated critical exchange aimed at resolving a difference of opinion As a result the book also systematically explains how the constitutive parts of the pragma dialectical theory of argumentation which are discussed in a number of separate publications hang together The following crucial topics are discussed 1 argumentation theory as a discipline 2 the meta theoretical principles of pragma dialectics 3 the model of a critical discussion aimed at resolving a difference of opinion 4 fallacies as violations of a code of conduct for reasonable argumentative discourse 5 descriptive research of argumentative reality 6 analysis as theoretically motivated reconstruction 7 strategic manoeuvring aimed at combining achieving effectiveness with maintaining reasonableness 8 the conventionalization of argumentative practices 9 prototypical argumentative patterns 10 pragma dialectics amidst other approaches Argumentation Theory A Pragma Dialectical Perspective is clearly written and makes argumentation theory understandable to all scholars and advanced students interested in argumentation research

Encyclopedia of Educational Theory and Philosophy D. C. Phillips, 2014-06-06 The two volume Encyclopedia of Educational Theory and Philosophy introduces readers to theories that have stood the test of time and those that have provided the historical foundation for the best of contemporary educational theory and practice Drawing together a team of international scholars this invaluable reference examines the global landscape of all the key theories and the theorists behind them and presents them in the context needed to understand their strengths and weaknesses

Critically Constituting Organization Andrew Chan, 2001-01-16 In the past contingency and neo Marxist theorists of culture reduced culture to an effect of something other than itself and as they made culture metaphorical they constituted its object of inquiry a somewhat impossible pretension This book extends the debate considerably It does so through considering the work of Foucault in the context of the analysis of culture While Foucault has had a considerable impact on organization studies up to the present no text has systematically addressed what happens to organization culture when it encounter a Foucauldian gaze Read this book and you will find out Stewart Clegg UTS Sydney

The Soul of a Nation Christopher R. Altieri, 2015-11-04 In The Soul of a Nation America as a Tradition of Inquiry and Nationhood Chris Altieri contends that the forma mentis of the founders of the political society often viewed by its members and by those external to it as the non plus ultra of modernity i e the United States of America is really steeped in the more ancient tradition of thinking that began in Athens and continued through the Christian centuries Engaging the twentieth century philosophers Eric Voegelin Alasdair MacIntyre and Stanley Cavell in critical conversation with the founding fathers the author shows that a broad conversation regarding the constitution of society is constitutively present in the public discourse of the people that began to recognize itself during the imperial crisis of the late eighteenth century British America that the participants in that conversation have at least an inchoate awareness of society as at once cosmic and anthropological and that that political society is therefore an apt field of study in and for the general science of order
