Rhys Davies Collected Stories Meic Stephens, 1996-01-01 Rhys Davies Rhys Davies, 1996 The Collected Stories of Rhys Davies Rhys Davies, 1955 The Best of Rhys Davies, 1979 Best of Rhys Davies Rhys Davies, 1955 Rhys Davies Huw Edwin Osborne, 2009-07-01

Davies was the holder of a complex identity he was a gay man who grew up as a shopkeeper's son in the Rhondda who left Wales to write about his homeland in England This book unravels a national experience that is deeply bound up in complex negotiations of class sexuality and gender and follows a career that was predicted to be that of the representative Welshman The book is divided into three sections the first begins with Davies's childhood in Blaenclydach and the ways in which his memories of his childhood reinforce continuing themes in his stories and novels the second will place Davies in literary London and address Davies's struggle to enter the privileged circles of literary production circulation and reception the final section considers the established Davies of the 1940s 50s and 60s

Collected Stories Rhys Davies, 1996 In the Shadow of the Pulpit M. Wynn Thomas, 2009-10-15 Writer versus preacher this book shows how this struggle has lain at the heart of Welsh writing and culture for the past two hundred years intimately shaping the English language literature produced by Wales Starting with a simple explanation of the history and character of Welsh Nonconformity it traces the growing textual response to Nonconformity's hegemonic cultural power from the eighteenth century onwards culminating in twentieth century writers attempts to undermine it by wresting words from the control of the pulpit It also uncovers a whole new body of nineteenth century fiction from Wales and re defines Dylan Thomas's debt to his Nonconformist ancestors Behind the Scenes Angela John, 2025-06-13 Philip Burton 1904-95 is best remembered as the schoolmaster responsible for training and transforming his pupil Richard Jenkins into Richard Burton world famous star of stage and screen Together they produced a remarkable symbiosis The stage struck Philip Burton was present behind the scenes for the rest of the actor's life intervening at crucial moments to ensure consummate stage performances in for example Coriolanus Hamlet and Camelot This biography drawing upon a number of previously unseen sources provides a fresh angle on this compelling story And by placing Philip Burton's story centre stage a remarkable figure also emerges in his own right In a life that virtually spanned the twentieth century he demonstrated resilience and transatlantic triumph against the odds Like his best known protégé he was born into an impoverished south Wales mining family Alongside teaching he acted wrote and produced plays and in 1945 with wireless at its height he became a BBC radio producer He worked on almost 200 radio programmes encouraging newcomers and producing work by Dylan Thomas He wrote scripts for the fledgling television and penned its first soap Reinventing himself in the mid 1950s Philip Burton moved to the United States where after dabbling in the film industry and working as a theatre director he became the inspirational first director of the American Musical and Dramatic Academy in New York He took American citizenship and travelled across the States delivering sparkling Shakespearean lecture recitals He published five books living in Key West Florida from the

Queer Square Mile Kirsti Bohata, Mihangel Morgan, Huw Osborne, 2021-10-21 QUEER SQUARE MILE Queer Short Stories from Wales Edited by Kirsti Bohata Mihangel Morgan and Huw Osborne This ground breaking volume makes visible a long and diverse tradition of queer writing from Wales Spanning genres from ghost stories and science fiction to industrial literature and surrealist modernism these are stories of love loss and transformation In these stories gender refuses to be fixed a dashing travelling companion is not quite who he seems in the intimate darkness of a mail coach a girl on the cusp of adulthood gamely takes her father's place as head of the house and an actor and patron are caught up in dangerous game playing In the more fantastical tales there are talking rats flirtations with fascism and escape from a post virus utopia These are stories of sexual awakening coming out and redefining one's place in the world Release and a certain heady license may be found in the distant cities of Europe or north Africa but the stories are for the most part located in familiar Welsh settings a schoolroom a provincial town a mining village a tourist resort a sacred island The intensity of desire whether overt playful or coded makes this a rich and often surprising collection that reimagines what being queer and Welsh has meant in different times and places The first anthology of its kind in Wales which finally sheds light on a largely hidden queer cultural history with the careful selection of over 40 short stories 1837 2018 New translations of Kate Roberts Mihangel Morgan Jane Edwards Pennar Davies and Dylan Huw make available their compelling stories for the first time to a non Welsh speaking readership Previously unpublished works by writers such as Margiad Evans and Ken Etheridge appear alongside better known favourites
