Travel Writing from Black Australia Robert Clarke, 2015-11-19 Over the past thirty years the Australian travel experience has been Aboriginalized Aboriginality has been appropriated to furnish the Australian nation with a unique and identifiable tourist brand This is deeply ironic given the realities of life for many Aboriginal people in Australian society On the one hand Aboriginality in the form of artworks literature performances landscapes sport and famous individuals is celebrated for the way it blends exoticism mysticism multiculturalism nationalism and reconciliation On the other hand in the media cinema and travel writing Aboriginality in the form of the lived experiences of Aboriginal people has been exploited in the service of moral panic patronized in the name of white benevolence or simply ignored For many travel writers this irony the clash between different regimes of valuing Aboriginality is one of the great challenges to travelling in Australia Travel Writing from Black Australia examines the ambivalence of contemporary travelers engagements with Aboriginality Concentrating on a period marked by the rise of discourses on Aboriginality championing indigenous empowerment self determination and reconciliation the author analyses how travel to Black Australia has become for many travelers a means of discovering new and potentially transformative styles of interracial engagement

Conceptions of Giftedness Shane N. Phillipson, Maria McCann, 2020-11-25 The effective education of gifted children is one of the most significant challenges facing educational systems in many countries around the world made particularly difficult by the forces of globalization Conceptions of Giftedness describes the unique and varied ways cultures conceive of giftedness As language influences perception different ideas of giftedness may embody different ways of thinking especially in the areas of creativity and problem solving This important new volume in special education encourages the understanding appreciation and preservation of our intellectual diversity Contributing authors to this book are authorities in the field of gifted education and represent a range of languages and cultures including Western Chinese Japanese Australian Aboriginal and Malay cultures Each chapter describes giftedness from one cultural perspective within the global context resulting in both local and global educational implications Conceptions of Giftedness appeals to an international audience and will serve as a primary and or secondary resource for scholars teachers and undergraduate and postgraduate students interested in gifted education Its distinctive universal perspective will attract sociolinguists and anthropologists as well as educators
