A Companion to Applied Philosophy Kasper Lippert-Rasmussen, Kimberley Brownlee, David Coady, 2016-11-14 Applied philosophy has been a growing area of research for the last 40 years Until now however almost all of this research has been centered around the field of ethics A Companion to Applied Philosophy breaks new ground demonstrating that all areas of philosophy including epistemology metaphysics philosophy of science and philosophy of mind can be applied and are relevant to questions of everyday life This perennial topic in philosophy provides an overview of these various applied philosophy developments highlighting similarities and differences between various areas of applied philosophy and examining the very nature of this topic It is an area to which many of the towering figures in the history of philosophy have contributed and this timely Companion demonstrates how various historical contributions are actually contributions within applied philosophy even if they are not traditionally seen as such The Companion contains 42 essays covering major areas of philosophy the articles themselves are all original contributions to the literature and represent the state of the art on this topic as well as offering a map to the current debates     The Essential Guide to Doing Your Research Project Zina O'Leary, Author, 2021-03-10 This practical book sets out how to approach each stage of your research project from choosing a research design and methodology to collecting and analysing data and communicating your results and showcases best practice along the way Packed with pragmatic guidance for tackling research in the real world this fourth edition Offers support for diving into a project using digital data with how to guidance on conducting online and social media research Empowers you to confidently disseminate your work and present with impact Helps you map out your research journey and put a plan in place with decision trees in every chapter Challenges you to be reflective and critical about the research you consume and undertake Zina O Leary s detailed and down to earth approach gives you the research skills and momentum you need to successfully complete your research project     What Is Reality? Ross Inman, 2024-10-08 In this introduction to metaphysics Ross Inman introduces us to the tradition of metaphysics in Western philosophy what it means to do metaphysics as a Christian and considers timeless and universal inquiries into central topics of metaphysics identity necessity and possibility properties universals substances and parts and wholes     A Worldview of Everything Brian Cronin, 2022-11-30 Philosophy has sometimes been described as the discipline in which you can never be wrong as the reserve of absentminded professors aloof academics and purveyors of obscure ideas or interesting opinions Quite the contrary Philosophy answers the hard questions Does everything happen by chance Is there anything more than matter in the universe Are humans in the same class as animals Is there a God Can we know the correct answer to these questions The answers to these questions matter We are all philosophers even though we are not aware of the fact We each have a set of ultimate priorities and principles answers to these questions a big picture that determines our everyday thoughts decisions and actions In this book Brian Cronin uses the ideas of Bernard Lonergan s Insight A Study of Human Understanding to argue methodically towards a correct critical comprehensive worldview an answer to those big questions which is the precise task of first philosophy This book is an accessible and readable presentation of Lonergan s metaphysics a somewhat neglected topic Science and philosophy are complementary Scientists answer the concrete detailed questions about everything around us the parts Philosophy integrates all these into a correct worldview of the whole of everything

Apologetics in Africa Kevin Muriithi Ndereba, 2024-02-01 Divided into four major sections this textbook provides an in depth exploration of the biblical philosophical cultural and practical concerns facing African Christians as they proclaim and defend the gospel in Africa Written by a diverse group of pastors and scholars it provides a much needed interdisciplinary and contextualized approach to apologetics It also seeks to bridge the gap between academic research and ministry practice touching on such topics as hermeneutics biblical criticism church history the nature of evil religious inclusivism Muslim

Christian engagement eldership rites domestic violence cults and the digital age Biblically robust contextually relevant ministry oriented and accessible this is a remarkable resource for enriching the life and ministry of Christians in Africa and beyond

Depicting Deity Jonathan L. Kvanvig, 2021 A theology aims to explain the nature of God A metatheology investigates more fundamental issues concerning how to structure such an intellectual endeavor This book examines where it is best to start the project of theology in the hope of offering a defensible metatheory from which a complete and elegant theology can be developed

Time and Identity Joseph Keim Campbell, Michael O'Rourke, Harry S. Silverstein, 2010-05-14 Original essays on the metaphysics of time identity and the self written by distinguished scholars and important rising philosophers The concepts of time and identity seem at once unproblematic and frustratingly difficult Time is an intricate part of our experience it would seem that the passage of time is a prerequisite for having any experience at all and yet recalcitrant questions about time remain Is time real Does time flow Do past and future moments exist Philosophers face similarly stubborn questions about identity particularly about the persistence of identical entities through change Indeed questions about the metaphysics of persistence take on many of the complexities inherent in philosophical considerations of time This volume of original essays brings together these two essentially related concepts in a way not reflected in the available literature making it required reading for philosophers working in metaphysics and students interested in these topics The contributors distinguished authors and rising scholars first consider the nature of time and then turn to the relation of identity focusing on the metaphysical connections between the two with a special emphasis on personal identity The volume concludes with essays on the metaphysics of death issues in which time and identity play a significant role This groundbreaking collection offers both cutting edge epistemological analysis and historical perspectives on contemporary topics Contributors Harriet Baber Lynne Rudder Baker Ben Bradley John W Carroll Reinaldo Elugardo Geoffrey Gorham Mark Hinchliff Jenann Ismael Barbara Levenbook Andrew Light Lawrence B Lombard Ned Markosian Harold Noonan John Perry Harry S Silverstein Matthew H Slater Robert J Stainton Neil A Tognazzini ever fully comprehend the entire material universe There is no question that modern science has radically advanced our understanding of nature the universe and even reality itself But in Lawless Universe theoretical physicist Joe Rosen takes the scientific method down a peg In his estimation people like Stephen Hawking and Richard Dawkins are wrong to declare that science is on the verge of unlocking all the secrets of the universe Perhaps without realizing it they have crossed into the realm of metaphysics in an attempt to explain the unexplainable Rosen considers the separate but entangled domains of science and metaphysics and examines the all too often ignored boundary between the objective and the subjective He asserts that any understanding of the whole universe if it is to be found at all must come from nonscientific modes of comprehension and insight questions for review and discussion annotated suggestions for further reading Causes, Laws, and Free Will Kadri Vihvelin, 2013-05-06 Common sense tells us that we are morally responsible for our actions only if we have free will and that we have free will only if we are able to choose among alternative actions Common sense tells us that we do have free will and are morally responsible for many of the things we do Common sense also tells us that we are objects in the natural world governed by its laws Nevertheless many contemporary philosophers deny that we have free will or that free will is a necessary prerequisite for moral responsibility Some hold that we are morally responsible only if we are somehow exempt from the laws of nature Causes Laws and Free Will defends a thesis that has almost disappeared from the contemporary philosophical landscape by arguing that this philosophical flight from common sense is a mistake We have free will even if everything we do is predictable given the laws of nature and the past and we are morally responsible whatever the laws of nature turn out to be The impulses that tempt us into thinking that determinism robs us of free will spring from mistakes mistakes about the metaphysics of causation mistakes about the nature of laws and mistakes about the logic of counterfactuals
