Australian Arts: Where the Bloody Hell Are You? John Clark, Peter McCallum, Ian Maxwell, 2018-08-30 Australian Arts Where the Bloody Hell Are You was a one day symposium in December 2006 organised by the Research Institute for Humanities and Social Sciences at the University of Sydney to consider Australia's international arts profile. The forum examined cultural advocacy not as a one-way process but as a means of facilitating cultural flows which benefit both artists and society. It highlighted the substantial benefits of international cultural exchange and concluded that strengthening existing programs rather than a large bureaucracy would best serve Australia's current circumstances. Doubling or trebling Australia's current expenditure would enable the public to enjoy more fully the fruits of those who are currently Australia's biggest arts subsidisers: the artists themselves.

Storm Breakers James Axler, 2013-07. PLUNGE FROM GRACE. In post-apocalyptic Deathlands America the beautiful has been ravaged by two centuries of nuclear fallout. Here the American dream boils down to one thing: survival. Ryan Cawdor and his fellow warriors seize each day armed and ready to hold on to the only life they've got. Despite the odds they believe in something better: someplace they can call home where peace isn't just a dream.

LEGACY OF MADNESS On the coast of what used to be Maine the group's armourer J.B. Dix lies dying from a gunshot wound. Having no other choice, Ryan makes a deal with a local baron and his strangely beautiful wife. J.B. will get the surgery he needs when Ryan and crew rescue the couple's daughter abducted by slavers. But the cold, deep Atlantic waters harbor pre-dark secrets including the terrifying specter of a U.S.S.R. nuclear submarine and its descendants. In Deathlands no one is ever free from the past.

Spirits in the Bush Simon Gregg, 2019-11-08. Spirits in the Bush surveys the art of Gippsland from the colonial to the contemporary. This expansive original and illuminating compendium leads readers on a journey through artistic and provincial history, interweaving the lives of residents and visitors. Collectively it presents a vivid account of the influence of place on the cultural imagination. A fascinating cast of characters includes some of Australia's best-known and most-loved artists, including Eugene von Guérard, Jessie Traill, Arthur Streeton, Clarice Beckett, Sidney Nolan, Arthur Boyd, Fred Williams, and Jeffrey Smart. Readers will discover also a host of new names destined for recognition. Spirits in the Bush reveals how artists have grappled with a region that is in equal measures beautiful and brutal and which has provided the stage for many of the key battles in Australian art history. Bound by geographical camaraderie and with the spectre of Gippsland's past as an unwavering presence, the stories of their art unfold in a unique dialogue. This publication was made possible through the generous support of the Gordon Darling Foundation.
