

COCKNEY RHYMING SLANG

WHAT IS COCKNEY RHYMING SLANG?

- In short, Cockney rhyming slang is a type of slang language used predominantly in the United Kingdom. The slang originally came from the east end of London in the 19th century but has spread across the country and the terms are easily recognised by people as far north as the Scottish borders and beyond.
- In its early stages, Cockney rhyming slang was developed as a way to confuse people who did not understand the lingo so that people could have conversations which were more private in their nature. Much of the slang was developed by street traders such as market sellers and those selling fresh produce from carts. However, in the modern-day, it is simply used as a more fun alternative to traditional English words and phrases.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

- Rhyming slang is exactly what you might expect it to be, it is a form of slang which uses words and phrases which rhyme with their original meanings, for example 'apples and pears' refers to stairs as this phrase is a direct rhyme of the word.
- In many instances, the word which rhymes is left out, a good example of this is the term 'butchers hook' which means to look but many people would simply say that they were 'having a butcher.' These terms may seem complicated but they are commonly recognised by many people and easy to understand once you learn them.
