Rich Mix Inclusive Strategies For Urban Regeneration:

Rich Mix' Dr Sue Brownill, Jane Darke, 1998-10-01 The authors of this report argue that sustainable regeneration of urban areas has to be met with a reorientation of policy that places the issues of race and gender in the mainstream of strategy

Regeneration in the 21st Century Michael Carley, 2000 Decades of regeneration activity have not halted the decline in prosperity and the social exclusion of sections of British society Starting in 1996 the Joseph Rowntree Foundation took action to assess the nature of this activity to discover what works and what does not and to search out examples of good practice Its Area Regeneration Programme covered every aspect of regeneration policy and practice from the national to the neighbourhood level from labour market analysis to community development Regeneration in the 21st century summarises the findings of the programme which include over 60 research studies It provides an overview of knowledge to date and identifies the key challenges that we face in the 21st century Analysed by specialists in each field the report considers the impact of geography and reputation on area disadvantage why community involvement is vital and how it can be implemented the effect of joblessness on regeneration and how it can be mitigated why and how some partnerships succeed the need for integration including between top down bottom up and national local initiatives

Regeneration in the 21st century is vital reading for policy makers regeneration partnerships local regional and national and for anyone interested in the regeneration of Britain

Urban Regeneration, Community Power and the (In)Significance of 'Race' Paul J. Maginn, 2017-11-30 The concepts of community consultation and participation have come to dominate academic and policy debate about urban regeneration partnerships However there has been relatively little discussion about the nature of community power within regeneration partnerships Adopting an ethnographic approach in the study of community participation and power and the significance of race in three ethnically diverse neighbourhoods in London this book highlights that there has been a pluralistic turn in British urban regeneration policy Local communities often portrayed as the least powerful partner within partnerships are shown to use various strategies to influence decision making thus giving rise to a new typology of pluralism pragmatic hyper and paternalistic Furthermore the significance of race and racism within community forums and regeneration partnerships is challenged The playful use of the term In Significance in the title is linked to the argument that although racism exists race does not always matter

Collaborative Strategies and Multi-organizational Partnerships Tharsi Taillieu, 2001 Contains a collection of papers which were presented at the Seventh International Conference The aim is to advance the understanding of the nature of such partnerships and strategies by providing an international platform for the exchange of novel ideas experiences and practices The conference focused most of its attention on experiences and methodologies regarding multiparadigmatic approaches

Management of Regeneration John Diamond, Joyce Liddle, 2013-02-01 Stemming from a need to understand strategic processes examine current practices and identify the needs of regeneration management professionals this book cites current regeneration management practice within a framework which critically examines the theoretical models developed over the past twenty years It features illustrative case studies learning objectives key themes boxes and review and reflection segments and explains strategic processes and new forms of local sub regional and regional management It also investigates the development and extension of the roles of regeneration managers which increasingly illustrate the uneven and contradictory nature of this subject and raises important issues regarding how such individuals are supported and developed This book examines current initiatives in order to present good practice provides practitioners and students with an understanding of the choices challenges and dilemmas faced by regeneration managers focuses on the themes of partnership capacity building and community engagement participation and sustainability has an accompanying web page featuring downloadable PowerPoint slides and test blanks A valuable resource for public sector managers and urban management professionals this book synthesises strategic literature and applies it within a changing local sub regional and regional governance system Providing a clear framework within which new models of strategy and implementation can be found it presents a balanced approach between existing theory and practical case material

Reinventing the City? Head of Civic Engagement Dublin City University and Visiting Professor of Development Studies University of Liverpool and St Mary's University Nova Scotia Ronaldo Munck, 2003-01-01 Although Liverpool is the central theme of this book the author gives an informed comparative overview of the city in a worldwide context Chapters examine in detail the cultural social and economic legacy of the city

Managing the City John Diamond, Joyce Liddle, Alan Southern, Alan Townsend, 2007-01-24 Taking a problem based approach to regeneration management this exciting new book authored by renowned academics and practitioners examines how issues of ethics equality sustainability local governance civic renewal and learning are addressed within the areas of social and economic development and transformation The issues covered here have significant implications for the ways in which regeneration initiatives are put together in their design development and delivery as well as for the skills and learning needs of practitioners and the ways in which initiatives are then managed and led This informative book provides the tools and techniques using a mixture of rigorous academic theory and practical insights to enable any reader to gain insight into this important subject Drawing upon a breadth of experience both in practice and in academia the contributors present the gaps and challenges within regeneration management and the editors provide a framework within which the practical difficulties facing those engaged in the process of regeneration can be managed Engaging and comprehensive this book is an invaluable resource for all those involved in regeneration

The Making of a Smart City in Korea Jaehyeon

Jeong, Hojeong Lee, Joong-Hwan Oh, 2023-05-02 The Making of a Smart City in Korea The Quest for E Seoul displays how the notion of the smart city has been interpreted and applied in Seoul the capital and largest metropolis of South Korea The contributors show how a shift into a digital city has brought about noticeable changes in the governance economics and cultures of Seoul This edited volume on the Seoul Metropolitan Government's quest for e Seoul provides great resources for many cities worldwide seeking to benchmark this particular type of smart city as well as for all those academics in the fields to learn it given that Seoul has systematically pushed different stages and strategies of the smart urbanization Housing and Social Policy Peter Somerville, Nigel Sprigings, 2005 The chapters in this book each consider a specific social category such as class gender or disability and evaluate the experience and understanding of housing and social policy under these categories Partnership Working Balloch, Susan, Taylor, Marilyn, 2001-07-11 This volume goes beyond the confines of statutory partnerships addressing other important forms of collaboration between voluntary private and statutory sectors and service users and community and minority groups Housing, social policy and difference Harrison, Malcolm, Davis, Cathy, 2001-04-18 Issues of difference are on the agenda right across the social sciences and are encountered daily by practitioners in policy fields A central question is how the welfare state and its institutions respond to impairment ethnicity and gender This book provides an invaluable overview of key issues set in the context of housing Touching on concerns ranging from minority ethnic housing needs to the housing implications of domestic violence this broad ranging study shows how difference is regulated in housing It deploys a distinctive theoretical perspective which is applicable to other aspects of the welfare state and bridges the agency structure divide Housing social policy and difference brings disability ethnicity and gender into the centre of an analysis of housing policies and practices offers a new approach to housing informed by recent theoretical debates about agency structure and diversity develops the ideas of difference within difference and social regulation looks beyond the concerns of postmodernism to create an original account of difference and structure within the welfare state The book will be an important text for students and researchers in housing social policy planning urban studies sociology disability studies gender studies and ethnic relations It will also interest practitioners committed to greater equalities of opportunities and a fairer society Policy Responses To Social Exclusion Percy-Smith, Janie, 2000-09-01 This timely book examines current policy responses to social exclusion Each contribution addresses a different area of policy describing the context for the intervention examining key themes and issues and assessing the likely effectiveness of policies

'Race', Housing and Social Exclusion Peter Somerville, Andy Steele, 2002 The contributors analyse the implications of social exclusion offering suggestions for good practice in the allocation of housing for black and other ethnic minority groups This book shows how racism and the shortage of housing workers from black and other ethnic minorities constrain the choices available to these groups Planning for Diversity Dory Reeves, 2005 The practical importance of diversity and equality for spatial planning and sustainable development is still not widely understood Using international examples this book shows planners and educationalists the benefits of building in a consideration of diversity and equality at each stage and level of planning Despite being one of the most diverse and gender balanced of the built environment professions complacency has been widespread in planning This book shows why a diverse profession is important and drawing on a wide range of good practice shows how those involved in planning can develop their sensitivity to and expertise in diversity and equality     The Politics of Culture M. Mirza,2011-12-13 The idea of diversity dominates cultural policy in the twenty first century Against the perceived elitism of the past policy makers seek to use culture to address social exclusion Drawing on original research this book exposes problems with this approach making the case for universalism in cultural and political life

Care, Community and Citizenship Susan Balloch,Michael Hill,2007-07-18 This edited collection focuses on the relationship between social care communities and citizenship While there is extensive research within each of these fields until now there is a dearth of dialogue between them this book provides a link in a way that is relevant to both policy and practice

Tackling the Roots of Racism Reena Bhavnani,Heidi Safia Mirza,Veena Meeto,2005 Thirty years after the Race Relations Act racism remains endemic in British society How successful have policy measures been in addressing the causes of racism What lessons can we learn from countries outside Britain This important and timely book reviews the evidence and asks what really works

Race and Planning Huw Thomas,2004-08-02 Examines the place of race in land use planning drawing on policy making literature as well as race and ethnic studies to provide students with a well balanced introduction

Poverty, Community and Health V. Cattell,2011-10-27 If we are becoming increasingly disconnected from our local communities are there implications for health well being and happiness particularly for people on low incomes This book looks at the interplay between poor people poor communities and poor health with a particular focus on social networks as key linkages

Policy for a change Sue Yeandle,2008-11-26 Why is it so difficult to turn girls success at school into success in the labour market How does detailed evidence about women s engagement with local labour markets affect the preference theory debate Why is part time employment such a popular but economically damaging choice for women What barriers still limit women s horizons and narrow their aspirations Using a new and original approach this illuminating book explores women s employment at the start of the 21st century in particular identifying aspects of women s labour market situation which remain poorly understood and challenging much received wisdom about women and work The contributors examine pervasive myths about women in employment which have influenced policy and explore a number of theoretical puzzles and problems which persist despite attempts to tackle them Policy for a change will be essential reading for professionals employers and trade unions working in human resources regeneration equalities and diversity anti poverty skills and training as well as for researchers teachers and students in sociology social and public policy labour market economics urban studies and management
