Rhetorics Of Self Making:

Rhetorics of Self-Making Debbora Battaglia,2023-09-01 Departing from an essentialist concept of the self this highly original volume advances the cross cultural study of selfhood with three contributions to the literature First it approaches the self as an ideological process arguing that selfhood is culturally situated and emergent in social practices of persuasion Second it demonstrates how postmodernity problematizes the experience and concept of the self Finally the book challenges the pervasive practice of equating an individuated self with the Western world and a relational self with the non Western world Contributions cover a broad range of topics from the development of the eccentric self to the ritual circumcision of Jewish males Departing from an essentialist concept of the self this highly original volume advances the cross cultural study of selfhood with three contributions to the literature First it approaches the self as an ideological process arguing that selfhood is cul

Rhetorics of Self-Making Debbora Battaglia,1995-02-03 An exceptionally stimulating work Likely to become a classic Donald Brenneis Pitzer College

American Indian Rhetorics of Survivance Ernest L. Stromberg,2006-07-30 American Indian Rhetorics of Survivance presents an original critical and theoretical analysis of American Indian rhetorical practices in both canonical and previously overlooked texts autobiographies memoirs prophecies and oral storytelling traditions Ernest Stromberg assembles essays from a range of academic disciplines that investigate the rhetorical strategies of Native American orators writers activists leaders and intellectuals The contributors consider rhetoric in broad terms ranging from Aristotle s definition of rhetoric as the faculty of discovering in the particular case what are the available means of persuasion to the ways in which Native Americans assimilated and revised Western rhetorical concepts and language to form their own discourse with European and American colonists They relate the power and use of rhetoric in treaty negotiations written accounts of historic conflicts and events and ongoing relations between American Indian governments and the United States This is a groundbreaking collection for readers interested in Native American issues and the study of language In presenting an examination of past and present Native American rhetoric it emphasizes the need for an improved understanding of multicultural perspectives

Sourcebook on Rhetoric James Jasinski,2001-07-19 This book is designed to introduce readers to the language of contemporary rhetorical studies The book format is an alphabetized glossary with appropriate cross listings of key terms and concepts in contemporary rhetorical studies An introductory chapter outlines the definitional ambiguities of the central concept of rhetoric itself The primary emphasis is on the contemporary tradition of rhetorical studies as it has emerged in the discipline of speech communication Each entry in the glossary ranges in length from a few paragraphs to a short essay of a few pages Where appropriate examples are provided to further illustrate the term or concept Each entry will be accompanied by a list of references and additional readings to direct the reader to other materials of possible interest

Unorthodox Kin Naomi Leite,2017-02-28 Unorthodox Kin is a groundbreaking exploration of identity relatedness and belonging in a global era Naomi Leite paints an intimate portrait of

Portugal's urban Marranos who trace their ancestry to fifteenth century Jews forcibly converted to Catholicism as they seek to rejoin the Jewish people Focusing on mutual imaginings and direct encounters between Marranos Portuguese Jews and foreign Jewish tourists and outreach workers Leite tracks how visions of self and kin evolve over time and across social spaces ending in a surprising path to belonging A poignant evocation of how ideas of ancestry shape the present how feelings of kinship arise among far flung strangers and how some find mystical connection in a world said to be disenchanted this is a model study for anthropology today Crafting 'The Indian' Petra Tjitske Kalshoven,2012-04-01 In Europe Indian hobbyism or Indianism has developed out of a strong fascination with Native American life in the 18th and 19th centuries Indian hobbyists dress in homemade replicas of clothing craft museum quality replicas of artifacts meet in fields dotted with tepees and reenact aspects of North American Indian lifeworlds using ethnographies travel diaries and museum collections as resources Grounded in fieldwork set among networks of Indian hobbyists in Germany the Netherlands Belgium France and the Czech Republic this ethnography analyzes this contemporary practice of serious leisure with respect to the general human desire for play metaphor and allusion It provides insights into the increasing popularity of reenactment practices as they relate to a deeper understanding of human perception imagination and creativity Between Femininities Marnina Gonick,2012-02-01 Arguing for a recognition of the contradictory and ambivalent identifications that both attract and repel those who live the social category girl Marnina Gonick analyzes the discourses and practices defining female sexuality embodiment relationship to self and other material culture use of social space and cultural political agency and power Based on a school community project involving collaborative production of a video which tells the stories of several fictional girl characters Gonick examines the contradictory and textured structure of the discourses available to girls through which their identities are negotiated Woven throughout the book is the integral concern with the way in which ethnographic writing as a discursive practice is also implicated in the production and signification of social identities for girls Internal Rhetorics: Toward a History and Theory of Self-persuasion Jean Nienkamp,2001 Ragged Dicks James V. Catano,2001 Corporate magnates of the late 20th century as exemplified by Lee Iacocca and industrial barons on the Gilded Age such as Andrew Carnegie comprise the brotherhood Catano English Louisiana State U calls Ragged Dicks He examines their own accounts of themselves to reveal how the rich take personal credit for their success c Book News Inc Nineteenth-Century American Activist Rhetorics Patricia Bizzell,Lisa Zimmerelli,2020-12-15 Essays cover nineteenth century American activists rhetorics and their echoes in contemporary American activism using a variety of theoretical lenses such as classical rhetorical tropes feminism gender and race In addition to texts such as letters sermons and speeches a variety of rhetorical contexts such as monuments strikes protests and theater are considered Divided in Unity Andreas Glaeser,2000-02 In Divided in Unity Andreas Glaeser examines why east and west Germans continue to feel deeply divided and develops an analytical theory of identity formation which offers a middle ground between modernist theories of a unitary self and postmodernist theories of a fragmented self BOOK JACKET The Promise Keepers Dane S. Claussen, 2000 Now nearly 15 years old during which time it exploded in size then declined and has now plateaued the Promise Keepers and its policies have invited reactions ranging from celebration to suspicion Many see the Christian men's organization as a powerful tool to encourage and equip Christian men to face a morally complex future Others view the group as sexist or even heretical This book was the first and in most ways still the only objective analysis of the Promise Keepers and the many reactions to it Contributors to this collection of critical essays hail from the fields of political science history sociology religion and theology journalism and mass communication speech English women's studies American studies and sports science The responses range from supportive to skeptical and cover topics that go beyond the Promise Keepers to issues of evangelical Christianity gender roles men's organizations mass media and social movements Rhetoric in British Politics and Society J. Atkins, A. Finlayson, J. Martin, N. Turnbull, 2014-08-05 Although the art of rhetoric is central to the practice of politics it also plays an important role in civic and private life Using Aristotelian notions of ethos pathos and logos this collection offers engaging discussions on everything from Prime Minister's Questions and Welsh devolution to political satire and the rhetoric of cultural racism Ancient Non-Greek Rhetorics Carol S. Lipson, Roberta A. Binkley, 2009-04-03 Ancient Non-Greek Rhetorics contributes to the recovery and understanding of ancient rhetorics in non-Western cultures and other cultures that developed independently of classical Greco-Roman models Contributors analyze facets of the rhetorics as embedded within the particular cultures of ancient China Egypt Mesopotamia the ancient Near East more generally Israel Japan India and ancient Ireland Women's Health Advocacy Jamie White-Farnham, Bryna Siegel Finer, Cathryn Molloy, 2019-07-17 Women's Health Advocacy brings together academic studies and personal narratives to demonstrate how women use a variety of arguments forms of writing and communication strategies to effect change in a health system that is not only often difficult to participate in but which can be actively harmful It explicates the concept of rhetorical ingenuity the creation of rhetorical means for specific and technical yet extremely personal situations At a time when women's health concerns are at the center of national debate this rhetorical ingenuity provides means for women to uncover latent sources of oppression in women's health and medicine and to influence matters of research funding policy and everyday access to healthcare in the face of exclusion and disenfranchisement This accessible collection will be inspiring reading for academics and students in health communication medical humanities and women's studies as well as for activists patients and professionals The Routledge Handbook of Comparative World Rhetorics Keith Lloyd, 2020-06-10 The Routledge Handbook of Comparative World Rhetorics offers a broad and comprehensive understanding of comparative or world rhetoric from ancient times to the modern day Bringing together an international team of established and emergent scholars this Handbook looks beyond Greco-Roman traditions in the study of rhetoric to provide an international cross-cultural study of communication practices around the globe With dedicated sections covering theory and practice history pedagogy hybrids and the modern context this extensive collection will provide the reader with a solid understanding of how comparative rhetoric evolved how it re defines and expands the field of rhetorical studies what it contributes to our understanding of human communication its implications for the advancement of related fields such as composition technology language studies and literacy In a world where understanding how people communicate argue and persuade is as important as understanding their languages The Routledge Handbook of Comparative World Rhetorics is an essential resource for scholars and students of communication composition rhetoric cultural studies cultural rhetoric cross cultural studies transnational studies translingual studies and languages

Rhetoric and Politics Maria Załęska, 2011-10-18 Paradoxically the term rhetoric functions nowadays both as a name of an antique even obsolete framework of research and as a fashionable buzzword that entails virtually any form of persuasive communication Reflecting a growing scholarly interest in political discourses this volume offers systematic theoretically grounded insights into the flow of persuasion that constitutes politics today Authors combine the interest in rhetoric within politics with different disciplinary orientations

The Rhetorical Emergence of Culture Christian Meyer, Felix Girke, 2011-05-01 Just as rhetoric is founded in culture culture is founded in rhetoric the first half of this central statement from the International Rhetoric Culture Project is abundantly evidenced It is the latter half that this volume explores how does culture emerge out of rhetorical action out of seemingly dispersed individual actions and interactions The contributors do not rely on rhetorical text alone but engage the situational bodily and often antagonistic character of cultural and communicative practices The social situation itself is argued to be the fundamental site of cultural creation as will driven social processes are shaped by cognitive dispositions and shape them in turn Drawing on expertise in a variety of disciplines and regions the contributors critically engage dialogical approaches in their emphasis on how a view from rhetoric changes our perception of people s intersubjective and conjoint creation of culture

Sexual Rhetorics Jonathan Alexander, Jacqueline Rhodes, 2015-10-16 Sexual rhetoric is the self conscious and critical engagement with discourses of sexuality that exposes both their naturalization and their queering their torquing to create different or counter discourses giving voice and agency to multiple and complex sexual experiences This volume explores the intersection of rhetoric and sexuality through the varieties of methods available in the fields of rhetoric and writing studies including case studies theoretical questioning ethnographies or close and distant readings of texts that help us think through the rhetorical force of sexuality and the sexual force of rhetoric

Rhetoric in the Time of Torture Laura A. Sparks, 2023-09-25 In Rhetoric in the Time of Torture Laura A Sparks investigates how rhetoric and interrogational torture are imbricated with one another troubling clear distinctions between persuasion and violence In light of the U S government s post 9 11 reliance on heavy interrogation techniques Sparks offers a renewed attention to the rhetorical and temporal dimensions of torture including the ways in which techniques utilized by military interrogators are intertwined with violent action The author introduces compelling temporal logics related to imminence surveillance and prisoners world times among others illuminating how temporal concerns figure in both justifications for and practices of torture. In addition, this book offers a range of case studies including select torture memos, photographs from Abu Ghraib Detention Center, and opportunities for digital human rights advocacy to demonstrate how recognizing torture's rhetorical and temporal dimensions is crucial to our understanding and critique of interrogational torture in the present day. Ultimately, Sparks invites readers to consider where rhetoric fits in a world where people torture others to make them speak. Scholars of communication, rhetoric, and political science will find this book of particular interest.
