Rhetorical Models for Effective Writing, 1978 Rhetorical Models for Effective Writing Karl J. Nicholas, James R. Nicholl, 1981 Rhetorical Models for Effective Writing J. Karl Nicholas, James R. Nicholl, 1985-01-01 Instructor's Manual James Karl Nicholas, 1981 The SAGE Handbook of Writing Development Roger Beard, Debra Myhill, Jeni Riley, Martin Nystrand, 2009-07-09 Writing development is currently the focus of substantial international debate because it is the aspect of literacy education that has been least responsive to central government and state reforms Teaching approaches in writing have been slower to change than those in teaching reading and pupil attainment in writing has increased at a much more modest rate than pupil attainment in reading This handbook critically examines research and theoretical issues that impact on writing development from the early years through to adulthood It provides those researching or teaching literacy with one of the most academically authoritative and comprehensive works in the field With expert contributors from across the world the book represents a detailed and valuable overview of a complex area of study Composition and Rhetoric Based on Literary Models Rose Mary, Kavana, Arthur Beatty, 1902 African American Rhetoric(s) Elaine B Richardson, Ronald L Jackson, 2007-02-12 African American Rhetoric s Interdisciplinary Perspectives is an introduction to fundamental concepts and a systematic integration of historical and contemporary lines of inquiry in the study of African American rhetorics Edited by Elaine B Richardson and Ronald L Jackson II the volume explores culturally and discursively developed forms of knowledge communicative practices and persuasive strategies rooted in freedom struggles by people of African ancestry in America Outlining African American rhetorics found in literature historical documents and popular culture the collection provides scholars students and teachers with innovative approaches for discussing the epistemologies and realities that foster the inclusion of rhetorical discourse in African American studies In addition to analyzing African American rhetoric the fourteen contributors project visions for pedagogy in the field and address new areas and renewed avenues of research The result is an exploration of what parameters can be used to begin a more thorough and useful consideration of African Americans in rhetorical space Transnational Writing Program Administration David S. Martins, 2015-03-15 While local conditions remain at the forefront of writing program administration transnational activities are slowly and thoroughly shifting the questions we ask about writing curricula the space and place in which writing happens and the cultural and linguistic issues at the heart of the relationships forged in literacy work Transnational Writing Program Administration challenges taken for granted assumptions regarding program identity curriculum and pedagogical effectiveness logistics and quality assurance faculty and student demographics innovative partnerships and research and the infrastructure needed to support writing instruction in higher education Well known scholars and new voices in the field extend the theoretical underpinnings of writing program administration to consider programs activities and institutions involving students and faculty from two or more countries working together and highlight the situated practices of such efforts The collection brings translingual graduate students at the forefront of writing studies together with established administrators teachers and researchers and intends to enrich the efforts of WPAs by examining the practices and theories that impact our ability to conceive of writing program administration as transnational This collection will enable writing program administrators to take the emerging locations of writing instruction seriously to address the role of language difference in writing and to engage critically with the key notions and approaches to writing program administration that reveal its transnationality

PRE/TEXT Victor J. Vitanza, 2010-11-23 After the first issue of PRE TEXT appeared in 1981 a colleague told Victor Vitanza the creator editor and publisher of the journal how disgusted she was by it how unreadable it was how devoted to self aggrandizement and how much she enjoyed two articles in it Devoted to exploring and expanding the field of rhetoric and composition by publishing articles considered inappropriate by other journals in the field PRE TEXT has from its inception made people angry Yet it has survived and thrived This collection of essays pays tribute to the first ten years of the journal and each reprinted article is paired with a short comment by the author Also included is Victor Vitanza's retrospective history of the journal and prospectives for the future

The Rhetoric of Cool Jeff Rice, 2007-05-11 The Rhetoric of Cool Composition Studies and New Media offers a historical critique of composition studies rebirth narrative using that critique to propose a new rhetoric for new media work Author Jeff Rice returns to critical moments during the rebirth of composition studies when the discipline chose not to emphasize technology cultural studies and visual writing which are now fundamental to composition studies Rice redefines these moments in order to invent a new electronic practice The Rhetoric of Cool addresses the disciplinary claim that composition studies underwent a rebirth in 1963 At that time three writers reviewed technology cultural studies and visual writing outside composition studies and independently used the word cool to describe each position Starting from these three positions Rice focuses on chora appropriation commutation juxtaposition nonlinearity and imagery rhetorical gestures conducive to new media work to construct the rhetoric of cool An innovative work that approaches computers and writing issues from historical critical theoretical and practical perspectives The Rhetoric of Cool challenges current understandings of writing and new media and proposes a rhetorical rather than an instrumental response for teaching writing in new media contexts

Richards, 1990 For use in courses on language teaching methodology and teacher preparation this book also serves as an invaluable source for courses in language curriculum development materials development and teaching practice The author views effective language teaching as a network of interactions involving the curriculum methodology the teacher the learner and instructional materials hence the metaphor of a matrix Each chapter discusses and examines the theoretical and practical dimensions of a central issue in language teaching Among the topics covered are curriculum development designing instructional materials teaching listening speaking reading and writing the nature of effective teaching self monitoring in teacher development and language and content Richards presents key issues in an accessible and highly readable style and shows how teachers and teachers in training can be involved in the investigation of classroom teaching and learning The emphasis is not on prescriptions but rather on developing effective teaching through understanding the various factors that interact in second language learning and in the second language classroom

Securing a Place for Reading in Composition Ellen C. Carillo, 2015-01-15 Securing a Place for Reading in Composition addresses the dissonance between the need to prepare students to read not just write complex texts and the lack of recent scholarship on reading writing connections Author Ellen C Carillo argues that including attention to reading practices is crucial for developing more comprehensive literacy pedagogies Students who can read actively and reflectively will be able to work successfully with the range of complex texts they will encounter throughout their post secondary academic careers and beyond Considering the role of reading within composition from both historical and contemporary perspectives Carillo makes recommendations for the productive integration of reading instruction into first year writing courses She details a mindful reading framework wherein instructors help students cultivate a repertoire of approaches upon which they consistently reflect as they apply them to various texts This metacognitive frame allows students to become knowledgeable and deliberate about how they read and gives them the opportunity to develop the skills useful for moving among reading approaches in mindful ways thus preparing them to actively and productively read in courses and contexts outside first year composition Securing a Place for Reading in Composition also explores how the field of composition might begin to effectively address reading including conducting research on reading revising outcome statements and revisiting the core courses in graduate programs It will be of great interest to writing program administrators and other compositionists and their graduate students
