Reader's Guide to Literature in English Mark Hawkins-Dady, 2012-12-06 Reader's Guide Literature in English provides expert guidance to and critical analysis of the vast number of books available within the subject of English literature from Anglo Saxon times to the current American British and Commonwealth scene It is designed to help students teachers and librarians choose the most appropriate books for research and study The Making of the New Negro Anna Pochmara, 2011 The Making of the New Negro examines black masculinity in the period of the New Negro Harlem Renaissance which for many decades did not attract a lot of scholarly attention until in the 1990s many scholars discovered how complex significant and fascinating it was Using African American published texts American archives and unpublished writings and contemporaneous European discourses this book focuses both on the canonical figures of the New Negro Movement and African American culture such as W E B Du Bois Booker T Washington Alain Locke and Richard Wright and on writers who have not received as much scholarly attention despite their significance for the movement such as Wallace Thurman Its perspective combines gender sexuality and race studies with a thorough literary analysis and historicist investigation an approach that has not been extensively applied to analyze the New Negro Renaissance The Routledge Global Haiku fugitive slave the fiery orator the political activist the abolitionist always represented as a black man How does the heroic voice and heroic image of the black woman get suppressed in a culture that depended on her heroism for survival Mary Helen Washington from her essay in Reading Black Reading Feminist The Reader's Adviser, 1986 Southscapes

Thadious M. Davis, 2011-11-21 In this innovative approach to southern literary cultures Thadious Davis analyzes how black southern writers use their spatial location to articulate the vexed connections between society and environment particularly under segregation and its legacies Basing her analysis on texts by Ernest Gaines Richard Wright Alice Walker Natasha Trethewey Olympia Vernon Brenda Marie Osbey Sybil Kein and others Davis reveals how these writers reconstitute racial exclusion as creative black space rather than a site of trauma and resistance Utilizing the social and political separation epitomized by segregation to forge a spatial and racial vantage point Davis argues allows these writers to imagine and represent their own subject matter and aesthetic concerns Focusing particularly on Louisiana and Mississippi Davis deploys new geographical discourses of space to expand analyses of black writers relationship to the South and to consider the informing aspects of spatial narratives on their literary production She argues that African American writers not only are central to the production of southern literature and new southern studies but also are crucial to understanding the shift from modernism to postmodernism in southern letters A paradigm shifting work Southscapes restores African American writers to their rightful place in the regional imagination while calling for a more inclusive conception of region Conversations with Jerry W. Eyes William J. Maxwell, 2016-12-06

How FBI surveillance influenced African American writing Few institutions seem more opposed than African American literature and J Edgar Hoover s white bread Federal Bureau of Investigation But behind the scenes the FBI s hostility to black protest was energized by fear of and respect for black writing Drawing on nearly 14 000 pages of newly released FBI files F B Eyes exposes the Bureau s intimate policing of five decades of African American poems plays essays and novels Starting in 1919 year one of Harlem s renaissance and Hoover s career at the Bureau secretive FBI ghostreaders monitored the latest developments in African American letters By the time of Hoover s death in 1972 these ghostreaders knew enough to simulate a sinister black literature of their own The official aim behind the Bureau s close reading was to anticipate political unrest Yet as William J Maxwell reveals FBI surveillance came to influence the creation and public reception of African American literature in the heart of the twentieth century Taking his title from Richard Wright s poem The FB Eye Blues Maxwell details how the FBI threatened the international travels of African American writers and prepared to jail dozens of them in times of national emergency All the same he shows that the Bureau s paranoid style could prompt insightful criticism from Hoover s ghostreaders and creative replies from their literary targets For authors such as Claude McKay James Baldwin and Sonia Sanchez the suspicion that government spy critics tracked their every word inspired rewarding stylistic experiments as well as disabling self censorship Illuminating both the serious harms of state surveillance and the ways in which imaginative writing can withstand and exploit it F B Eyes is a groundbreaking account of a long hidden dimension of African American literature Ride Out the Wilderness Melvin Dixon, 1987

Often considered alienated from mainstream culture and consigned to negative environments Afro American writers have created alternative spatial and geographical metaphors to develop a positive sense of individual and cultural identity Melvin Dixon demonstrates how three principal figures of the land the wilderness the underground and the mountaintop have become places of refuge and cultural revitalization for the performance of identity from early slave songs and fugitive narratives to modern and contemporary fiction Jacket Talking Drums Wanda C.
