Rhododendron Shedding Its Skin Diane Frank, 1988 Rhododendron Shedding Its Skin is full of shaman poems and Goddess mythology This book has sharper edges than her first collection but they open to a new level of vision The poet depends on touch rather than vision to see the real world often the eyes are used to look beyond reality Paperbound Books in Print ,1992      Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1989-09      Books in Print Supplement ,1988      Swan Light Diane Frank, 2013-02-01 Diane Frank presents in Swan Light a finely wrought choreography of poetry that intersects with the music of language and the spirit of dance These poems of love returning to love and light returning to light are a heart gone supernova Page by page Frank burns a path to her readers hearts The alignments are profound the connections electric from heart to bone from marrow to star These are radiant poems where we earthbound creatures may find simultaneous escape and renewal Diane Frank is an award winning poet and author of six books of poems including Swan Light Entering the Word Temple and The Winter Life of Shooting Stars Her friends describe her as a harem of seven women in one very small body She lives in San Francisco where she dances plays cello and creates her life as an art form Diane teaches at San Francisco State University and Dominican University She leads workshops for young writers as a Poet in the School and directs the Blue Light Press On line Poetry Workshop She is also a documentary scriptwriter with expertise in Eastern and sacred art Blackberries in the Dream House her first novel won the Chelson Award for Fiction and was nominated for the Pulitzer Prize Yoga of the Impossible her new novel will be published soon To schedule readings book signings and workshops and to invite her to speak to your book club contact E mail GeishaPoet aol com Website www dianefrank net BOOKS BY DIANE FRANK Yoga of the Impossible Swan Light Blackberries in the Dream House Entering the Word Temple The Winter Life of Shooting Stars The All Night Yemenite Cafe Rhododendron Shedding Its Skin Isis Poems by Diane Frank These poems of love returning to love and light returning to light are a heart gone supernova Page by page Frank burns a path to her readers hearts The alignments are profound the connections electric from heart to bone from marrow to star These are radiant poems where we earthbound creatures may find simultaneous escape and renewal George Wallace Walt Whitman Birthplace Writer in Residence There may be those who think of poetry as optional but Diane Frank s Swan Light does not support that thinking since it addresses a hunger you didn t know you had first with trace nutrients of the soul and as you progress with the solid food of organic experience Read savour and be nourished Paul Stokstad Author of Butterfly Tattoo In Swan Light Diane Frank has written an irrepressible and epic love story a love story for lover artist parent child earth heaven spirit body and music a love story for what we are forced to leave behind and for what we are lucky enough to keep a love story whose thread is the music of love found in the many narratives and lyrics we live while walking writing running dancing painting and praying This is Diane Frank s most ambitious body of poetry to date and I say body because the word collection is so inaccurate This book is a whole breathing the same breath as the author and singing a meaning threaded with intricate images and motifs Rustin Larson author of Crazy Star and The Wine Dark House Diane Frank presents in Swan Light a finely wrought choreography of poetry that intersects with the music of language and the spirit of dance In these poems are whole constellations of imagery a resplendent aurora of words showering down to light up the geography of the page If poetry should not mean but be as MacLeish proclaimed then these poems by Diane Frank truly are Andrena Zawinski author of Something About PEN Oakland Award Here is a book to treasure to take down frequently for no particular reason a book to help us remember why we took to poetry in the first place Daniel J Langton Creative Writing Program San Francisco State University
