Ride In The Neon Sun:

A Ride In The Neon Sun Josie Dew, 2012-08-02 It's not easy landing unprepared in a country like Japan. The eccentricities of the calendar, the indecipherable postal system, not to mention the alien alphabet language and culture have all to be confronted before the disorientated traveller can feel at ease. Trying to ride a bicycle through the streets of one of the most congested cities in the world would seem to compound your problems. For Josie Dew, however, with over 200,000 miles already clocked up in the saddle, few things could be more challenging. For the reader of A RIDE IN THE NEON SUN, more wonderfully entertaining. From Kawasaki to Kagoshima, Odawara to Okinawa, Josie discovered a nation rich in dazzling contrasts. The neon and concrete were there in greater abundance than even she had imagined, but so too were bottomless baths, love burgers, long-tailed cocks, musical toilet rolls, oriental Elvises, cardboard police, and a sense of fun belying the population's rigorous work ethic. Far from being the reserved race that she had heard about, the Japanese welcomed her into their homes with bountiful smiles and bows and skin-scorching baths. Ride in the Neon Sun Josie Dew, Oliver E.

Allen, 1980-04-01 Shows how to create a beautiful winter garden, detailing the extra care that must be taken and the measures for dealing with harsh weather and offering encyclopaedic coverage of winter plants. The Wind In My Wheels

Josie Dew, 2012-08-02 As a young girl, Josie Dew developed an overpowering urge to travel. She also fell out of a fast-moving vehicle and rather inconveniently developed a lifelong aversion to cars. Along came her first bicycle, and she has never looked back. Four continents, thirty-six countries, and eighty thousand miles worth of astounding adventures, eccentric characters, varied cultures, and ever-enduring optimism are the result of her travels. From Saharan locust invasions to tree-climbing goats and a customs official who wouldn't let her leave India because 'You are making me a very fine wife', her encounters are described with honesty, wit, and perception. Strange incidents and bizarre circumstances punctuate her journeys. In Nepal, she met a team of Frenchmen running from Paris to China, and a cyclist on his way from one Olympic Games to the next. In Udaipur, she was greeted by everyone with the refrain 'Hello Mr Jamie Bond Octopussy', filmed here whilst her view of post-Ceausescu Romania, a nation suffering and starving, affected her both physically and mentally. THE WIND IN MY WHEELS is informative, illuminating, and ceaselessly amusing. Travels In A Strange State Josie Dew, 2012-08-02

By most people's standards, Josie Dew is hugely adventurous. By American standards, she is completely insane. For Americans drive everywhere through cinemas, restaurants, banks, even trees. But driving past Josie as she pedalled across America was a new and alarming experience. On her eight-month journey, Josie experienced it all: race riots in Los Angeles, impossible heat in Death Valley, Sexual Tantric Seminars in Hawaii. From Utah to the Great Lakes via improbable places like Zzyzx and Squaw, it's her two-wheeled odyssey that brought her into contact with all the wonders and worries of this larger-than-life country. Highly entertaining, richly informative, TRAVELS IN A STRANGE STATE is a personal memoir of an improbable journey revealing the United States as it is rarely seen from the seat of a bicycle. Long Cloud Ride Josie Dew, 2011-04-07 After two months on board a Russian container ship sailing 15 000 miles across the world Josie finally arrives in New Zealand with her bike Over the next nine months she cycles 10 000 kilometres all over North and South Islands while experiencing the wettest windiest and stormiest year on record During this time Josie was spat at shouted at honked at and both run off and blown off the road She got soaked sunburnt hailed on and snowed on and was alternately starved and over fed over charged and under charged Then there was the wildlife the possums both dead and alive exotic birds such as moreporks with their eerie call and fantails who decided to follow the ostriches who liked to chase English cyclists and the harriers who liked to dive bomb them the more familiar but no less frustrating farm animals who provided sheep jams and cow blocks to slow Josie down In Long Cloud Ride Josie brings New Zealand brilliantly to life Warm witty and acutely observed as ever her latest adventure is sure to delight old and new fans alike
