Leithart, 2023-12-05 Discussion about God's work of creation are often overwhelmed by questions such as the age of the earth and the relationship between divine creation and evolution Without completely ignoring these issues this rigorously grounded theological interpretation of Genesis 1 engages thinkers like Plato Martin Luther and Karl Barth Big Dreams Kelly Bulkeley, 2016-03-02 Big dreams are rare but highly memorable dream experiences that make a strong and lasting impact on the dreamer's waking awareness Moving far beyond I forgot to study and the finals are today and other common scenarios such dreams can include vivid imagery intense emotions fantastic characters and an uncanny sense of being connected to forces beyond one's ordinary dreaming mind In Big Dreams Kelly Bulkeley provides the first full scale cognitive scientific analysis of such dreams putting forth an original theory about their formation function and meaning Big dreams have played significant roles in religious and cultural history but because of their infrequent occurrence and fantastical features they have rarely been studied in light of modern science We know a great deal about the religious manifestations of big dreams throughout history and around the world but until now that cross cultural knowledge has never been integrated with scientific research on their psychological roots in the brain mind system In Big Dreams Bulkeley puts a classic psychological thesis to the scientific test by clarifying and improving it with better data sharper analysis and a broader evolutionary framework He brings evidence from multiple sources shows patterns of similarity and difference questions prior assumptions and provides predictive models that can be applied to new sets of data The notion of a connection between dreaming and religion has always been intuitively compelling Big Dreams transforms it into a solid premise of religious studies and brain mind science Combining evidence from religious studies psychology anthropology evolutionary biology and neuroscience Big Dreams makes a compelling argument that big dreams are a primal wellspring of religious experience They represent an innate neurologically hard wired capacity of our species that regularly provokes greater self awareness creativity and insight into the existential challenges and spiritual potentials of human life The Individual and Community in African Traditional Religions Theo Sundermeier, 1998 The writer has done a careful scholarly and sensitive and very positive and fair study of African religion with particular reference to the individual and community Theo Sundermeier lets Africa speak for itself and on its own terms and in its own categories The concluding chapter is a necessary reading for all who would be on mission who would seek to live the ecumenical imperative and care to ensure that the pursuit of a religion does not result in dehumanization and degradation and marginalization of the other person Rev Canon Prof John S Pobee

World Council of Churches Geneva Switzerland This book treats the subject of African religions in a creative and interesting way emphasizing that these religions are genuine authentic expressions of religiosity on a par with other religions including the so called world religions The author provides an excellent account of the nature interdependence between individual community society and the natural order an interdependence which these religions symbolize and express in ritual and belief Likewise the essentially personal nature of power as conceived in African culture is thoughtfully and interestingly analysed There are many other thought provoking ideas and interpretations in this volume including the deconstruction of the commonly held notions of the distinction between witchcraft and magic This is a most worthwhile contribution to the study of Africa s traditional religions and I am convinced all those with an interest in Africa who read it will gain much therefrom Professor Peter B Clarke Professor of the History and Sociology of Religion in the University of London at King s College and formerly Professor of African History at the University of Ibadan Nigeria Theo Sundermeier is Professor of the History of Religion and Missiology at the Ruprecht Karls Universit t Heidelberg translated by Elaine Griffiths Eleanor Jackson

Religion and Spirituality in the Life Cycle James Gollnick, 2005 In recent years profound changes have affected the way people view the role of religion and spirituality in the life cycle For many people spirituality always considered an essential part of religion has become an interest no longer tied to organized religion This book addresses the evolving relationship of spirituality to religion in our time and the consequences of this change for understanding personality development It also applies the concept of implicit religion to show how the least easily observed aspects of religion are at work in the growth of personality Spiritual and Religious Tom Wright, 2017-05-18 I m spiritual but not religious It s a phrase that s often used to explain why although they don t go to church people still feel that life must have some kind of transcendent meaning But what does this spirituality consist of In Spiritual and Religious Tom Wright argues that whether people realize it or not they are often simply reverting to forms of ancient paganism that are very similar to those that confronted the earliest Christians With his characteristic verve and incisiveness Wright traces the parallels between the worldviews of the first and twenty first centuries and shows how a better understanding of God as Trinity can breathe fresh life into our understanding and preaching of the gospel today He concludes this prophetic book with a call to contemporary Christians to make a clear choice Are we to compromise with paganism to assimilate to water down the distinctives of Christian faith in order to make it more palatable Are we to retreat into dualism into a private spiritual religion which will assure us of an other worldly salvation but which will leave the powers of the present world unchallenged Or are we to worship the God who is Father Son and Spirit and to find in that worship a renewed courage a renewed sense of direction and a renewed hope for the future
